Introduction

Beginning of The Hoopes Family Research

This Hoopes Family Record had its beginning in 1935, when two men, yet unknown to each other, began to research their early common ancestor, Daniel Hoopes, and speculate about the number of his descendants. For Dr. Gerald R. Fuller, who then lived in Arizona and later in Arkansas, interest in genealogical research was encouraged by his membership in The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints (Mormon). For Francis S. McIlhenny, Jr., who lived in Philadelphia and later in Litchfield, Connecticut and whose mother was a Hoopes, research was prompted by a dream that a Hoopes Family Record would someday be written. Within thirty years, Lillian FredsaW Webster began indexing the material Francis S. McIlhenny, Jr. had accumulated, and June Markus Hoopes, then of Borger, Texas, began to share the results of her two years' research with Dr. Fuller. By 1967 the nucleus of the Hoopes Family Organization had been formed on an informal basis.

The Hoopes Family Organization, Inc.

A natural outgrowth of the sharing of materials among this nucleus of four dedicated researchers was the formation of The Hoopes Family Organization, Inc., which in June 1970 was registered in the State of Connecticut. The purpose of The Hoopes Family Organization, Inc. is

To investigate, research and obtain direct source information for the compilation and gathering of genealogical, historical and informational material pertaining to the descendants, ancestry and progeny of Joshua Hoopes (b. ca. 1636, d. ca. 1723) to be used for the general education of the members of the organization and the public at large: using the source materials to write, annotate and publish a book containing the information so compiled and to further collect and add to the source materials by direct correspondence with descendants and others as new members are added to the family and as deaths occur; to enter into all contracts necessary for the printing and publication of such a book, and all and any other pamphlets or materials as may be to the educational benefit of the public and for members.<sup>1</sup>

On January 26, 1971, the U. S. Internal Revenue Service granted The Hoopes Family Organization, Inc. exemption from Federal income tax under Section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code, and on May 16, 1975, the exemption status was changed to come under Section 501 (c) (7), making contributions and membership fees tax deductible.

The Challenges of the Research

While many difficulties were encountered by the editors during their research, the resolution of problems and questions was always challenging, satisfying and interesting.

Since DANIEL HOOPES,<sup>2</sup> the only son of JOSHUA HOOPES, and JANE (WORRILOW) HOOPES had 17 children, 13 of whom married and had families, the editors have undertaken to collect records and carry down the lines of the families of the 13 married children. Although some of the lines are incomplete, most have been found to be fairly well developed.

More than 70 man-years have been devoted to the research, editing and publication of The Hoopes Family Record, Volume I. Many miles have been traveled, and countless hours have been spent searching out records, copying them, and fitting them into their proper place in the family structure. Dedicated family members have tramped old graveyards, attended numerous family reunions and held innumerable personal interviews with relatives. They have written many letters and placed numerous telephone calls. Researchers in their zeal may have been an annoyance to some during their years of research.

It is hoped that any such inconvenience will be outweighed by the benefits of the publication of Volume I of this Record.

For several reasons, research was immeasurably easier than it might have been. First, the early family was of the "Friendly Persuasion," and the Quakers kept excellent records in the Colonial Period. Second, many descendants of DANIEL HOOPES and JANE (WORRILOW) HOOPES became members of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints (Mormon), and the records of the Genealogical Society in Salt Lake City, Utah have been an excellent source of materials available to family genealogists. Third, because Pennsylvania was one of the original colonies, its records date back farther than most, and much of the background materials was researched from these records and early newspaper articles.

The entire family is indebted to all who have been generous with their family records and information. That there is more said about certain families than others is the result of the availability of information to the editors of Volume I of the Record.

INTRODUCTION

Editors' Expression of Appreciation

While specific acknowledgment of all who have contributed to the publication of Volume I of The Hoopes Family Record would be difficult, we would be remiss if special thanks were not given to the following for their devotion and assistance above and beyond the call of duty: John A. Hoopes of Houston, Texas; Glenda R. Fuller of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma; Arthur Benjamin Webster, Jr. of Litchfield, Connecticut; Dr. Thomas Temple Hoopes of St. Louis, Missouri; Lennis Barnes Hoops of Fort Worth, Texas; Delia (Rigby) Hoopes, deceased, late of Fairview, Wyoming; Dr. David Craig Hoopes of Moraga, California; Dorothy Lapp and Marwood Darlington of the Chester County Historical Society, West Chester, Pennsylvania; and John Insley Coddington of Bordentown, N.J.

We are grateful to those who have become members of The Hoopes Family Organization, Inc., and have provided funds to cover some expenses.

Unfortunately, Francis S. McIlhenny, Jr. died before the Record was published. Lillian Fredsall Webster, his secretary, continued the project without remuneration because she "knew he would want to see the project completed."

The reader will note that collateral family lines have not been extended, principally because this is The Hoopes Family Record. Nevertheless, it is hoped that those with ancestors among our collateral lines will use this Record as a starting point to begin their own research on those ancestral lines.

Editing of Volume II of The Hoopes Family Record Begins

As editing begins on Volume II of The Hoopes Family Record, it is hoped that any corrections or clarifications in Volume I will be brought to the attention of the editors, and that records which should be included in Volume II will be sent to the editors.

The editors appreciate the opportunity to share with you this Record of the descendants of DANIEL HOOPES and JANE (WORRILOW) HOOPES. May it prove to be significant for present and future generations.

The Hoopes Family History of English Ancestors and the Settlement in America of Joshua Hoopes and His Son Daniel Hoopes

ORIGIN OF THE HOOPE SURNAMES

The exact origin of the Hoopes surname has not been documented. While the surname Hoops has been found among many German immigrants who came to America, there is no evidence that these Hoops family members from Germany or Austria have any relationship to the descendants or ancestors of DANIEL HOOPE and JANE (WOR-RILEY) HOOPE. Any suggestion of a connection between the ancestors of DANIEL HOOPE and Hoops family members from Germany and Austria is only speculation.

Numerous Spellings of the Hoopes Surname

In England and in America, in the early genealogical and family records, the surnames of Hoopes, Hoops and Hooper are spelled in various ways. In parish records such surnames as Hope, Hopes, Hoope, Howpe, Hupper, Hopper, Hoppe, Hoppes, Hoopes, Hoops, Hooper and Hoop appear. The use of the surnames containing an "s" appear less frequently in the early English parish records than the use of the surnames containing an "r," leading to speculation that the surnames Hoopes and Hoops may have derived from Hooper, with or without intermediate spelling changes.

Early English Records of the Hooper Surname

It has been suggested that the surname of Hooper was first used in England about 1275. Crosby's Biographical Sketch of Eight Generations of Hoopers in America reports:

THE HOOPES FAMILY RECORD

In 1275 William le Hopore possessed lands in Dorset, England. In 1375 the name of Hooper is found in the county of Somerset. The name of Hooper was the Norman French term for a cloth merchant, and it may be presumed that the family which bore it was foreign.<sup>3</sup>

The surnames of Hooper, Hoopes or Hoops do not appear in the Domesday Book, (so called because its decision was regarded as final) a survey of the counties of England compiled by direction of King William I (William the Conqueror) in 1086. The Domesday Book, a census of the population and productive resources of the country, of their value and of who held them, was begun in 1085 and completed in less than 12 months.

Religious Persecution: One Possible Reason for Surname Changes

The surnames of Hooper, Hoopes and Hoops do not appear in England in 1086 during the time of King William I's survey. If there is an assumption that Hoopes and Hoops were possibly derived from Hooper, one reason for the name may have centered around the religious persecution by Queen Mary I (1516-1558) of ancestors of DANIEL HOOPES, as shown by DANIEL's second great-grandfather carrying the surname of Hoope (John Hoope [unknown-160S])<sup>4</sup> while DANIEL's third greatgrandfather carried the surname of Howpe (Robert Howpe [unknown-1570]).

Queen Mary I was a Catholic and was determined to restore the Roman Catholic faith to England. Queen Mary I was the daughter of King Henry VIII, who had separated the English Church from Rome, and she became queen in 1553 after the death of her brother King Edward VI. She immediately repealed all of King Edward VI's religious laws and revived certain severe laws against heresy or disbelief in church doctrine. During Queen Mary I's persecutions, she became known as "Bloody Mary" and more than three hundred persons were put to death.<sup>5</sup> Among them were the martyrs Thomas Cranmer, Nicholas Ridley, Hugh Latimer and John Hooper. While the similarity in surnames between the martyr John Hooper and the ancestors of DANIEL HOOPES may be only coincidental, the widespread religious persecution and upheaval of the era was, at a minimum, something which could not be ignored by the editors.

* Throughout the text dates may appear in parenthesis or brackets following names (i.e., [1575-1636]). The first date (.1575) is the birthdate, and the second date (1636) is the death date. When the birthdate or the death date is unknown, the word "unknown" will appear in the respective place of the date.

CHAPTER I

John Hooper—An English Protestant Bishop

John Hooper (written also hup'er and hop'er) was an English Protestant bishop. He was born in Somersetshire, England, about 1495, and was probably the most distinguished member of the English family called Hooper.

While a student at Oxford, he was converted to the Protestant faith. In 1539, to escape the Bloody Statutes of Henry VIII, he retired from England, and passed several years in Zurich. At the death of Henry he settled in London, where he became an eminent and eloquent preacher. In 1550 he was made Bishop of Gloucester, and in 1552 received the bishopric of Worcester in commendam. Soon after the accession of Mary he was condemned as a heretic, and, refusing to recant, was burned at the stake in 1553. He wrote numerous theological works.<sup>6</sup>

Upon the execution of John Hooper, many of his relatives may have been frightened and may have fled their homes and changed their surnames so they would not be identified with Bishop John Hooper or persecuted by Queen Mary's searchers. Others carrying similar surnames may have made changes to further disguise a presumed, although not actual, relationship.

The Howpe, Hoope and Hoopes Surnames

Our research does not identify John Hooper (1495-1553) as an ancestor of DANIEL HOOPES (27 May 1672-1746). As will be shown in this volume, JOHN HOOPE (unknown-1608), third great-grandfather of DANIEL HOOPES, had six children, all of whom were mentioned in his will proved 16 July 1608, as Hoopes, not Hoope. JOHN HOOPE (unknown-1608) was born about the time of the execution of Bishop John Hooper, and the execution and related persecutions may have been the reason his surname was recorded as Hoope, and not Howpe, as the fourth great-grandfather of DANIEL HOOPES was known (ROBERT HOWPE [unknown-1570]).

On the other hand, there may have been no relationship between the persecution and execution of Bishop John Hooper and the surname changes, for Moorsholm in the parish of Skelton-in-Cleveland was a remote parish on the seacoast a considerable distance from London, and news may have traveled slowly in that era.

The surname changes three times in three generations of the ancestors of DANIEL HOOPES (ROBERT HOWPE [unknown-1570], JOHN HOOPE [unknown-1608] and ROBERT HOOPES [1575-1636]). It is thought that the "s" in Hoopes might be a simple Yorkshire addition, having no relationship with the execution of Bishop John Hooper. While early parish and Quaker records give the spelling Hoope on occasion, a copy of the certificate carried by the father of DANIEL HOOPES, JOSHUA HOOPES, from the Quaker Meeting in England spelled his name JOSHUA HOOPES as early records in America continued to spell it.

The dropping of the "e" in Hoopes to form Hoops may have been the result of some Quaker's belief in simplicity, for Quakers were "plain people." While there is evidence that some family members who left Pennsylvania with the Quaker migration in the early 1800's dropped the "e" to form Hoops, there is no evidence that any members of the family who migrated west with the Mormon pioneers changed the spelling; they left the name Hoopes.

Most people who spell their surname Hoopes and cannot identify an ancestor who immigrated from Germany or Austria after 1800 will find they are the descendants of DANIEL HOOPES and JANE (WOR-RILOW) HOOPES, or of one of the English ancestors of DANIEL HOOPES mentioned in a later section of this volume.

THE HOOPES FAMILY CREST

A coat of arms is the hallmark of nobility or gentility, and no man can be a nobleman or gentleman, in the heraldic sense, without it. The coat of arms is granted by the Crown to an individual and is hereditary. It can be revoked only by the Crown.

In England, arms are granted by letters of patent in which the arms are blazoned. After registration of these patents at the College of Arms and payment of the annual fee, they may be used. The College of Arms is a corporation which has retained, from the Middle Ages, the charge of the armorial bearings of persons privileged to bear them. In earlier times, the Crown would have what was known as a Nobility Roll, where all arms-bearing people would be summoned to prove their right to use the arms. Failure to respond to the summons resulted in forfeiture of such right. The earliest known dated roll of arms was on 24 February 1297, when 94 men were summoned to Parliament at Salisbury. This practice continued through the 16th and 17th centuries.

To be entitled to use a coat of arms, one must prove he is a descendant. To bear the name is not sufficient. The arms must also be registered with the College of Arms to be authentic. In the 18th and 19th centuries, there were arms mongers flourishing in England. For a price, one could have his coat of arms. Naturally, such arms were not authentic.

CHAPTER I

Hoopes

Coat of Arms

No Authentic Hoopes Coat of Arms Registered With the College of Arms in England

In 1969, Francis S. McIlhenny, Jr. wrote to the College of Arms in England to inquire as to the authenticity of the Hoopes family crest. In February 1970, the Richmond Herald of Arms of the College of Arms replied stating that none of the two or three crests or coats-of-arms purported to belong to the Hoopes family was registered with the College of Arms. These crests were, therefore, not authentic. Since the early Hoopes males were yeomen, they obviously did not bear arms. The only explanation we have for the fact that such coats-of-arms do exist is the suggestion that some of the arms mongers found willing clients.

Description of the "Unauthentic" Hoopes Family Crest

Even though the Hoopes family crest is not authentic, because it is displayed by some members of the Hoopes family the editors describe here, in heraldic terms, the Hoopes family crest, as recorded in a 1928 publication titled American Families:

Arms: Gules, a fesse ermine between three lions' heads erased argent within a bordure azure charged with two crescents in chief and a mullet in base of.

Crest: On a plate a Cornish chough proper. Motto: Amo (I love).

This description is interpreted as:

Arms: Red (the background behind the lions' heads in red), with a horizontal bar through the middle of the shield with the conventional symbols of ermine (three black dots in triangular form with an elongated diamond below the middle of the base of the triangle) on a white background between three lions' heads, two above the bar and one below, the heads being silver in color. (The word "erased" means that it is just the head without any body of the lion.) Around the center section of the shield is a blue border in which at the top ("in chief") are two crescents in gold. A crescent means not only a crescent but a crescent with the points pointing up. At the bottom ("in base") a five pointed star in gold. Actually, a mullet is the rowel of a spur. Crest: A plate is a round silver object. A Cornish "chough" is a bird of the raven species, the king of the crows. Proper means that the raven is in its natural color, black. The helmet is slate gray with red showing through and the framing is silver and red.<sup>7</sup>

HOOPES FAMILY ENGLISH ANCESTORS AND SETTLEMENT IN AMERICA BY JOSHUA HOOPES AND HIS SON DANIEL HOOPES

Limited Genealogical Records

Tracing DANIEL HOOPES and his English ancestors has been frustrated by conflicting family group sheets showing his father, JOSHUA HOOPES, as a child in two families, by incomplete transcripts of Yorkshire bishops on microfilm (some transcripts are missing for some years

CHAPTER I

and may either have been lost before microfilming or never recorded in the first place) at the Library of the Genealogical Society in Salt Lake City, Utah, by faded and unreadable Yorkshire parish registers, and by occasionally careless mistakes or omissions made by 17th century parsons or parish clerks in the parish of Skelton-in-Cleveland,<sup>8</sup> in the North Riding of Yorkshire. Skelton-in-Cleveland was a remote parish on the seacoast of England. Many of the gaps in the records may be the result of records of births, marriages and deaths never having been kept. Some pages are missing from the record books, suggesting they may have been either destroyed or misplaced.<sup>9</sup>

One such error or omission made in the Skelton-in-Cleveland Parish Register was noted recently by Coddington:

1670, May 15th Josias Hoops & An his wife were married.<sup>10</sup>

Two errors are made in the above entry, according to Coddington: the bridegroom's given name was Joshua, not Josias, and, more importantly, the incumbents of parishes were required by law to record the full names of both the bride and groom, including the bride's maiden surname. Not only did the parson or clerk fail to record the bride's surname on this occasion, the bride's surname was omitted nine years later when JOSHUA HOOPES was married a second time to Isabel (—————)."

Parents, Brothers and Sisters of Joshua Hoopes, Father of Daniel Hoopes

JOSHUA HOOPES, father of DANIEL HOOPES, was probably born about 1640 at Great Moorsholm (Moorsholme, Moorsham, Moorsom)<sup>12</sup> in the parish of Skelton-in-Cleveland, co. York, and died either at his home in Makefield Township, Bucks County, Pennsylvania, "in the middle of the year 1723," or at the home of his son DANIEL HOOPES in Westtown Township, Chester County, Pennsylvania, "about 1724."<sup>13</sup>

The parish registers of Skelton-in-Cleveland begin in 1573. Parish registers have been microfilmed and are available for these years: 1600, <sup>8</sup> Skelton is an Anglo-Saxon name meaning "brook-village," according to Reid W. Stewart, who has done genealogical work in the area for the family.

<sup>9</sup> The absence of these vital records was confirmed by E. Thompson, Archivist of the Probate Office in York, who reported his findings to John Insley Coddington in 1974.

<sup>11</sup> Throughout the text "(—————)" will be used when surname is unknown.

<sup>12</sup> Moorsholm may be a Viking name for "well-drained moor," according to Reid W. Stewart.

THE HOOPESES FAMILY RECORD

1605-08, 1610, 1628, 1631-39, 1641-42 and 1661-69, evidencing many gaps extending over several key periods in tracing the ancestors of JOSHUA HOOPESES. The parish registers have been searched, and the baptism of JOSHUA HOOPESES does not appear, though he was certainly a member of the established Church of England until after his second marriage in 1679.<sup>14</sup>

In 1974, Coddington reported his view at the time, while acknowledging the lack of documentation, that JOSHUA HOOPESES was a son of Robert Hoopes and Margaret (————) Hoopes, both of whom died intestate and the dates of whose burials do not appear in the existing parish registers of Skelton.<sup>15</sup>

But Stewart's research in 1974, with which Coddington now is inclined to concur, suggests that JOSHUA HOOPESES is the son of JOHN HOOPESES (1598-unknown) and ISABEL CALVERT (unknown-unknown). JOHN HOOPESES (1598-unknown) was a brother of Robert Hoopes (1603-unknown). ISABEL CALVERT, born in Tidkinhow,<sup>16</sup> Skelton-in-Cleveland, York, was the daughter of JOHN CALVERT and JANE (—————).

JOHN HOOPESES (1598-unknown) and Robert Hoopes (1603-unknown) had a spinster sister, Mary Hoopes (1613-1638), who was buried at Skelton 14 September 1638, having made a will on 28 July 1638, which was proved 7 August 1639, in the Consistory Court of York. Mary Hoopes (1613-1638) made a genealogically excellent will, mentioning all of her living brothers and sisters and the children of those who were married. Among her bequests were "Ten shillings apeace . . . to elisabeth hoope margarett hoope lohn hoope Children to lohn hoopes" ["ten shillings a piece . . . to Elizabeth Hoopes, Margaret Hoopes, John Hoopes, children to John Hoopes"] and "Ten shillings apeace . . . To the Children of Robert hoopes Tobias hoope ellis hoope lohn hoope hanna hoope" ["ten shillings a piece . . . to the children of Robert Hoopes: Tobias Hoopes, Ellis Hoopes, John Hoopes, Hannah Hoopes"].<sup>17</sup>

While JOSHUA HOOPESES was not mentioned as a child of JOHN HOOPESES (1598-unknown) or Robert Hoopes (1603-unknown), it can be supposed that he was not mentioned because he was not born when

<sup>16</sup> Tidkinhow was located in 1974, on an 1856 Ordinance Survey map by Reid W. Stewart while doing genealogical research in the area. He reported that a Tidkinhow farm was located about 3 miles SSW of Skelton and 2.2 miles SSE of Guisborough. The Tidkinhow farm was shown on the map to be located near a Tidkinhow Wood.

<sup>17</sup> Will of Mary Hoopes, made 28 July 1638, and proved 7 August 1639, named the following children of her brother, John Hoopes: Elizabeth, Margaret and John. Will of Jane Calvert, proved December 1648, named a granddaughter: Mary Hoopes.

CHAPTER I

Mary Hoopes, his aunt, made her will in 1638. With the gaps in the 1640 and 1643-1660 parish registers in Skelton and in the archbishops' transcripts, it is not possible to absolutely identify the parents of JOSHUA HOOPES with the evidence available.

Assuming JOSHUA HOOPES was the son of JOHN HOOPES (1598-unknown) and ISABEL CALVERT (unknown-unknown), who were married 24 February 1627/8 at Skelton-in-Cleveland, he would have appeared as their son in the following sequence with his brothers and sisters: Mary Hoopes, born about 1629; Robert Hoopes, baptized 15 May 1631; Elizabeth Hoopes, birthdate unknown; Margaret Hoopes, birthdate unknown; John Hoopes, birthdate unknown; and JOSHUA HOOPES, born about 1640-45 and died about 1723-24.<sup>18</sup> And since the documentation does not overwhelmingly confirm that JOSHUA HOOPES is the son of JOHN HOOPES (1598-unknown) and ISABEL CALVERT (unknown-unknown), Coddington's 1974 suggestion that JOSHUA HOOPES had a place in the family of Robert Hoopes (1603-unknown) and Margaret (————) should be noted.<sup>19</sup>

Coddington provides some valuable information on two older brothers of JOSHUA HOOPES, John Hoopes (unknown-unknown) and Robert Hoopes (1631-unknown). Both John and Robert Hoopes joined the Society of Friends and moved to Ireland early in the 1660s, where they settled at or near Lurgan, co. Armagh, on lands sequestered from previous Catholic owners during the Cromwellian period. Much information on the descendants of John and Robert Hoopes is found in the microfilms of the records of Lurgan and Dublin Monthly Meetings of Friends at the Friends' Historical Library, Swarthmore College, Swarthmore, Pennsylvania, and at the Library of the Genealogical Society in Salt Lake City, Utah.<sup>20</sup> Coddington suggests that there were some descendants of

18 Ibid.

<sup>19</sup> In his 1974 article (see footnote 9), Coddington suggested that if Joshua Hoopes was placed in the family of Robert Hoopes (1603-unknown) and Margaret (————), the sequence of his brothers and sisters would be: Tobias Hoopes, born about 1628-29, married at Skelton, 11 June 1656, to Phillis Lamp, had several children and joined the Society of Friends before 1677; Ellis (possibly Alice) Hoopes, born about 1631; John Hoopes, born about 1632-34; Hanna (possibly Hannah) Hoopes, born about 1634-37, married at Skelton, 27 August 1664, to William Smith; and Joshua Hoopes, born about 1640-45.

Coddington also identifies other children who may have been in the family of Robert Hoopes and Margaret (————): Christian Hoopes, called "daughter of Robert and Margaret" in the Gilbert Cope transcripts of English Friends' records at the Genealogical Society of Pennsylvania, married at Guisborough Church, co. York, 20 October 1668, to Giles Calvert; Daniel Hoopes, baptized at Skelton, 1 August 1650, as "son of Robert"; Robert Hoopes, born about 1645 and buried at Skelton churchyard 4 January 1701/2; and Thomas Hoopes, a signer of Joshua Hoopes' Quaker certificate.

John and Robert Hoopes of Lurgan named Hoopes, Clibborn and Stret-tell who settled in Pennsylvania in the late 18th century.<sup>21</sup>

Occupation and Other Activities of Joshua Hoopes

In the Records of the Courts of Quarter Sessions and Common Pleas of Bucks County, Pennsylvania,<sup>22</sup> the name of JOSHUA HOOPES appears 47 times, always in a creditable manner. The first mention of his name (page 25) is dated 9 of 7 month (September) 1685, when "Joshua Hoops, Henry Paxson & Jonathan Scaife were chosen to serve as peace makers for this County the succeeding yeare."<sup>23</sup> He was often a member of the grand petit juries, sometimes serving as foreman, and was chosen "constable above the Falls [of the Delaware River]" 29 6th month (August) 1690, and one of a committee of 13 to divide Bucks County into Townships, 27 7th month (September) 1692. He was one of the petitioners for a road from Newtown to the ferry (across the Delaware) 9 7th month (September) 1696, and a road viewer in 1699. The name of JOSHUA HOOPES also appears many times in the volumes of Pennsylvania Archives relating to Bucks County, especially in the 8th Series, vols. 1-2. He was elected a Member of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Pennsylvania from Bucks County in 1686, 1688, 1689, 1692, 1695, 1696, 1697, 1700, 1701, 1705, 1706, 1708, 1709, 1711, and 1712, was often a member of legislative committees, and of committees to "wait upon the Governor, the Provincial Secretary, and the Council." In his later years, he served as an Elder among Friends at the Middletown Meeting in Bucks County, 1714-22.<sup>24</sup>

After the death (without issue) in 1691 of Isabel (—————), second wife of JOSHUA HOOPES, his third marriage to a widow is recorded at Middletown Meeting identifying him as "Joshua Hoops of Co. of Bucks yeoman,"<sup>25</sup> when he married Eleanor Pownall "20 10th month (December) 1693 at the house of Joshua Hoops."<sup>26</sup>

CHAPTER I

Of all of Webster's possible definitions of "yeoman," as applied to JOSHUA HOOPES in 1693, the editors feel that "a small farmer who cultivates his own land" is the most appropriate in view of the fact that "husbandman," <sup>27</sup> is also used to identify him. He was a farmer in Bucks County, Pennsylvania, having received 100 acres of farmland by deed from William Penn in 1697.

English Ancestors of Daniel Hoopes

Great-Grandfather and Great-Grandmother of Daniel Hoopes

Most research points to ROBERT HOOPES (christened 8 July 1575, in Great Moorsholm, Skelton-in-Cleveland, York; married 28 November 1597, in Kirkleatham, Yorkshire; buried 18 August 1636, in Skelton-in-Cleveland, York) and MARGARET HARRISON (born in Kirkleatham, Yorkshire; will probated June 1637, in Great Moorsholm, Skelton-in-Cleveland, York; buried 2 January 1636/7, in Skelton-in-Cleveland, York) as the great-grandfather and great-grandmother of DANIEL HOOPES.

Children of ROBERT HOOPES (1575-1636) and MARGARET HARRISON (unknown-1636/7) included: JOHN HOOPES (born about 1598, in Great Moorsholm, Skelton-in-Cleveland, York; married ISABEL CALVERT 24 February 1627/8) ; Ealse or Alice Hoopes (christened 4 November 1599, in Great Moorsholm, Skelton-in-Cleveland, York; married [—————] Blackston) ; Jane Hoopes (christened 13 March 1601/2, in Great Moorsholm, Skelton-in-Cleveland, York; married William Robinson 12 May 1622); Robert Hoopes (christened 11 February 1603/4, in Great Moorsholm, Skelton-in-Cleveland, York); Anna Hoopes (christened 12 February 1605/6, in Great Moorsholm, Skelton-in-Cleveland, York; unmarried 1638) ; Edward Hoopes (christened 25 May 1608, in Great Moorsholm, Skelton-in-Cleveland, York) ; Elizabeth Hoopes (christened 8 February 1610/11, in Great Moorsholm, Skelton-in-Cleveland, York; buried 15 May 1636, at Kirkleatham, Yorkshire) ; Mary or Marie Hoopes (christened about 1613, in Great Moorsholm, Skelton-in-Cleveland, York; unmarried; buried 14 September 1638; will proved [—] August 1639) ; and Margaret Hoopes (christened about 1615, in Great Moorsholm, Skelton-in-Cleveland, York; unmarried 1638).

The wills of MARGARET (HARRISON) HOOPES, great-grandmother of DANIEL HOOPES, and Mary Hoopes, great-aunt of DANIEL HOOPES, are included below as evidence of the above-mentioned relationships:

Third Great-Grandfather of Daniel Hoopes

ROBERT HOWPE (born in Moorsholm, Skelton-in-Cleveland, York; will dated 31 August 1570; died 23 August 1570; will proved 27 March 1571); third great-grandfather of DANIEL HOOPEs, married twice. The name of his first wife, and most likely the mother of JOHN HOOPEs ( unknown- 1 608 ), is unknown. The given name of the second wife of ROBERT HOWPE (unknown-1570) is Jane, and there is a record of her burial on 18 November 1595. The children of ROBERT HOWPE and ( ——— ) ( ————— ), his first wife, include: Robert Hoope (born in Moorsholm, Skelton-in-Cleveland, York; married Agnes [ ————— ]; buried 17 April 1598; will proved 22 March 1598/9); JOHN HOOPE (HOOPEs) (born in Great Moorsholm, Skelton-in-Cleveland, York; married JANE STAINHOUSE 13 July 1571, in Skelton-in-Cleveland, York; buried 22 April 1608, in Skelton-in-Cleveland, York) ; and five other daughters, all born in Great Moorsholm, Skelton-in-Cleveland, York, who married Rowland Groves, Richard Westland, ( ————— ) Hudson, Nicholas Stonas, and John Sorvenson.

Excerpts of the will of ROBERT HOWPE, third great-grandfather of DANIEL HOOPEs, are included below as evidence of the above-mentioned relationships:

No further records have been found identifying ancestors of DANIEL HOOPES beyond his third great-grandfather, ROBERT HOWPE (unknown-1571).<sup>M</sup>

<sup>28</sup> Family Group Records are on file in the Library of the Genealogical Society in Salt Lake City, Utah, reporting a line of English ancestors which differs from the line described above. While these Family Group Records are not considered correct by the editors, they are reported below:

(a) great-grandfather of Daniel Hoopes: Robert Hoopes (1581-13 October 1624) ; great-grandmother of Daniel Hoopes: Anne (—————) (1584-unknown), both born in Skelton-in-Cleveland, York; and the parents of two sons: John Hoopes (1604-unknown) and Robert Hoopes (1606-7 October 1636), both born in Skelton-in-Cleveland, York.

(b) second great-grandfather of Daniel Hoopes: John Hoopes (1555-May 1608), born in Great Moorsholm, Skelton-in-Cleveland, York; second great-grandmother of Daniel Hoopes: (—————) Stonas (1559-unknown) ; and the parents of five children, all born in Skelton-in-Cleveland, York: Robert Hoopes (1581-13 October 1624), Edward Hoopes (1583-unknown), Ann Hoopes (1585-unknown), Jane Hoopes (1587-unknown), and Alice Hoopes (1589-unknown).

(c) third great-grandfather of Daniel Hoopes: John Hoope (1519-1573), born in Ormesby, York; third great-grandmother of Daniel Hoopes: Agnes (—————) (unknown-unknown), married to John Hoope (1519-1573) about 1544; and the parents of eight children: Richard Hoope (1545-unknown), William Hoope

CHAPTER I

Stewart's research concluded that the Hoopes family members in Ormesby, York, remained in Ormesby, and those Hoopes family members in Moorsholm, Skelton-in-Cleveland parish, remained there. Tying the two lines together in one of the two locations has not been done due to the absence of written proof, for the relationship of the two Hoopes families, if there is one, most probably began before parish registers began to be kept and before wills were made and proved.<sup>29</sup>

(1547-unknown), Oliver Hoope (1549-unknown), Thomas Hoope (1551-un-known), Robert Hoope (1553-unknown), John Hoope (1556-May 1608), Jannet Hoope (1557-unknown), and Margaret Hoope (1559-unknown) ; and

(d) fourth great-grandfather of Daniel Hoopes: Thomas Hope (1492-1540), born in North Riding, Ormesby, St. Cuthbert Parish, York; fourth great-grandmother of Daniel Hoopes: Margaret (———) (1496-unknown) ; and the parents of three children: John Hope (Hoope) (1519-1573), Robert Hope (1521-unknown), and Agnes Hope (1523-unknown), all born in Skelton-in-Cleveland, York.

These Family Group Records appear to be in error, because they conflict with the Will of John Hoope (1519-1573) of Ormesby, the one purported to be the third great-grandfather of Daniel Hoopes. That will was proved 25 June 1573, and there is no mention in that will of a son, John Hoopes (1555-May 1608), who would have been about 18 years old on the death of John Hoope (1519-1573). The text of the will of John Hoope of Ormesby, written 5 April 1573, appears below:

Will of John Hoope, Ormesby, date of probate 25 June 1573

In the name of God Amen the v daye of Aprill in the yeare of our Lord God 1573 I John Hoope of Ormesbye in Cleaveland of one holle sayd and perfite memorye make my last will and testament in manner and forme followinge fyrst I bequithe my soull to the almightie and lovinge god and to his sonne Jesus Christ my onelye saviour and Redeemer my bodye to be buried in the churche yeard of Ormesbie Item I gyve and bequithe to Jennet Hoope my daughter my best drye Item I gyve to Margaret my daughter one other drye Item I give and bequithe to William my sonne one read styrke Item I wille that Richard my sonne and Agnes my wyf shall have the lease of my farmhold and they to bringe upp my children duringe my yeares and yf my wyf marrye within my yeares then I will that she shalbe alease enclused and voyte thereof and my said sonne Richard to have the rest of my yeares not expired The Residue of all my goods I gyve to agnes my wyfe William Oliver Thomas and Robert Hoops my sonnes Jennet and Margaret Hoope my daughters when I make my holle executors and they to dispose the same as they shall thinke meet meet. In witness hereof William Turke. George Robinson. Richard Lemmon.

CHAPTER I

Skelton on 15 May 1670,<sup>30</sup> and their children included: DANIEL HOOPES; Mary Hoopes (born 22 March 1674; died in July 1674); Margaret Hoopes (born in September 1675; died in 1725; married first in 1694 to Abraham Beakes of Bucks County, Pennsylvania; married second in 1705 to John Todhunter of Westtown, Chester County, Pennsylvania) ; and Christian Hoopes (born 28 April 1678; and died 15 February 1684—a year after her arrival in America). All of the children of JOSHUA HOOPES and ANN (————) were born in Skelton-in-Cleveland, York.

JOSHUA HOOPES married a second time in Skelton-in-Cleveland, on 1 May 1679, to ISABEL (————) who accompanied him and his three surviving children to America. She died on 20 March 1691, in Bucks County, Pennsylvania, and was buried there.

JOSHUA HOOPES married a third time in Chester County, Pennsylvania, in 1693, to ELEANOR POWNALL, young widow of George Pownall.

The Association of Joshua Hoopes With the Society of Friends

In 1677, "Tobias Hoope, of Skelton, was fined £20 for suffering a Meeting at his House, and 10s. for himself and wife being there; for which Fines a Warrant of Distress was granted by Edward Trotter, Justice, by which Goods were taken away to the Value of £23 and JOSHUA HOOPES was still a member of the Church of England on 1 May 1679, when the parson of Skelton-in-Gleveland characteristically recorded in the Parish Register that "Joshua Hoops and Esbile (Isabel) his Wife" were married. While the date is unknown, soon after this he became a Quaker as many of his relatives had already taken the step.<sup>32</sup> Robert Hoopes and Tobias Hoopes were strong in their devotion to the Friends. Tobias Hoopes reportedly left Skelton to make his home in Wales.

The Immigration of Joshua Hoopes and His Family to America in 1683

In 1683, King Charles II reigned in England, and those whose form of worship did not conform to the prescribed teachings of the established Church, were persecuted. As Quakers or "Friends," JOSHUA HOOPES and ISABEL HOOPES dared not openly avow their convictions if they wished to escape the persecution brought against the "Descenders," and that may have contributed to their decision to sail on the thirteenth and last of William Penn's ships, the Providence of Scarborough, with their three surviving children, DANIEL, Margaret and Christian, arriving in the mouth of the Delaware River on "the 10th [day] of 9th mo. (November) 1683," to join William Penn's colony which was already established in Pennsylvania.<sup>33</sup>

The master of the Providence was Robert Hopper, and JOSHUA HOOPES was identified as a "husbandman" on the little ship's records.<sup>34</sup> He settled in Makefield, Bucks County, near what is now Langhorne. He and his family became members of the Falls Monthly Meeting of the Society of Friends.

JOSHUA HOOPES brought with him a certificate from the Monthly Meeting of Friends at "Rowsby" (now spelled Roxby) in the North Riding of Yorkshire, dated 4 of 3rd mo. (May) 1683, which he deposited with the Middletown Monthly Meeting in Bucks County, where it was recorded:

CHAPTER I

This is to satisfye whom it may concern yt Joshua Hoopes ye bearer hereof was born at Skelton near Gainsborough in Cleveland in Yorkshire in Old England and there descended on honest parents and honestly demeaned himself from his childhood, his father, brothers and relations being honest and credible inhabitants and people of account in and about ye towne of Skelton aforesaid, and yt hee ye said Joshua hath not at any time to our knowledge or hearing been conversant or acquainted with any unruly or disorderly persons as in relation to any bad carriage, but honestly, godly and civilly be-heaved himself towards his neighbors and acquaintances both whilst he lived with his father and alsoe with his wife and family since hee was married. There away and haveing of Late years frequented ye said town of Skelton and not to our knowledge been any way disorderly in his life practice and conversation but yet they ye said people have had love and respect for him and unity and fellowship with him in his course of life and dealings amongst men. This is signed and Attested to by us, who are members of ye said people called Quakers in and about Skelton aforesaid and inhabitants thereabouts ye 4th Day of ye 3rd month 1683.

This certificate was perused and allowed of by friends at Guisborough Monthly Meeting held at Rowsby the 4th day of the 3rd Mo. 1683, in witness whereof we have set our hands: (Men, left column:) Harequine Fair-banke, Thomas Yoall, John Harding, William Harrison, William Stamper, Leonard Snowdon, Morris Stockton, Edward Walker, Ar(thur) Stringer, George Ward, John Snaggs. (Men, middle column:) Ingenius Searth, Robert Fursglove, William Bridekirk, John Wood, John Searth, Thomas Hoops, John Hoops, John Robinson, John Sumerson, Cudbert Bradridge. (Women, right column) Mary Jarrison, Elizabeth Tiplady, Margaret Purslay, Esther Hoops, Mary Robinson, Margaret Pearson, Sarah Walker, Ann Bradway, Elizabeth Bridekirk, Ann Harrison.<sup>35</sup>

JOSHUA HOOPES also carried with him a letter to William Penn written by Penn's sister and entrusted by her to JOSHUA to be delivered into the hands of William Penn on arrival in Philadelphia.

Woolley made the following interesting observation:

Daniel Hoopes . . . was father of seventeen children, from whom descended one of the largest, if not the largest family in Pennsylvania, numbering some twenty thousand in 1930. Isaac H. Starr in his writings that were journalized by his grand-nephew, William Starr Basinger of Savannah, Georgia, noted some unusual facts about these children of Daniel Hoopes. They lived in three centuries, viz: two of them in the 17th, many of them throughout most of the 18th, and four of them in the 19th. Their ages aggregated 1020 years, and they all lived and died within twenty miles of the old Hoopes homestead in Chester County.<sup>36</sup>

No doubt JOSHUA HOOPES knew and enjoyed an association with most of his grandchildren born to his son DANIEL. Thirteen of the children of DANIEL HOOPES were married, as will be shown later in Volume I of The Hoopes Family Record, and these thirteen children were the parents of 112 children, which represented a significant posterity for their grandfather, JOSHUA HOOPES. And while the early Hoopes family remained in Chester County, Pennsylvania, since 1800, the Hoopes family members have migrated to all 50 states.

WorriLOW, Beakes and Todhunter Families

Several other family surnames were prominent in relation to DANIEL HOOPES and his family in early family history in America. These families included: the WorriLOW family (DANIEL HOOPES married JANE WORRILOW), the Beakes family (Margaret Hoopes, sister of DANIEL, married Abraham Beakes), and the Todhunter family (Margaret Hoopes, sister of DANIEL, married John Todhunter after the death of Abraham Beakes).

WorriLOW (WorriLOW) Family

JANE WORRILOW, wife of DANIEL HOOPES, was baptized on 20 April 1675, and was the daughter of THOMAS WORRILOW and JEAN PERKES, who were married on 17 August 1663.<sup>37</sup>

The descent of JANE WORRILOW from CHRISTOPHER and MARGERY (———) WORRILOW, her great-grandfather, is inferential, because they are the first persons recorded in the Parish Register of Haughton, Staffordshire, England. The WorriLOW family name has several spellings, and on the Haughton Parish Register, which begins about 1570, it is spelled Warrilaw. Later it is spelled WorriLOW, and the spelling used wherever the names of DANIEL HOOPES and JANE WORRILOW are found, her name appears as WorriLOW, suggesting that she changed the spelling of her maiden surname during her lifetime.

The Haughton Parish Register records the burial of CHRISTOPHER WORRILOW on 4 April 1605, and the burial of MARGERY WORRILOW in 1614. CHRISTOPHER and MARGERY WORRILOW had three children, one of whom would become the grandfather of JANE WORRILOW: Jane WorriLOW (born about 1600; married 27 November 1624, to John Leigh) ; Marie WorriLOW (born about 1602; married 12 June 1625, to Ralph Lownes) ; and JOHN WORRILOW (born about 1604; married about 1632 to ALICE [———]; buried 20 March 1634/5. ALICE [———] WORRILOW was buried 21 November 1691).

CHAPTER I

JOHN WORRILAW and ALICE WORRILAW, grandparents of JANE WORRILOW, had two sons: John Worrilaw (baptized 19 December 1633; died in 1647 unmarried) ; and THOMAS WORRILAW (born in 1635; baptized 26 December 1636; and died in May 1709), father of JANE WORRILOW.

The parents of JANE WORRILOW, THOMAS WORRILAW and JEAN PERKES, by 1684 had joined the Religious Society of Friends, and still resided in Brasenhill in the Parish Church of Haughton,<sup>38</sup> Staffordshire, England, suggesting that JANE WORRILOW, their sixth child, was born in Haughton, Staffordshire. Sometime after 1685, THOMAS WORRILAW and JEAN (PERKES) WORRILAW, and their living children, including their then 10-year-old daughter JANE WORRILOW, moved to Pennsylvania.

THOMAS WORRILAW, by deed dated 10 1st month (March) 1688/9, was assigned a tract of 490 acres in Chester County, Pennsylvania. On 3 8th month (October) 1689, THOMAS WORRILAW and Joseph Baker were appointed tax collectors for Edgmont Township, Chester County. On 13 1st month (March) 1693/4, THOMAS WORRILAW was appointed constable of Edgmont. On 12 4th month (June) 1694, he was appointed supervisor of roads in Edgmont.<sup>39</sup>

JEAN (PERKES) WORRILAW died between 1678 and 1700 in Brooznoll, Chester County, Pennsylvania.

THOMAS WORRILAW moved to Philadelphia and appeared at Chester Monthly Meeting on 29 10th month (December) 1701, "desiring a Certificate of his clearness in relation to marriage," and after the usual inquiry by Friends appointed, a certificate was signed for him at the meeting on 26 11th month (January) 1701/2.<sup>40</sup>

THOMAS WORRILAW and Susannah Brightwen appeared at Philadelphia Monthly Meeting on 27 12th month (February) 1701/2, declaring their intentions to marry, and at that meeting they were "left to their liberty to accomplish the same." <sup>41</sup> The bride, Susannah Bright-wen, as Susannah Bird, was the widow of Alexander Bird of London, England, who had died on 8 3rd month (May) 1669, and was also the widow of William Brightwen of London, England, a butcher, who had moved to Burlington, New Jersey by 10 2nd month (April) 1679, and who was buried 22 6th month (August) 1694, as recorded by Philadelphia Monthly Meeting. Susannah Bird Brightwen Worrilaw died in Philadelphia in July 1710.

THOMAS WORRILAW, a yeoman, wrote a will in Philadelphia dated 23 May 1709, bequeathing his dwelling house to his wife Susannah Bird Brightwen Worrilaw, other assets to his children, and appointed his son-in-law DANIEL HOOPES, and a friend, John Maris, executors.

The children of THOMAS WORRILAW and JEAN (PERKES) WORRILAW, as listed on the Parish Register of Haughton, Staffordshire, included: John Worrilaw (baptized 9 August 1664; died December 1726) ; Thomas Worrilaw (baptized 29 January 1666; buried 12 10th month [December] 1685) ; Walter Worrilaw (baptized 26 April 1669; died before 1709) ; Elizabeth Worrilaw (baptized 15 May 1671; married William Beakes, Jr.) ; Marie Worrilaw (baptized 25 May 1674; died before 1709) ; JANE WORRILOW (WORRILAW) (baptized 20 April 1675, in the Parish Church of Haughton, Staffordshire; married DANIEL HOOPES; and died before 1746); and Grace Worrilaw (baptized 22 August 1678; buried 17 3rd month [May] 1684) ,<sup>42</sup>

Beakes Family

An interesting relationship emerges from the research among the Beakes, Worrilaw and Hoopes families of Chester County.

Margaret Hoopes, sister of DANIEL HOOPES (baptized 2 September 1675, in Skelton-in-Cleveland, Yorkshire) married Abraham Beakes (born 14 3rd month [May] 1670, in the parish of Backwell, Somersetshire, England) on 3 12th month [February] 1696, even though the marriage was condemned by the stepmother (Eleanor Pownall Hoopes, third wife of JOSHUA HOOPES) of Margaret Hoopes. An unsigned paper filed by Falls Monthly Meeting, evidently written by Eleanor Pownall Hoopes, read as follows, giving the impression of some displeasure on the part of Eleanor Pownall Hoopes, stepmother of Margaret Hoopes:

Marriage. "The 3 day 12th month (February) 1696. Whereas there was something by me done towards accomplishing of a marriage between Abraham Beakes & my daughter in law (stepdaughter) Margaret Hoops (Hoopes) which was performed not altogether to my content & contrary to truth's order, against my husband's mind, and to the grief of Friends, & so far as I acted therein that may have given occasion of trouble to Friends, it is to my trouble & I am sorry for it & do condemn the same." ## CHAPTER I Abraham Beakes died intestate in Chester County, Pennsylvania shortly before 3 April 1703.

The children of Abraham Beakes and Margaret (Hoopes) Beakes included: Mary Beakes, Ann Beakes and Stephen Beakes. Mary Beakes (born either just before 1696, in Makefield District of Falls Township, Bucks County, or just after 1696, in Westtown Township, Chester County) married John Bown (unknown-1725/6) on 2 9th month (November) 1715, and she died testate in 1756, in Bristol Township, Bucks County. John Bown died intestate and his estate was granted to Mary (Beakes) Bown 1 February 1725/6. The children of Mary Beakes and John Bown included: Mary Bown (born 17 December 1716; died Bristol Township, Bucks County; married 1) before 10 September 1739, Thomas Dowd-ney, contrary to Friends discipline; 2) 2 January 1750/1, Benjamin Swain, who died there testate in 1792) ; Abraham Bown (born 20 January 1719/20; died in Bristol Township, intestate administration granted 8 December 1760, to his widow Grace Jones Bown, whom he had married 1 November 1749, contrary to Friends discipline, and was disowned by them 7 February 1749/50) ; and Ann Bown (born 18 February 1724/25, of whom nothing further was recorded). Mary Beakes Bown married a second time to Lancelot Martin, husbandman, on 8 3rd month (May) 1728. The children of Mary Beakes Bown and Lancelot Martin included: Mary Martin (born 1 October 1728; married 1) 3 5th month [July] 1751, Samuel Palmer, who was born 28 October 1723, and died 30 July 1756; and married 2) 14 11th month [January] 1764, Solomon Hunt); James Martin (bom 12 April 1732; died 24 November 1747); Margaret Martin (born 12 July 1734, died 25 November 1747) ; and John Martin (born 14 November 1738; married 5 1st month [March] 1757, to Agnes Welch).

Another child of Abraham Beakes and Margaret Hoopes was Ann Beakes, who married Caleb Perkins, blacksmith, 20 2nd month (April) 1721. Ann Beakes was disowned by the Chester Monthly Meeting on 25 10th month (December) 1721, and Caleb Perkins was disowned by the Chester Monthly Meeting on 7 3rd month (May) 1722. Ann Beakes and Caleb Perkins had two children: Caleb, named in his father's will in 1749, and Martha Perkins, also named in her father's will. The will of Caleb Perkins of New Castle County, Delaware, was dated 12 July 1749, and proved 28 August 1749.

Another son of Abraham Beakes and Margaret Hoopes was Stephen Beakes, of whom little is known except that he was disowned at Goshen Monthly Meeting, 20 10th month (December) 1736.

Abraham Beakes, brother-in-law of DANIEL HOOPES, was the son of William Beakes, of Backwell Parish, County of Somerset, and Mary Walle of Wallnend, Parish of Olveston, County of Gloucester. William Beakes and Mary Walle were married on 12 3rd month (May) 1661. William Beakes, yeoman, arrived in Pennsylvania 12 February 1682. William Beakes died 14 7th month (September) 1687, and Mary Walle died 4 11th month (January) 1696. Abraham Beakes' brothers included: William Beakes, Jr. (born 22 4th month [June] 1663, in the Parish of Backwell, Somersetshire, England; married Elizabeth Worrilaw after 28 12th month [February] 1689; and died testate in April 1711, in Nottingham Township, Burlington County) ; Stephen Beakes (born 28 2nd month [April] 1665; died 1701); and Samuel Beakes (born 14 1st month [March] 1666/7). Elizabeth Worrilaw was an older sister of JANE WORRILOW, wife of DANIEL HOOPE'S.

The children of William Beakes, Jr. and Elizabeth Worrilaw, sister of JANE (WORRILOW) HOOPE'S included: William Beakes (born 3 8th month [October] 1691; died 1761); Edmond Beakes (born 3 8th month [October] 1692; died 1775); Elizabeth Beakes (buried 11 7th month [September] 1696) ; Alice Beakes (buried 8 2nd month [April] 1698) ; and Walter Beakes (born 15 3rd month [May] 1698; buried 8 12th month [February] 1702).

William Beakes, Jr. requested a certificate of his clearance to marry Ruth Stacy following the death of Elizabeth Worrilaw. The certificate was granted to William Beakes, Jr. to marry Ruth Stacy on 2 3rd month (May) 1705. Ruth Stacy was born 30 1st month (March) 1680, the daughter of Mahlon and Rebecca (Ely) Stacy of Nottingham Township, Burlington County. After the death of William Beakes, Jr. in 1711, Ruth Stacy married Samuel Atkinson of Falls Monthly Meeting on 12 September 1714. Ruth Stacy died on 9 6th month (June) 1755, and Samuel Atkinson died testate on 21 February 1775, in Chester Township, Burlington County, New Jersey.

The children of William Beakes, Jr. and his second wife, Ruth Stacy, included: Stacy Beakes (died 1746) ; Nathan Beakes (born 1710; died 28 December 1785) ; and Sarah Beakes (born 12 1st month [March] 1705/6),<sup>44</sup>

Todhunter Family

Margaret Hoopes Beakes, sister of DANIEL HOOPE'S, and widow of Abraham Beakes, married John Todhunter, husbandman, of Westtown Township, Chester County, Pennsylvania, about 1704, and they had two children: Sarah Todhunter (born 1705 and died before 14 December 1723) and John Todhunter (born 1707 and married Margaret Evans in 1739).

CHAPTER I

John Todhunter (Sr.), husband of Margaret Hoopes Beakes Todhunter, wrote a will dated 13 11th month (January) 1714, which was proved 10 4th month (June) 1715. The will of Margaret Hoopes Beakes Todhunter was dated 14 December 1723 and proved 17 December 1723.<sup>45</sup>

John Todhunter (Jr.), son of John Todhunter and Margaret Hoopes Beakes Todhunter, married Margaret Evans, and they had these 11 children in Chester County, Pennsylvania: Sarah Todhunter (born 1740; married Thomas Beale in 1759); Margaret Todhunter (born 1742; married [———] Burgoyne) ; John Todhunter (III) (born 1744) ; Martha Todhunter (born 1746; married George Gregg) ; Hannah Todhunter (born 1748; married Joshua Jones on 1 July 1767; died 1824) ; Abraham Todhunter (born 1750; married Margaret [—————]); [Abraham and Margaret Todhunter had a daughter, Mary Margaret Todhunter, who married James Sweeny of Cumberland County, Virginia, who served in the American Revolution, 1777-1782]; died 1796) ; Joseph Todhunter (born 1752; married Elizabeth Onion) ; Mary Todhunter (born 1754); Isaac Todhunter (born 4 May 1756; married Eleanor Rachel Jury; died 3 August 1821, at Fayette County, Ohio; [Isaac Todhunter and Eleanor Rachel Jury had five children: John Todhunter, John D. Todhunter, William Todhunter, Charles Todhunter and Louise Todhunter]) ; Evans Todhunter (born 1758) ; and Jacob Todhunter (born 1760; married Elizabeth Parker; settled in North Cholasville, Kentucky, 1789; died 1830; [Jacob Todhunter and Elizabeth Parker had a son, Parker E. Todhunter, who married Catherine Ryland]),<sup>46</sup>

Descendants of Daniel Hoopes Who Became Prominent Religious Leaders

Two grandsons of EDWIN DILWORTH WOOLLEY (#557),<sup>47</sup> who is mentioned later in this volume as a second great grandson of DANIEL HOOPES and JANE WORRILOW HOOPES, became prominent religious leaders and played important parts in the history of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints (Mormon). EDWIN DIL WORTH WOOLLEY ([#557] born 28 June 1807; died 14 October 1881) was the son of JOHN WOOLLEY, JR. (#143) and Rachel Dilworth Woolley, the grandson of John Woolley and PHEBE (HOOPES) WOOLLEY (#33) and the great grandson of JOSHUA HOOPES (#6) and Hannah Ashbridge Hoopes.

EDWIN DILWORTH WOOLLEY (#557) was an early convert to The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. He heeded the call of the Prophet Joseph Smith (plural marriage) and had at one time six wives, and became the father of 26 children,<sup>48</sup> 57 grandchildren and eleven great grandchildren. However, because this volume is devoted primarily to Hoopes family descendants, the family beyond the generation of EDWIN DILWORTH WOOLLEY (#557) is not detailed here.

By his first wife, Mary Wickersham, who was also his third cousin, EDWIN DILWORTH WOOLLEY (#557) had five sons and three daughters. His seventh child and the youngest daughter by Mary Wickersham, was MARY LOUISA WOOLLEY (#557-1-7), who was born 5 July 1848 on Goose Creek, Keith County, Nebraska, as her parents were journeying across the plains to Salt Lake City in Brigham Young's Company.<sup>49</sup> She died 10 February 1938, at the home of her daughter, Esther, in Salt Lake City. On 11 July 1870, she married in the Salt Lake Endowment House, Joshua Reuben Clark, Sr., son of Hendricks Clark and Esther Rinker Clark. He was born 11 December 1840, at Navaree, near Canton, Stark County, Ohio. They were the parents of ten children,<sup>50</sup> and their first child would later become a prominent Mormon leader.

JOSHUA REUBEN CLARK, JR. (#557-1-7-A) was born 1 September 1871, in the family home near Grantsville, Utah. Immediately after his graduation from the University of Utah, he married Luacine Annetta Savage, daughter of Charles R. and Annie Feen Adkins Savage in the Salt Lake Temple on 14 September 1898. Luacine Annetta Savage was born 12 July 1871 in Salt Lake City.<sup>51</sup>

Reuben postponed his law education and served as a school principal in Heber and Cedar City, Utah for three years. In 1903, he attended Columbia University, and after two years of study, he passed the New York State bar examination and received his LL.B. degree in 1906. During the vacation period between his second and third years of law school, Reuben assisted Dr. James Brown Scott, a Columbia law school professor, in the compilation and annotation of a case book on quasi contracts which is still used in many law schools today. When Dr. Scott became solicitor in the United States Department of State, Secretary of State Elihu Root appointed J. Reuben Clark, Jr. in September 1906, as assistant solicitor in the department.<sup>52</sup> where he served for four years.

CHAPTER I

J. Reuben Clark, Jr.

In July 1910, President Howard Taft, upon the recommendation of Secretary of State Philander G. Knox, appointed J. Reuben Clark, Jr., solicitor of the Department of State. In this capacity he assisted in the drafting of the United States 1911 treaty of peace and commerce with Japan, loan treaties with Honduras and Nicaragua, and was also consulted in the drafting of the Knox-Bryce arbitration treaties with Great Britain and France.<sup>53</sup>

J. Reuben Clark, Jr. returned to Salt Lake City, Utah in 1920 to practice law and twice ran unsuccessfully for the Republican nomination for United States Senator. At the request of President Calvin Coolidge, he accepted the position of Under Secretary of State on 1 August 1928, serving until June 1929, when he was placed in charge of American affairs in Mexico City and a few months later was appointed American Ambassador to Mexico.

On 14 February 1933, J. Reuben Clark, Jr. resigned as American Ambassador to Mexico to accept a full time assignment as a General Authority of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. On 6 April 1933 he was sustained as Second Counselor in the First Presidency to President Heber J. Grant. He was sustained as First Counselor to President Heber J. Grant on 6 October 1934, and ordained an Apostle on 11 October 1934. He was sustained as First Counselor to President George Albert Smith on 21 May 1945, as Second Counselor to President David O. McKay on 9 April 1951, and as First Counselor to President David O. McKay on 12 June 1959. When he died on 6 October 1961, shortly after his 90th birthday, he had served over twenty-eight years as a counselor in the First Presidency of the Church.<sup>54</sup>

A year after the death of J. Reuben Clark, Jr., a library was dedicated in his name on the Brigham Young University campus in Provo, Utah, and the Pioneer Room in the library became the repository for his personal papers.

J. Reuben Clark, Jr. and Luacine Annetta Savage were the parents of three daughters and a son: Louise Clark (born 26 June 1899), Marianne Clark (born 28 October 1901), Joshua Reuben Clark III (born 23 November 1908) and Luacine Savage Clark (born 31 December 1914).

By his fourth wife, Mary Ann Olpin, EDWIN DILWORTH WOOLLEY (#557) had eleven children. She also cared for the motherless children of his first marriage after the death of Mary Wickersham. The sixth child of the fourth plural wife, Mary Ann Olpin, of EDWIN DILWORTH WOOLLEY (#557) was OLIVE WOOLLEY (#557-4-6), who was born 1 June 1860 in Salt Lake City, Utah, and died in Salt Lake City, Utah on 18 October 1906. On 2 February 1882, she married in the Salt Lake Endowment House, Andrew Kimball, son of Heber Chase Kimball<sup>55</sup> and Ann A. (Gheen) Kimball. Andrew Kimball was born 6 September 1858 in Salt Lake City, Utah. He and OLIVE WOOLLEY (#557-4-6) were the parents of eleven children, and their third son and sixth child would later become President of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints.

SPENCER WOOLLEY KIMBALL (#557-4-6-F) was born 28 March 1895, in Salt Lake City, Utah. He moved to Thatcher, Arizona at the age of three when his father was appointed President of the St. Joseph Stake. He grew up on a small farm and worked summers in a dairy to earn money for his education.

Like most Mormon children, he was baptized when he became eight years old while he lived in Thatcher, Arizona.

On his eighth birthday Spencer was baptized. Although the canal was just a block away, someone suggested the hog-scalding tub, used by the Kimballs as a bathtub. That seemed a novel idea, so on March 28 [1903] Andrew [Kimball] filled it to the brim with water from the well, then baptized Spencer, immersing him in the tub. On Sunday he received his confirmation blessing at church. . . . Four years later the propriety of baptism in a tub was questioned, since the baptizer had not gone down into the water too, as John the Baptist did. The ordinance was redone in the Union Canal, just to be

56 sure.<sup>1</sup>

The baptism of SPENCER WOOLLEY KIMBALL (#557-4-6-F) was performed in the Union Canal on 5 October 1907<sup>57</sup> by another descendant of DANIEL HOOPES: GEORGE ARTHUR HOOPES (#5701), who was at the time serving as a counselor in the bishopric of Spencer's ward.

After his missionary service in Missouri, on 16 November 1917, he married Camilla Eyring, daughter of Edward Christian and Caroline Romney Eyring in Pima, Arizona. Camilla was born on 7 December 1894, in Colonia Juarez, Mexico. The couple was later sealed in the Salt Lake Temple.

For eight years after their marriage, Spencer Kimball engaged in the banking, real estate and insurance businesses.

After the death of his father, Andrew Kimball, Spencer Kimball was called on 8 September 1924 as second counselor to President Harry L. Payne of the St. Joseph Stake. In 1934 he was released as counselor in the stake presidency and sustained as stake clerk in the St. Joseph Stake. On 20 February 1938, when the St. Joseph Stake was divided to form the Mount Graham Stake, Spencer Kimball was sustained as the president of the Mount Graham Stake. He held that position until 8 July 1943 when President J. Reuben Clark, Jr., telephoned him to inform him of his call to become an Apostle and a member of the Council of the

As a leader of more than four million Mormons throughout the world, President Spencer W. He is the author of two books: The Miracle of Forgiveness and Faith Precedes the Miracle.

Descendant of Daniel Hoopes Who Became a Prominent Political Leader

HUBERT HORATIO HUMPHREY JR., a great grandson of AARON BAKER REGESTER (#949), become a prominent political leader in the United States. Aaron Baker Regester was a second great grandson of DANIEL HOOPEs and JANE WORRILOW HOOPEs.

Born above his parents' drugstore in Wallace, South Dakota on 27 May 1911, Hubert Horatio Humphrey Jr. was the son of Hubert Horatio Humphrey and Christine (Sannes) Humphrey, and the grandson of John Wadsworth Humphrey and Adeline (Regester) Humphrey. Adeline was the daughter of Aaron Baker Regester and Matilda (Dwyer) Regester.

His education was interrupted in 1933 when Hubert returned to Huron, South Dakota to be a pharmacist at his father's drugstore, Humphrey Drug Co. He was there until 1937.

With formal education temporarily suspended, cracker-barrel education took over. The family store was the center of political activity for his small midwest home town. Vaccinating hogs, dispensing prescriptions, and down home tenderness became a way of life even after his return to formal education and eventual public life.<sup>60</sup>

He married Muriel Fay Buck on 3 September 1936. They are the parents of four children: Nancy Faye (Mrs. C. Bruce Solomonson), Hubert Horatio III, Robert Andrew and Douglas Sannes.

In 1939 Hubert Jr. graduated with an A.B. degree in political science from the University of Minnesota. He also received a Phi Beta Kappa key.<sup>61</sup> He was an assistant instructor in political science at Louisiana State University from 1939 to 1940 where he received an M.A. degree in 1940. He did postgraduate work at the University of Minnesota from 1940 to 1941. He served as the Minnesota state director of war-production training and in 1943 ran unsuccessfully for mayor of the City of Minneapolis. From 1943 to 1944 he was visiting professor of political science at Macalester College in St. Paul, Minnesota, and served as the Minnesota state campaign manager for the Roosevelt-Truman Committee in 1944.<sup>82</sup>

In 1945, at the age of 34, Hubert H. Humphrey Jr. was elected mayor of the City of Minneapolis and served until 1948 when he was elected U.S. Senator from Minnesota. He served in the U.S. Senate until 1964, and was the majority whip of the U.S. Senate from 1961 to 1964. He was a champion of civil rights causes and while he was considered a liberal, his appeals were usually tempered with compromise and moderation. In 1960 he ran for the Democratic presidential nomination, but was defeated by John F. Kennedy, who was elected president of the United States that year.

In 1964, shortly after the assassination of President Kennedy, the newly sworn-in President, Lyndon B. Johnson, selected Senator Humphrey as his running mate. They were elected and Vice President Humphrey served from 1965 to 1969.

The rush, the scope, the energy of the Great Society was a perfect reflection of Humphrey as well as of Johnson; they were the ideal team to guide an innovative domestic Government. But they were distracted and eventually overwhelmed by the war in Viet Nam. As the conflict drew increasing liberal criticism, so too did the Vice President. He also grew doubtful about the war, but he had to defend it to the hilt in public. Otherwise Johnson would have cut him dead and, after choosing not to run again in 1968, L.B.J. would not have supported Humphrey for President. Many liberals never forgave Humphrey for this loyalty to a lost cause or for having the temerity to differ with them.<sup>63</sup>

During the 1968 election, Humphrey lost badly to Richard Nixon. Following his defeat, he was a professor of social science at the University of Minnesota from 1969 to 1970. In 1971, Humphrey returned to the U.S. Senate representing Minnesota. He maintained his interest in the Democratic presidential nomination, but lost it in 1972 to George McGovern and in 1976 to Jimmy Carter. He remained in the U.S. Senate until he died of cancer on 13 January 1978.

While he was not a regular churchgoer, the birth of his first granddaughter, Vicky, a mongoloid child, brought him closer to God, he felt. Then in 1973, the growths on his bladder were diagnosed as possibly cancerous, and he grew even closer to God.

Senator Humphrey seemed to make a recovery, but in 1976 the doctors discovered that he had cancer. His bladder was removed and he fought desperately to stay alive as long as he could. He even submitted to experimental, vastly painful and debilitating drugs in the hope that they might benefit others even if they were of no use to him. When he returned to Washington in October 1977 after the doctors determined that his cancer was inoperable, he "was greeted by the most spontaneous outpouring of affection for a politician in living memory."<sup>64</sup>

It seemed as though Senator Humphrey was one who was never really defeated, even in death. Vice President Walter Mondale said of him: "He showed us all how to die with dignity, with courage, with spirit and with meaning."<sup>65</sup>

"BROOZNOLL," THE DANIEL HOOPES HOME

On 10 December 1696, at the home of John Bowater in Middletown Township, now Delaware County, Pennsylvania, DANIEL HOOPES married JANE WORRILOW. Sometime after their marriage, DANIEL HOOPES and JANE WORRILOW HOOPES moved to Chester County where Daniel built his home in 1723.

Tradition has it that "Brooznoll" was the name of the original Wor-rilow home in England, and Daniel and Jane used the name "Brooznoll" to identify the home they built to shelter their family of 16 children (their 17th child was born after they took up residence in the home).

The home is made of local stone, and the individual blocks are about ten inches by three inches. While the stones are not cut in perfectly symmetrical shape, the pointing is such as to give them the appearance of being so cut.

Daniel Hoopes Homestead, Brooznoll ca 1723

The home is located on Street Road in Westtown on Route 926 east of Route 352. An addition was made to the home by Joshua Hoopes, the oldest son of Daniel, in 1740.

A 1908 article in the West Chester Daily Local News described the home:

CHAPTER I

After being occupied solely by rats for a month or more, the old Hoopes mansion in Westtown, just across the valley from Tanguy, is likely to see new life. Lewis V. Smedley, who recently moved to the property will air and cleanse the house, and members of his family will occupy it during the summer, leaving the newer mansion on the hill to summer guests.

The farm of 100 acres is one of the best in this section of Pennsylvania, and the ancient home, which once was a model of comfort and hospitality, has cradled and sheltered members of the Hoopes family since 1723, well toward two centuries.

The ground plan of the house is L-shaped, with the long side toward the road. There are two front doors and two front windows, and a casual glance is sufficient to show that the front was built at two different times. At one window the stones above the frame are arched; at the other they are laid straight, but upright, like bricks on end. The doors are of different patterns. On the east end is a date stone high in the gable, with the inscription "I.H.H. 1740" and a number of ornaments graven thereon. This is supposed to stand for Joshua H. Hoopes, the "I" being used as a "J".

On the east end of "D. & J. H. 1723", for Daniel and Jane Hoopes. This also is high in the gable, but unlike the other, it can be read plainly from the ground. All about the house the serpentine stones have been cut with initials and dates, as "M. Hoopes, 1810" and "E.H.H. 1810" and many others of more recent handiwork.<sup>86</sup>

Transfers of Title to the Daniel Hoopes Home

For over 200 years the property on which the Daniel Hoopes home stands remained in the Hoopes family. The title to the property has passed as follows:

- Patented in 1686 by the Commissioners under William Penn to Thomas Rouse;
- Deeded by Thomas Rouse to Daniel Hoopes, 5 October 1697;
- Deeded by Daniel Hoopes to Joshua Hoopes;
- Joshua Hoopes died intestate and the property went to his son, Ezra Hoopes;
- Ezra Hoopes willed the property to his sons, Ezra Hoopes and Caleb Hoopes;
- Ezra Hoopes and Caleb Hoopes owned the property in common until 1815, when they made partition and the house went to Caleb Hoopes;
- Caleb Hoopes died in 1863, leaving his portion to his son, Elwood Hoopes;
- Elwood Hoopes died in 1901, leaving the property to his wife for life and after her death to his children, who deeded it to Arthur Smedley on 30 March 1908;
- Arthur Smedley sold the property to John Stratton and
- John Stratton sold the property to George Connelly, who occupies the property at this writing.

In 1955, while in her senior year at Westtown, Pennsylvania Friends School, Nancy Kennedy Connelly, daughter of George Connelly, wrote an essay entitled "Brooznoll, My Home." The essay is reprinted in this chapter because it paints a vivid, thoughtful and imaginative picture of the Daniel Hoopes Home in Chester County. The editors have added some footnotes to correct some minor factual errors in the original manuscript.

"Brooznoll, My Home"—By Nancy Kennedy Connelly<sup>67</sup>

In this age where so much modernism is stressed, where atomic energy often means destruction, and communism is trying to smother the world with selfishness and fear, it is a pleasure to find relaxing comfort, rest, and peace in this centuries-old house that has been my home for the best part of my sixteen years.

To appreciate this old house, you must first know something about the man who built it, because in every room there is a part of him still felt. So let us pay a visit to the eighteenth century when "Brooznoll" was built by Daniel Hoopes.

The Hoopes family claims to be of Dutch extraction,<sup>68</sup> and the name they brought with them from Holland was Hoops, the final "s" being an English-Yorkshire addition.

Joshua Hoopes, father of Daniel, came with his family, a wife, a son, and two daughters, from England on the "good ship Providence" in the year 1683, and settled in Bucks County, Pennsylvania. He was a Friend, we know, for he brought with him a certificate dated third month, fourth, sixteen eighty-three, issued by the Friends of Rowsby, England, stating "he was of honest parents and had honestly demeaned himself from childhood and his family were credible people in the town of Skelton, England." This has proven true, for Joshua was sufficiently a man of public affairs to have been elected to the Assembly five times, beginning in the year 1696.

The wife who accompanied him from England was not the mother of his three<sup>69</sup> children, Daniel, Margaret, and Christine.<sup>70</sup> Their own mother died a few years before they left England. But fate struck again;

<sup>68</sup> The family may have a Dutch heritage, but no genealogical research has documented such an assumption.

CHAPTER I

their step-mother, Isabelle, passed away a year<sup>71</sup> after they arrived in America and so did the sister, Christine.<sup>72</sup> What they died of is not made clear. Joshua married for the third time in the year 1693 a widow named Eleanor Pownall with children of her own.

In 1696, we find Daniel, the son, age twenty-six, unmarried and depressed by stepbrothers and sisters invading the home. Nevertheless, he was a possessor of many fine traits that promised for him a future of more than ordinary distinction. He was elected to the Assembly, as was his father, and later became the first Justice of the Peace of Westtown, Chester County, Pennsylvania.

By 1723, his sister Margaret, twice married and widowed, died and his father's death followed a year later.

Although Joshua had married three times, history tells us that he had but three children.<sup>73</sup> So it is to Daniel we look to preserve the family name and build this homestead. Daniel had purchased, along with his father, five hundred acres in Westtown, Chester County. These acres had been a grant of land from William Penn. It is only natural to suppose he had built a log house first on these acres, for he was not living in Bucks County at the time. After his father died, he went to Chester County and lived on the land he and his father had purchased.

Records found in an old meeting house in Lima, Pennsylvania, show that in 1696, at this meeting house, not far from Westtown, Daniel Hoopes was married to Jane Worillow and by 1723 had erected a stone house on his Westtown property close by Street Road, which runs through Pennsylvania to Delaware.

Seventeen children, some of them twins, were born to Daniel and Jane Hoopes and it has been said that from these children, the Hoopes family is represented in virtually all of the United States and parts of Canada. I often stop and think with excitement and wonder and thrill to the fact that this great family had its beginning right here in this lovely old stone house, started in 1723 and named "Brooznoll" meaning "Windy Knoll" after the Hoopes<sup>74</sup> home in England. Brooznoll nestles near the road on a slight knoll, it is built in an "L" shape, which seemed to be a certain style of building in those days in America, of local green-gray field stone so plentiful to Chester County. The old part, built by Daniel, bears his initials and dates on an inlaid stone plaque under the eaves. This part is now my room, second story, and what we call the den,

which is right below my room, first story. Both rooms are of medium size and sometimes I find it hard to believe they reared seventeen children in these rooms.

The newer section was built by his oldest son, Joshua 2nd, as the custom of those days was often for the oldest son to build with his father. Over this section you will see the initials of Joshua 2nd carved into a stone and dated 1740. Facing the road, there are two doors and two windows, both of different patterns—another proof that the house was built at two different dates. The door leading from the dining room to the drive on the east side of the house has been more the front door to us, for it is where I have been greeted by my parents throughout my entire school days, and it is at this door that I welcome my friends.

Every room in the house has lovely hand-beaded open beams, admired by all visitors.

Please come into our dining room. Originally it was the kitchen, and you will see one of the biggest fireplaces in Chester County, taking up the entire side of the room. Huge, ten foot logs were used here for cooking and at one time a "beehive" oven, so called because it resembled the shape of a beehive, extended into the large chimney. I love to dream of the days during the American Revolutionary War, when the Hoopes children must have gathered in front of this very fireplace to hear accounts of the Battle of Brandywine close by, or of the smoky venison cooked on the spit while a hungry Indian, perhaps, peeped into the little window at the side of the fireplace, hoping he would be invited into the house for dinner. The Quakers often did entertain the Indians. There is a legend that the Indians sometimes reached in through this little window and stole meat from the spit with an arrow. They would do this only when the hunting season was bad.'

There are narrow winding stairs leading up to the back end of the house from the dining room as there are also in the living room, into which I will now invite you. In this room you will notice the good random width oak floors, the hand carved mantel over a smaller fireplace, and beside it a very interesting little arched alcove which Janet Whitney tells us is "very English" in design. Next, parallel to the living room, you may wish to see the den, as we call it, for it is such a small room, filled with book-shelves. This den occupies the first floor of the original house, as I have mentioned on a previous page, and was built by Daniel Hoopes in 1723. The mantelpiece in the den is what is known as "O. G." in design, nicely rounded and, despite its age, very well preserved. Behind this fireplace a secret staircase is completely concealed by a little closet under it which we recently discovered after removing layers of old plaster. I like to believe that it was in front of this fireplace that Jane Hoopes must have rocked her babies to sleep in the harsh days while our country was still a subject of the British crown, and later heard their prayers beside this hearth when America was struggling for freedom.

Let us go up the stairs, using the staircase from the living room. This stairway is so steep that we have mischievously named it "Suicide Leap," so be careful and don't leap! I wonder how the ladies of those days, when hoop skirts were of the fashion, ever succeeded in ascending and descending these narrow, steep steps.

There are five bedrooms upstairs. Two, my room and the master bedroom, have fireplaces. Nearly all of them have been partitioned in part, at sometime through the years, with random width pine panels. In the master bedroom, we have removed all the layers of paint from the pine panelling and they are now a soft, mellow finish, so appealing to people who appreciate and love old wood. The walls of this room are painted a wedgewood blue, making a nice background for the pine four-poster bed and maple highboy. In one of the smaller back bedrooms, pine panelling covers two of the walls, and in this room we have a quaint old lowposter rope bed, so short it must have been used by a very small person or a child. A dough-trough with a miniature Navaho blanket on top lends an interesting Early American flavor to the room. All the doors upstairs are of the batten type design, but some of the most appealing features of our home are the original hand wrought iron hinges and locks still to be found on many of its doors, also the wooden pegs used in building the doors and window sills instead of nails.

Two pairs of winding stairs in each section of the house lead up to the attic with tiny windows set far back into the stone walls and many rough hewn rafters, often an entire log, supporting the roof. When we put on a new roof recently, the workmen found old handmade square headed iron nails that had been used over a hundred years ago to make repairs. The attic is one of the largest of its kind I have ever seen in a Pennsylvania farmhouse, for it completely covers the entire house. At sometime in the past, perhaps the boys or the hired help of the family must have slept up there. It could easily be made into four medium sized rooms.

If you would care to go down to the cellar, I can only take you down one flight of stairs, leading from the living room, as the other stairway, which once led down from the dining room, has long since been abandoned. The cellar is rather small for the size of the house, only two rooms running under the 1740 section. Apparently when Daniel Hoopes built the original house in 1723, he had no need or desire for a cellar. In each of these cellar rooms, there are enormous stone arches holding up the hearths for the upstairs fireplaces and even today in case of air raids they would, I think, serve as an excellent place for shelter. I wonder if any of the Hoopes family felt that way about them during the Indian and British raids of 1776.

On your trip through the house, you have undoubtedly been aware of the surprisingly thick stone walls and partitions. Many of them are eighteen to twenty-two inches wide and the stones well shaped and fitted together as by an expert craftsman with plaster covering them. When you go outside and look up at the house, you can see how accurately all of these big stones were cut and placed together with only a mortar made of powdered oyster shell and sand, as was the custom in those days to use. You are amazed to see how perfectly they have stood the test of time. There seem to be enough stones here to build three or four homes of today, and you ponder on the time and labor Daniel and his sons must have spent digging stone out of fields and quarries.

I do not want you to miss a very interesting feature of Brooznoll so come with me around to the east side of the house, and you see a stone jutting out of the wall under what at one time was the kitchen window. It has, in the middle, a hollowed out cleft that the Hoopes family used for drainage for their household washing water. It must have been a great convenience to them in those days to be able to empty the water without leaving the house during cold, snowy winters. The only other stone drain of its type I have seen was at the Cloisters in Ephrata, Pennsylvania, so I know it is authentic.

On the west side of the house, there is the old hand dug well, lined and covered with stone. It is not used today, but had been mentioned in early West Chester newspaper accounts. It was from this well that many generations obtained their water supply. There was also a spring used earlier, which is on the farm next door, and old deeds of the farm show the spot of this spring as part of the original farmland owned by Daniel Hoopes. Even at this late date, my father, when he purchased Brooznoll, had to sign a release from the use of this spring for the man who had purchased the adjoining property.

Brooznoll was a Hoopes homestead for well over a hundred years. It was not until 1908 that it passed from the Hoopes family. It was purchased by Mr. Smedley, later by John Stratton, and last by my father. It is indeed a wonderful memorial to the strength, ability, and foresight of a stalwart Quaker pioneer. His descendants must feel a great deal of loyalty to Daniel Hoopes, for every few months some of them still come from various states to knock on the door and ask if they might go through or take photographs of their forefather's home. I have often wondered if, as time marches on, the homes they are building today will offer the coming generations such comfort, protection and contentment as my family and I find at Brooznoll.

—Finis<sup>75</sup>—

CHAPTER I

The house which Daniel Hoopes built for his family two hundred and fifty-five years ago on Street Road in Westtown has seen many changes. It was home to various members of the Hoopes family for one hundred eighty-five years and has since seen only three other families. The old stage coaches passed this home on their trips to and from Baltimore. It perhaps saw many a wounded soldier pass by, trying to reach home after the Battle of Brandywine. A boxwood, standing nearby, was used as a hiding place for the family silver from the British. It has, at times, fallen into disrepair. Now this lovely old house has been restored and Brooznoll is called home by the Connelly family.

THE WILL OF DANIEL HOOPES

The will of DANIEL HOOPES, yeoman, dated 29 2nd month (April) 1746, devised to his eldest son Joshua Hoopes, a negro boy, clock case, walnut desk, clothes press; to sons Daniel, John, Abraham, Thomas and Stephen, five shillings each; to son Nathan five pounds, his riding horse, saddle and bridle; to daughters Mary [Hoopes] Yarnall five shillings, Sarah [Hoopes] Hall fifty shillings, Jane [Hoopes] Ashbridge five shillings, and Christian Hoopes his beds, bedding, bedsteads and furniture thereof, all pewter, his great looking glass, and all earthen ware. Daniel Hoopes nominated his sons-in-law George Ashbridge and Philip Yarnall and friend Thomas Smedley executors.<sup>76</sup>

THE HOOPES FAMILY IDENTITY

All of us have names, but there are some blind spots when we think to look beyond our closest relatives. Actually, we all have long-range inheritance in the family of man.

It has been reported that the most absorbing indoor hobby today, next to stamp and coin collecting, is genealogy. This trend has been stimulated by the excitement surrounding Alex Haley's Roots.

When Alex Haley appeared on television at the conclusion of the February 1979 network telecast of "Roots II", he offered three pleas of what could be done to prevent the extinction of family identity:

First, talk to the older members of the family and recover the life stories of the persons in your past. Second, preserve family records and archives—keep a journal. Third, arrange family reunions to build relationships.<sup>77</sup>

THE HOOPES FAMILY RECORD

The reasons for the publication of this Record are most eloquently stated by Dr. Truman G. Madsen in the Introduction of another compilation of genealogical information:

Why, then, collect family lore and links, compile journals, remake reunions?

From a man who is not merely respected but beloved we learn much of the why and some of the how:

Because they "enlarge our memory." Memory confined to the fleeting present provides neither the ballast nor the vision to make us human let alone humane.

Because even in the everyday and "trivial" we are "making history" far more than any, or even all, of us realize.

Because it is a scientific fact that, whatever our acts, we are transmitting links, the passports of identity, also the code for the future children of men.

Because the power of our response to ordinary life is enhanced by a frequent review of heritage, it clarifies and sometimes inflames our own purposes. It "time binds" us to our most vital bearings.

Because to reread and in a measure relive the glimpses of our known legacy, even after a short lapse of time, is a feast to the deepest in our spirit.

Because we cannot know many of our present relatives without knowing some of our past ones.

Because to learn of those before deepens our sense of the sacred; and the intrusion of the Divinity that shapes our ends.

Because only thus can we avoid the painful frustration of knowing that flares of significance have attended the precursors of our lives, but we were running so fast we lost track. Instead of precious cumulative insight we have only echoing questions and a searing loneliness. We forget. And then assume we are forgotten.

Finally, because racial memory, even in fragments, shows we are close cousins to all men, and foreshadows a future family reunion, all-inclusive, in the skies.<sup>78</sup>

Hopefully, the reader will be stimulated to follow these important pleas as The Hoopes Family Record is read and used as a reference in family research. And with the background and historical information described in this chapter, the reader should find Chapters II through VII interesting as the first six generations of the Hoopes Family in America are described.

EXPLANATIONS

EXPLANATIONS

The arrangement is by generation, and by their numbers, the children of one generation may be found as parents of the next. The personal history of each individual, where we have it, is given in connection with his appearance as the head of a family. Where he does not have a family, the history is given where he appears in his proper place within his father's family.

Nicknames have been used for persons who were known by those names shown. Records have been found using the nickname rather than the given name.

Because the Quakers frowned upon having their likenesses made on film, we have not been able to find paintings of our earliest ancestors. We find this regrettable. On the other hand, it affords each one the opportunity to form his own mental picture of his ancestors.

Throughout Volume I, occasionally the month of the year appears in parentheses within the date—i.e., "5 3rd month (May) 1723"—to clarify the month. For Quakers, the first day of the year was March 1, and that is why March, and not January, would be considered the first month of the year.

Abbreviations used are: MOU, for married out of union; FBG, for Friends Burial Ground; MM, for Monthly Meeting; Dis Mcd, for dismissed or disowned, married contrary to discipline. These are all terms used by the Quakers. In addition, we have used NFI, for no further information; dy, for died young; Twp., for township; Co., for county; Mss., for manuscript; LDS, for Latter-day Saints; J. P., for Justice of the Peace and we have abbreviated the names of the states.

In the back of the book will be found a listing of the townships and boroughs of Chester County in Pennsylvania as well as a listing of the villages within those townships.

Chapter II First Generation

1. DANIEL HOOPEs, the son of Joshua and Ann (?) Hoopes, was baptized on 27 May 1672 in Skelton-in-Cleveland, Yorkshire, England and died in 1749 in Chester Co., Pa. He was married in Middletown Twp., now Delaware Co., Pa. at the home of John Bowater on 10 Dec 1696 to JANE WORRILAW, the daughter of Thomas and Jean (Perkes) Worrilaw. We do not know her exact date of birth but she was baptized in the parish church of Houghton, Staffordshire, England on 20 April 1675 and died before 1746 in Chester Co., Pa.

Issue:

2. Grace Hoopes married William Paschall.
3. Ann Hoopes was born 28 Oct 1698 and died 13 May 1704.
4. Mary Hoopes married 1) Phillip Yarnall; 2) P. Staffers.
5. Hannah Hoopes was born 24 May 1702 and died unmarried in 1750.
6. Joshua Hoopes married Hannah Ashbridge.
7. Janes Hoopes married George Ashbridge.
8. Ann Hoopes was born 3 Feb 1707-8 and died unmarried on 14 July 1728.
9. Daniel Hoopes married Alice Taylor.
10. John Hoopes married Christian Reynolds.
11. Abraham Hoopes married Mary Williamson.
12. Thomas Hoopes married Susanna Davies.
13. Elizabeth Hoopes (twin) married 1) William Webb; 2) Thomas Welsh.
14. Stephen Hoopes (twin) married 1) Martha Evans; 2) Elizabeth (Garrett) Hibberd.
15. Nathan Hoopes married Margaret Williamson.
16. Walter Hoopes was born 11 Jan 1719 and died 9 Feb. 1720.
17. Sarah Hoopes married George Hall.
18. Christian Hoopes married Daniel Webb.

According to the Vail Mss. acquired in 1972, "Daniel Hoopes built a house not far from West Chester, Pa., near Tanguy in Chester Co. on 200 acres. In 1728, Daniel bought an additional 630 acres from Richard Hill, sixth mayor of Philadelphia, who had acquired it from Roger Adams and wife who got it from Nathaniel Puckle, a mariner who was a direct grantee from William Penn.

"Daniel's children would go out and farm this land, living in tents and huts."

From the above, we might also surmise that during that considerable length of time it must have taken to quarry the stone and build the house,

THE HOOPES FAMILY RECORD

Daniel and his sons must have first built and provided some temporary housing for his large family because Brooznoll was not built until 1723, the year his seventeenth child was born. By that time, Daniel and Jane had been married twenty-seven years and two of their daughters were married, another two children were also dead by this time. The children were all born in Westtown, Chester Co., Pa.

From A BRIEF GENEALOGY OF THE HOOPES FAMILY IN AMERICA 1683-1910 written by Thomas Flanders Hoopes and dated Sumner, 111., July 10, 1910, we receive corroboration of the information concerning the 600-f- acres mentioned above. We would like to quote from a letter quoted in this genealogy:

"From a recent letter written by Thomas Hoopes of West Chester, this information is obtained: 'Daniel Hoopes acquired from the patentee a tract of land lying north of West Chester and upon which he built houses for three of his sons, the first one for his son, Daniel, in 1734, another for his son, Nathan, in the year 1736, the third for his son, Thomas in 1738. These houses are still standing, but one, at least, very much altered. The one built for Nathan is apparently a good deal as it might have been originally and is located about one mile north of the center of town. The present owner and occupant being Joseph Taylor.' "

The foregoing dealing with the division of Daniel's land is important in that it happened considerably before his death in 1749. From his will, dated 29 Apr 1746 and not probated, we can also surmise that Jane, his wife, was already dead because her name is not mentioned. A copy of Daniel's will follows:

"I, Daniel Hoopes of Westtown in the County of Chester in the Province of Pennsylvania, yeoman being indisposed in body but of sound disposing mind and memory, prayed be the Lord for the same, considering that it is appointed for all men once to dye, do make my last will and testament in manner and form following that it is to say first and chiefly I commend my soul into the hands of Almighty God who gave it and my body I commit to the earth to be decently buried at the discretion of my executors hereafter named, and as for what worldly estate money and effects I have undisposed of I give, bequeath and dispose of as follows (viz) I order that my just debts and funeral charges be first paid and discharged by my executors, Item I give and bequeath to my oldest son Joshua Hoopes my negro named Tom, and also my still with the appurtenances and my clock and my walnut desk and cloaths trees, he my said son Joshua paying to my daughter Mary the sum of ten pounds current money of the Province within three months next after my decease with which payment I do charge the same premises. He married 2) 5 Feb 1789, in East Nottingham MM, Phebe Passmore by whom he had seven children.

William Williamson was a first cousin to his mother-in-law and marriages in that degree of kinship were not approved by the Friends in those days; consequently they were married before a Justice of the Peace. A committee of the women's meeting "waited on Sarah" and "she thought she could not in truth make Friends satisfaction lest she should wrong her conscience." The couple, however, did make an acknowledgment for marrying by a magistrate and this acknowledgment was accepted on 31 Oct 1757. William's daughter Sarah, by his second wife, married Abraham Hoopes, No. 300, son of Benjamin and Lydia (Worrall) Hoopes.

Issue Surname Williamson:

- 262. Abraham Williamson born 28 Jan 1758, Edgemont; died 4 Feb 1807 at Thornbury, Delaware Co.; married at Westtown Friends Meeting on 18 Sep 1877 to Esther James, daughter of Joseph and Hannah (Hick-man) James, born 6 Sep 1757 at Westtown, Chester Co.; died 16 Sep 1854 in East Bradford, Chester Co. No issue. Esther married 2) Samuel Painter.

66. ABRAHAM HOOPES, son of Abraham and Mary (Williamson) Hoopes, was born ca 1737 in Edgemont, Delaware Co., Pa.; died 28 Jan 1825, Newtown, Delaware Co. and is buried at Middletown, Delaware Co. He married ca 1770-1775 ELIZABETH WORRALL, daughter of John and Priscilla (Lewis) Worrall, who was born ca 1750 in Edgemont; died 12 May 1817 at Middletown and is buried in the Friends Hicksite Burial Ground.

Abraham was complained of by Middletown Meeting 30 Mar 1761 for accompanying members of the meeting to their marriage by a "priest" and refusing to make a written acknowledgment and was disowned 31 Aug 1761. Complaint was made of his wife 29 Jul 1765 for marriage by a Justice of the Peace to one not a member though precautioned. Her acknowledgment was accepted 25 Nov 1765.

THIRDCGENERATION

Abraham's will dated 28 Oct 1820 and proved 23 Feb 1825 left an estate of slightly over $1,000.00 to his children and their heirs. His son-in-law, Jabez Lewis, and grandson, Abraham Regester, were executors.

Issue:

- 263. Priscilla Hoopes married John Regester.
- 264. John Hoopes married Sarah Hanthorn.
- 265. Mary Hoopes born ca 1781, Edgemont, living in 1820, NFI.
- 266. Sarah Hoopes married Jabez Lewis.

67. ABIGAIL HOOPES, daughter of Abraham and Mary (William-son) Hoopes, was born ca 1738 in Edgemont, Delaware Co., Pa. and was married 12 Nov 1759 in Swede's Church, Philadelphia, Pa. to WILLIAM REGESTER, son of David and Lydia (?) Regester, who was born probably in Edgemont. They resided in Upper Providence until 1753 when they moved to Edgemont.

The record of their marriage shows that "William Rechester and Abigail Hubs" were married. For their marrying outside the Friends Meeting they made an acknowledgment to Chester MM on 29 June 1761.

This family seemed to have had a restless spirit or a touch of the wanderlust since they moved a great deal. In 1763 they lived in Upper Providence; next they moved to Newtown where in 1764 William was assessed as a mason with 50 acres of land, one horse and two cows. Ten years later he was not there. In 1783. William and Abigail and all but the eldest of their surviving children received a certificate from Chester to Bradford MM and then back to Chester about 14 months later. On 7th Sept 1802 this couple obtained a certificate to Westland, Washington Co., Pa. accompanied by their sons, Thomas and Robert. After that their residence is not known.

Issue Surname Regester:

- 274. Thomas Regester married Hannah Regester.
- 275. Robert Regester married Abigail Rigby.

THE HOOPES FAMILY RECORD

68. JANE HOOPES, daughter of Abraham and Mary (Williamson) Hoopes, was born ca 1740 in Edgemont, Delaware Co., Pa. and died ca 1838, probably in Freehold, N.J. She was married on 15 Oct 1768 in Philadelphia, Pa. to JOSEPH ROBBINS, son of Joseph and Leah (Clayton) Robbins, who was born 19 Jun 1713, probably in New Jersey, and died 9 Dec 1776, also probably in New Jersey. In 1774, Joseph Robins (as he wrote his name) was assessed in Edgemont Twp., with 170 acres, 2 horses, 4 cattle and 6 sheep. He was not there in 1774 but appears again in 1787 with 100 acres, probably rented land, 3 horses and 6 cattle. He was one of the executors of his father-in-law's estate in 1796 but when or where his death occurred has not been reported. The following account was written by a grandson before the turn of the century; however, it was not dated:

"Our grandfather, on the mother's side, was named Joseph Robbins, and was, I believe, a native of New Jersey, and was, I think, a tailor by trade. He married a lady whose name was Hoopes, of Chester or Delaware County and resided in Edgemont, Delaware County and the neighborhood, for many years, but removed to New Jersey before his death. I have often heard him spoken of as a remarkably active man, and among other feats as such, could leap out of one hogshead into another. They had eleven or twelve children. I recollect the names of eleven (perhaps all), as follows: Leah, Margaret, Alice, Sarah, Jane (our mother), Lydia, Esther, Parthenia, Abigail, Richard and Joseph; two of whom I have no recollection of having seen, namely, Margaret and Alice, they removed to what was called the 'backwoods' about the year 1800; Alice afterwards removed to Ohio. The 'backwoods,' at that time, was Red-stone, (now Brownsville, Pa.). All of these left children, except Leah, who was never married; their descendants are very much scattered, being residents of Philadelphia, Chester County, Delaware County, and Montgomery County, Pa.; New Jersey, Washington City, D.C., Ohio; Chicago, Illinois, and Atchison, Kansas, and perhaps elsewhere. I was named 'Joseph' after our grandfather, and my brother was named 'Robbins,' our mother's maiden name.

"Grandmother Robbins lived to the age of about 98 years. Robbins and I paid her a visit in (I think) the year 1820. She resided at that time not far from Freehold, New Jersey, on the road leading from Camden to Longbranch. Her daughter Leah and she lived together. We, at the same time, visited a number of relatives in New Jersey, of whom I do not know anything, except as to Aunt Abigail's family. Among the families (relatives) that we visited was one (I have forgotten the name) who resides at Shrewsbury, near the ocean, between the Neversink Hills and Longbranch. There was a member of this family, an interesting young lady, who was considered by Robbins a great beauty (she was a pretty girl, too), and so much was he pleased with her that the following year he paid her a visit alone, and at the same time paid a visit to Longbranch, at which place he made the acquaintance of the family of John Quincy Adams, and especially of the son, probably Charles Francis Adams, of Massachusetts. There was at the time of this visit a family by the name of Robbins, a relative of grandfather's residing on this side of the Delaware, which we could not make it convenient to visit."

69. BENJAMIN HOOPES, son of Abraham and Mary (Williamson) Hoopes, was born ca 1742 in Edgemont, Delaware Co., Pa. and died 30 Mar 1824 at Middletown, Delaware Co., where he is buried at Middletown Meeting. He married ca 1770 LYDIA WORRALL, daughter of James and Hannah (Calvert) Worrall, who was born ca 1747 in Marple, Delaware Co., died 27 Jan 1840 and is buried at Middletown FBG.

Benjamin and Lydia were disowned by Chester MM 29 Apr 1771 because of their marriage by a magistrate. In 1777 they were living in Edgemont where Benjamin was assessed with 170 acres, 3 horses, 4 cattle and 5 sheep. He was not there in 1787.

70. ISAAC HOOPES, son of Abraham and Mary (Williamson) Hoopes, was born 15 Apr 1744 in Edgemont, Delaware Co., Pa. and died 4 Mar. 1815 at East Goshen, Chester Co., Pa. He was married in 1769 at Goshen to MARY GRIFFITH, daughter of Nathan and Rachel (Williamson) Griffith, who was born 21 Oct 1751 in Goshen and died 26 Feb 1815 at East Goshen. Mary's grandfather Griffith was from Wales.

Because they were second cousins, Isaac and Mary were married by a magistrate for which misconduct Mary was complained of by Goshen Meeting 11 Aug 1769 and her acknowledgment accepted 8 Dec 1769. Isaac was complained of by Middletown Meeting 28 May 1770 and his acknowledgment accepted 30 Jul 1770. It was not, however, until 10 Oct 1777 that Mary received a certificate from Goshen to Chester MM.

In 1787 Isaac was assessed in Edgemont Twp. with 83 acres, two horses and two cattle. He and Mary received a certificate from Chester to Concord MM 7 May 1793 with six of their children. The children who were of age received separate certificates to the same meeting. In 1797, they returned to the limits of Chester MM.

Isaac inherited half of a farm of 120 acres on 30 Mar 1807 from William Hayman. This farm was in Goshen, a short distance east of Milltown and by division between Hayman's son, William, and Isaac, Isaac owned 62 acres, 37 perches at the time of his death. His residence was on the "Boot" road just north of the West Chester and Philadelphia road.

72. GEORGE HOOPES, son of Abraham and Mary (Williamson) Hoopes, was born 23 Mar 1754 in Edgemont, Delaware Co., Pa. and died 23 Nov 1833. He went to the Redstone Area (probably Washington Co.) in western Pennsylvania. On 28 Dec 1778 in Pennsylvania George married ORPHA McCOY, parents unknown, who was born 4 May 1759 and died 16 Oct 1846.

He was disowned by the Friends on 26 May 1779 for marriage out of union. Smedley says that George was complained of by Middletown Meeting 28 Dec 1778 for marriage by a "hireling priest" and other disorderly conduct for which he was disowned as mentioned above. George was mentioned in his father's will, but no further information of him had been obtained. We found this to be too true, because we did not make the tie-in on this family until 1977 when the history was already being written. The birth and death dates for many of the descendants of George and Orpha were found in Ezra Hoops Day Book owned by Daniel Edgar Hoops of Crooksville, Ohio, No. 2631.

THIRDCENTURY

Under dateline of 3 March 1900, a neighborhood newspaper in Pa. billed the following poem as "An 18th Century Wonder." In this day and age it might read a little stilted; however, we cannot add anything to this tale of how the withered hand of James Hoopes was restored.

The newspaper account states "The following ancient poem, written on fine linen paper and in good clear hand, has been sent to the NEWS by Robert Garrett, of Green Hill. The story is well remembered by many of the older citizens of this neighborhood:

"On James Hoopes' Withered Hand" "When God
decrees our most unhappy fate,

And does afflict us, whether soon or late,
His Spirit hinders to preserve our frames

And suffers satan to decry His name. 'Tis then that we so watchful ought to be

And keep our guard to virtue steadfastly. 'Tis then, I say, that fate's unwatched decree

Permits our everlasting misery. A story
I would tell how not in vain,

The Almighty Power can His will maintain. How omnipotent, He who knows our hearts,

And Justice does to every separate part, As you shall hear, if you will pay attention,

His mighty acts excelling man's invention. In Bradford township, on this earthly ball,

In Chester county, if you would know all,
A strange dilemma, shocking to behold,

Happened to a young man, as I have been told; His left hand withered and seemed to decay,

The sinews shrank, the flesh did waste away, His fingers drew almost into his hand,

Their vigor ceased—their action at a stand, Till twelve long months or more

He thought his hand was lost forever-more. All means was tried his hand for to restore;

Hot baths, perfumes and medicine in store, But all in vain, no help he could obtain,

'Twas not the way to bring it back again. The Almighty Maker, of every limb and part,

That knows the cure, that's versed in every art, That teaches man the path he ought to tread

In truth and Justice onward would him lead; 'Tis He that can restore the withered hand—

THE HOOPES FAMILY RECORD

Restore each nerve and sinew make expand, Give life and vigor, not suffering to decay
One single member or be cast away. But while He's just leads justly on and be A king, God, father, physician, He In mighty dreams and visions constantly
Repeating night by night, as did He
Upon his bed till he at length disclosed
The dreams he had when on his bed reposed. The Almighty's voice spoke softly in his ear
And night by night repeated it so clear That to his parents, he his dream did tell,
Who though it strange, tho' liked the story well. Glad of this chance, tho' doubted yet the cure, Until by trying found it to be sure. A horse was saddled early in the day,
He onward bore his dreams direct the way
His faith so good, no doubt did ever shake,
Or make him think he ever could mistake.
He eastward went by Philadelphia City,
And miles beyond, how hard his lot, what pity A man so good so excellent sure as he,
No nigher found to answer God's decree
Within a wood the approaching far,
A man he found who seemed full of care, At labor hard a working in the wood
Sent there in power to do this young man good,
He saw he knew his dreams described the place,
He found the man, he knew it was his face,
His hand exposed implor'd his help to cure,
Which mighty vision had proclaimed sure,
The good old man God's power did invoke,
And straight his fingers strand at every stroke,
Saying if dreams have brought thee here to me,
My aid thou shalt not want in help to thee. Then rubbed and stroked his hand, the cure perfected,
As the Almighty vision had directed, His hand
restored, his fingers straight and free,
The sinews right as they were usually.
No pain ensues, no withering of the skin,
All smooth without, all justly right within;
But one thing more remains for thee to do—
A heavy task it is for thee to go through:

THIRD GENERATION

Go to thy home before the sun is set,
And in your common spring bathe it yet,
And camphor use the sinews to retain,
The nerves to strengthen and the hand remain, Just so he did, with hasty speed did stride;
Full thirty miles he surely had to ride. His steed was good—he hardly bore the rein, Fearful this old man's aid might prove in vain, He did comply, arrived at home in time
And bathed his hand where Jordan's virtue shine. The power of God he saw did restore
His withered hand twelve months being gone and more, Nor did it use, neither had it in his power
Till by this miracle it was restored. James Hoopes'
his name, East Bradford is his home;
From Nathan and Margaret, his parents, he did come.
With them he dwelt in Heaven, he'd wish to stay
When God should call him from this earth away.
Christ be his rock, whereon he wished to build,
May virtue preside his everlasting shield."

"It happened the cure was performed in the year 1774 and Samuel Hoopes is since deceased. Nathan and Margaret Hoopes lived on the farm now owned and occupied by Joshua Howell, about half a mile west of West Chester."

From the foregoing we gather that Samuel Hoopes wrote the poem about James' withered hand, but James did not have either a son or a grandson whose name was Samuel so it must have been a "cousin."

Issue Surname Woolley:

- 557. Edwin Dilworth Woolley was born 28 Jun 1807 at the home of his Grandmother Dilworth about two miles from West Chester. He died 14 Oct 1881 in Salt Lake City, Utah. Edwin embraced Mormonism in Dec 1837, his first wife, Mary Wickersham, No. 1525, having been converted the previous month. Since Edwin helped to rear several of his younger brothers and sisters who also were baptized in the Mormon faith, Edwin can be considered the "father" of Mormonism in the Woolley family. Edwin married 1) 24 Mar 1831 at Columbiana Co., Ohio, Mary Wickersham, No. 1525, daughter of Amos and Amy (Ward) Wickersham, who was born 4 Nov 1808 in Chester Co. and died 29 Mar 1859 in Salt Lake City. Mary was actually her husband's third cousin through her descent from Daniel Hoopes who was their common second great-grandfather. To this union were born five sons and three daughters.

Edwin married 2) (plurally) in 1843 at Nauvoo, Illinois, Louisa Chapin Gordon, daughter of Conrad and Julia Ann (Searl) Gordon, who had previously married and divorced Lorin Rising. She was born 28 Feb 1820 in Williamsen, New York and died 29 Apr 1849 at Galesburg, Illinois. One son was born to this union.

Edwin married 3) (plurally) at Nauvoo, Illinois, Ellen Wilding, daughter of Thomas and Ellen (Porter) Wilding, born 8 Apr 1820, Leon, Lancaster, England and died 5 Oct 1913, Paris, Idaho; buried in Salt Lake City, Utah. Ellen had been a maid in Edwin's home. Three sons and two daughters were born to this union.

Edwin married 4) (plurally) 10 Nov 1850, Mary Ann Olpin, daughter of Henry and Mary Ann (White) Olpin, who was born 24 Mar 1824 at Cam, near Dursley, Gloucestershire, England. This marriage took place at Endowment House on Temple Square in Salt Lake City with President Brigham Young officiating. Mary Ann died 30 Sep 1894 in Salt Lake City. Six sons and five daughters were born to this union. Edwin married 5) & 6) on 11 Feb 1857, a widow and her daughter. The widow, Betsy Ann Fitzrandolph, was born 7 Oct 1817 in Yales Co., N.Y. and her daughter, Elizabeth Ann Jackman, was born 1 Jan 1837 in Fulton Co., 111. One son was born ca 1857 to this sixth union, but after the move south to Provo in 1858, these two women and the baby did not return to Salt Lake City. They were subsequently divorced and although Edwin tried to find and reclaim his son, Oceola, he was never found. One obit written about Edwin states that he had twenty-seven children, fifty-seven grandchildren and eleven great-grandchildren, many of whom were still living at the time of his death. A full and interesting account of this man's life is to be found in THE UTAH WOOLLEY FAMILY by Preston W. Parkinson, copyright 1967.

558. Taylor Hoopes Woolley born 21 Mar 1810 at West Chester, Chester Co., Pa.; died 6 Nov 1854 in East Rochester, Columbiana Co., Ohio and was buried Hanoverton, Ohio in Sandy Quaker Cemetery. 388. JAMES HOOPES, farmer and weaver, son of Daniel and Elizabeth (Bane) Hoopes, was born 1 Oct 1772 at Goshen, Chester Co., Pa. and died 7 Aug 1850 or 1856 in Columbiana Co., Ohio where he is buried in Highland Cemetery. He was married on 6 Oct 1797 at Little York, York Co., Pa. to SUSANNA LEECH, daughter of William and Jane (?) Leech. She was born 11 Oct or Nov 1780 in Chester Co. and died 6 Apr 1845 in Columbiana Co. Family tradition has it that James and Susanna eloped because they wanted to marry and Susanna's parents objected because she was barely seventeen. They went to York County to marry. Both of them knew how to weave and it was in this manner they tried to earn a living for themselves and their growing family. It is said that one would weave by day and one by night since there was only one loom.

To begin with they had only borrowed utensils . . . three knives, three forks and three spoons. If they had more than one guest, someone had to wait.

James and Susanna moved to Ohio about 1816. There is a record of their transfer from Warrington Friends Meeting in York Co. to the New Garden Meeting in Columbiana Co.

From the History of the Upper Ohio Valley, Vol. II, Columbiana Co., Ohio (Brant & Fuller, 1891, p 184) we learn that: "James and Susanna Hoopes started in life with no capital and with but few of the necessities, having been obliged to borrow the dishes and cooking utensils with which they began housekeeping. They were rich in resources . . . accumulating sufficient means to buy a small farm in York Co., Pa. They sold this and moved to Columbiana in 1816 and after prospecting . . . decided to purchase a place now owned by J(oseph) L. Hoopes, but at that time owned by a Mr. Johnson. It is related that after negotiations concluded, Mr. (James) Hoopes drove his five-horse wagon right into the yard and began unloading his effects. Mr. Johnson viewed with amazement. Mr. Hoopes proceeded . . . when he came to a keg which he seized and invited Mr. Johnson into the house . . . to settle in full. While counting the money, the horses took fright and started off at a gallop, destroying many articles in and around the wagon. Leaving the money on the table, Mr. Hoopes pursued and caught the horses and returned to the house, finding the money as he had left it, Mr. Johnson standing guard and every dollar accounted for."

Flowery though they may have been, there is a great deal to be learned from the obituaries of yesteryear. We would like to include here some excerpts from a newspaper clipping which appeared in the Muscatine DAILY NEWS on 29 Dec 1893:

"An honorable and highly respected citizen who has been identified with the history of this city and county for over half a century, passed away yesterday morning, when Joseph J. Hoopes joined the ranks of the silent majority. Only a week ago his familiar figure, apparently hale and hearty, was seen as usual on our streets, but last Friday he was seized with a severe attack of bronchitis. Despite medical skill and affectionate care, the disease became more aggravated in form and yesterday morning at 4:10 o'clock the distinguished old settler tranquilly succumbed to the inroads of the disease."

The article goes on to say that Joseph J. spent his boyhood days in Chester Co., Pa., his birthplace. "He learned the trade of carpenter, and becoming a skilled mechanic began an itinerancy, travelling through the south, pursuing his vocation at different places. He was located at Cincinnati for a number of years, and at that place was united in marriage with Miss Amanda McGinnis in Feb 1838."

Three years later Joseph J. and Amanda Hoopes moved to Muscatine, Iowa where they lived for the rest of their lives. Amanda preceded her husband in death by four years.

"Mr. Hoopes followed his business as contractor and builder until recent years and many structures in this locality, including some landmarks are products of his handiwork. He managed to secure a comfortable competency and in late years led a retired life, though maintaining his wonted interest in affairs. He was repeatedly honored by his fellow citizens with an election to the office of school director and alderman, and always dis-

1190. BARTON HOOPES, son of David and Ann (Pim) Hoopes, was born 10 Jul 1827 at West Goshen, Chester Co., Pa. and died 15 Nov 1895 in Philadelphia. He was married on 22 Aug 1848 in Wilmington, Newcastle Co., Del. to RUTHANNA CAMPERSON, daughter of Samuel and Jane (Mason) Camperson. She was born in Springfield, Delaware Co., Pa. on 4 Sep 1828 and died in Philadelphia on 30 Jun 1912.

Barton was part of the firm, Hoopes & Townsend of Philadelphia, manufacturers of bolts and nuts. He lived at 18th and North according to the 1860 City Directory for Philadelphia. An article which appeared in a local paper on 28 Nov 1891 gives a great insight into the character and personality of Barton Hoopes and we would like to quote it here:

FIFTH GENERATION

Headed "The Band Plays at Home", the article continues: "The man who has obtained more genuine enjoyment out of the phonograph than anybody else in Philadelphia, if not in the country, next to Edison, is Mr. Barton Hoopes, the senior member of the firm of Hoopes & Townsend. For two years, Mr. Hoopes has devoted all his spare time to the study of the instrument and, as a result, has been able not only to get all the possible enjoyment out of it, but even to suggest some improvements.

"Mr. Hoopes' cozy sitting room at No. 624 North Eighteenth St. is fitted up with a phonograph, to which is attached a large trumpet-like sounder, the bell-shaped mouth of which points toward the bay window end of the room. There, seated in the large easy chairs, Mr. Hoopes and his friends can nightly enjoy overtures by the famous Marine Band of Washington, operatic selections, humorous songs, banjo solos, recitations and selections of every description, which are reproduced from the waxed cylinders by the phonograph. Mr. Hoopes has about 400 of these cylinders, which include sounds of every conceivable variety.

"One of Mr. Hoopes' greatest delights is to entertain his friends with the performances of the wonderful little machine, and he has often kept it going continuously an entire evening. In recording sounds on new cylinders some amusing incidents have occurred. On one occasion when a well-known minstrel had concluded a banjo solo he followed up his performance with the remark, 'Whew! That's a hot job.' and the words were carefully recorded and now religiously appear whenever the solo is reproduced.

"Mr. Hoopes has discovered that the phonograph is an excellent aid in helping a singer to correct any faults. Many singers have attempted to sing to it, but with few exceptions they found they could not sing so well as they had supposed, and after one or two attempts gave it up in despair. People accustomed to giving public recitations are, for some reason, very much afraid of the instrument, and Mr. Hoopes has had great difficulty in getting any of them to talk to it. He would like to have some of the well-known orators, like City Solicitor Warwick and others, deliver speeches to the little wonder.

"By a careful study of the instrument and numerous experiments, Mr. Hoopes has succeeded in making several small improvements in it, and he is now experimenting with different kinds of metal discs, instead of glass. He has brought both the recording and the giving out of sounds to a high state of perfection. His greatest trouble is with people who try to find out 'why' the sounds are repeated so accurately, and in trying to find out secrets that even Edison has been unable to solve, they have sometimes come within an ace of pulling the instrument to pieces."

Abigail was born 22 Feb 1799 in Loudon Co., Va. and died 23 Oct 1869 at Marion, Ohio. She is buried in the Friends Burial Ground at Chester Hill, Morgan Co.

Minta Hoopes, a granddaughter of Joseph, collected traditions in her "Ye Old Log Cabin Town" at Chester Hill, Ohio, which was founded by Quakers from McConnellsville, Belmont Co., Ohio. She has this to say about her grandfather:

"He came to Belmont County near Cadiz, Ohio with his parents in 1804. At age 16 he was apprenticed to a blacksmith and later became a gunsmith at which trade he worked all his life. His wife, Abigail's mother, not her father as Robertson's History says, was a Quaker minister. Joseph and Abigail had nine children while they lived at Cadiz. With their family of seven living children they went to Morgan Co., Ohio in 1833, the year before Chester Hill was founded. Joseph purchased one hundred acres of land from Aaron Thomas in the vicinity of Goshen Run for which he paid $500.00, which bordered on the county line of what was then Athens County. He built a log cabin of one room with a dirt floor and this was home for them until Joseph could build a hewed log house of five rooms which was home to the family for fifty-three years."

Minta's father, Joseph, was twelve when Morgan County separated from the others. He and three of his older brothers helped to make up the six hundred thousand volunteers called by Lincoln to save the Union. All returned safely when the war ended.

**In December 1867, Joseph Jr. with his wife Mary Ann Coen moved in to care for his aging parents. Eight children were born to them in the same log cabin where Joseph, Jr. was born. They attended the same old country school at Westland and belonged to the same Methodist Church at Pleasant Hill and moved to Chester Hill in 1907."

Note: Cadiz is in Harrison Co. and it was in these records where we found much of our information.

- 3051. Ellis Hoopes married Margaret E. Jones.
- 3052. Joseph Marion Hoopes married Rebecca Isabella Dobbs.

1324. ELLIS HOOPES, JR., son of Ellis and Elizabeth (King) Hoopes, was born 4 Nov 1805 in Chester Co., Pa. and died in 1886 in Vermont Twp., Fulton Co., 111. where he is buried in the Vermont Cemetery. He was married on 14 Sep 1826 in Somerset Monthly Meeting, Sunbury, Belmont Co., Ohio to GRACE FOULKE, daughter of Judah and Sarah (McCarty) Foulke. She was born 29 Jan 1810 near Brandy-wine, Chester Co., Pa. and died in Vermont, 111. on 26 Jul 1879. She is buried with her husband in the Vermont Cemetery.

According to the HISTORICAL ENCYCLOPEDIA OF ILLINOIS AND HISTORY OF FULTON COUNTY, published in 1908 in Chicago by Munsell Publishing Co.:

"The paternal branch of his family traces its origin to the great house of Lancaster, and claims both Scotch and English ancestry. The maternal family knew generations of existence in picturesque Wales. Both the Hoopes and Foulke families were established in the State of Ohio during pioneer days, where the parents were married, and whence they came to Vermont Twp., Fulton Co. in 1842. It was their fate to endure the struggles and deprivations which confronted the settler in his frontier home, and the father tilled his land and helped to subdue the wilderness until the death of his wife in 1879. He then went to live with his son, Henry, where his death occurred in 1886, at the age of 84 years. Reared in the faith of the Society of Friends, he maintained the simple tenets of that faith during his entire life, rearing his children in an uncompromising attitude towards truth and morality. He was quiet and unostentatious, avoiding all publicity, and craving no official or other recognition. It was his good fortune to live and see his twelve children grow to maturity and his five sons and seven daughters settled in homes of their own."

Despite the fact that Ellis remained a Quaker in his beliefs all the days of his life, his wife, Grace, was disowned by the Quakers on the 24th of Oct 1831. The next item listed in the Quaker Encyclopedia for Somerset Monthly Meeting is the fact that Ellis and his three daughters, Margaret, Elizabeth and Sarah got certificates to Milford Monthly Meeting in Indiana. None of the members of this family is mentioned again. However, the descendants of Ellis and Grace know they went from Indiana on to Fulton Co., 111. where seven more children were born, two having been born in Ind.

It is a matter of conjecture on the part of this volume's writers that it was because Grace's parents were also prominent members of the Society of Friends in Bucks Co., Pa., that the reason for Grace's being disowned is not mentioned. Present day members of the Quaker persuasion suggest that it could have been for a matter of faith.

1333. JOHN B. HOOPES, son of Daniel and Lydia (Broomall) Hoopes, was born 16 Feb 1809 at Londongrove, Chester Co., Pa and died 9 Jun 1890 in Oskaloosa, Mahaska Co., Ia. where he is buried in the Forest Lawn Cemetery. He was married 1) on 24 Oct 1833 in Carlisle, Cumberland Co., Pa. at the First Evangelical Church to BARBARA GREIDER, daughter of Jacob and Ann (?) Greider. She was born 8 Dec 1814 in Lancaster Co., Pa., died near Oskaloosa, Ia. on 17 Apr 1879 and is buried in Forest Cemetery. John B. Hoopes married 2) on 18 Oct 1883, S. R. TE(M)PLE, a native of Ind. about whom we have no further information.

From THE HISTORY OF MAHASKA CO., IOWA (1887) we quote the following biographical material:

". . . . When a child his parents removed to York Co. near Harrisburg, and there he lived and worked upon the farm until he reached the age of seventeen years. He was then apprenticed to a tanner for three years for which he was to receive his board and clothes, three months' schooling during his apprenticeship, and at the end of the time, a suit of clothes valued at $30.00, or $30.00 in cash, as he might elect. He worked several years as a journeyman tanner, and in 1833, at Carlisle, Cumberland Co., Pa., was married to Miss Barbara Grider, who was born in Lancaster Co., Pa. in 1815.

"In the spring of 1834 our subject and wife removed to Dayton, Ohio, where he was foreman for a number of years for Samuel McPherson, an extensive tanner in that vicinity. In the year 1844 he purchased a tract of land near Lima, Ohio, which he successfully cultivated for several years, when he sold at a good advance over the original cost, and removed with his family to Dubuque Co., Iowa, where he purchased a farm of 400 acres near the town of Cascade. This he cultivated until about the year 1865, when he came to Oskaloosa, where he has since resided."

". . . . . Politically Mr. Hoopes is an enthusiastic Republican, but not an office-seeker. Mr. Hoopes' early religious training was received in the Friends' Society, but he afterward joined the Methodist Episcopal Church. As a citizen, he is a man to whom the word good applies in the superlative degree. He takes an active interest in public matters and in matters relating to the moral health of the city."

Barbara (Greider) Hoopes' obituary tells us that she was born in Cumberland Co., Pa. rather than in Lancaster and that she, too, was raised a Quaker before becoming a Methodist. She and her husband moved to Iowa in 1846.

He married, on 25 Feb 1847 at West Whiteland, ELIZA R. LEWIS, daughter of Thomas and Sarah (?) Lewis, born in Jan 1822, possibly in West Whiteland. Eliza died 1 Feb 1901 in West Chester, Chester Co. and was buried in Oaklands Cemetery in West Chester beside her husband.

An account in the local newspaper little more than seven months before Robert died reads: "This is the 87th birthday of Robert F. Hoopes of West Chester, the veteran Exrecorder of Deeds. Mr. Hoopes was commissioned as Recorder November 10, 1854, and served with credit. For several years he and Mrs. Hoopes have been living quietly at their home on South High Street, where many friends call to see them. Mr. Hoopes is in fair health, and able to walk out every day. To a friend this morning he remarked that he has a vivid recollection of many things which occurred four score years ago."

Robert Hoopes helped to patent a car coupling for railroad cars on 18 Jan 1874 along with M. L. Smith and Baldwin Keech.

His wife survived him by only nine days as is often the case with older people who have been married a long time.

SIXTH GENERATION

ANN HALL, daughter of Charles Hall (mother's name unknown), who was born 13 Jan 1832 in Downingtown, Chester Co., Pa. She died 6 Dec 1900.

Since Cyrus D. was preceded in death by Phebe we would like to quote from her obituary which appeared in the local Chester Co. newspaper on 7 Dec 1900: "Last evening, Phebe Ann, wife of Cyrus D. Hoopes, died at her home on East Market Street in her sixty-ninth year. She was a devoted Christian and a fond mother.

"For some time she had been in poor health, suffering from heart and kidney trouble, but on Monday, seemed somewhat better. On Tuesday, she was prostrated by a stroke, and for about twenty-four hours lay unconscious.

"Mrs. Hoopes was a daughter of the late Charles Hall, of Downingtown, and she was born in that borough Jan. 13, 1832. There she continued to reside until her marriage to Cyrus D. Hoopes, Jan. 24th, 1851, after which she removed with him to West Chester.

"For thirty years she was a member of the First Baptist Church, but withdrew from that some months ago to unite with the Tabernacle Baptist Church.

"She was the first Treasurer of Florentina Degree Lodge, Daughters of Rebekah, and continued to attend until last winter, when she withdrew on account of ill health and advancing years. . . ."

Another clipping concerning Cyrus David Hoopes was printed on 29 Dec 1948 in the Chester Co. newspaper. It read as follows:

"Among the well-known mechanics in West Chester, about sixty years ago, was Cyrus D. Hoopes, brickmason, who lived, for quite a time, on East Market Street, opposite the West Chester Spoke and Wheelworks, and for a long while was chief in charge of the building and repairing of boilers of the Edgemore plant." The article goes on to speak of his wife and three children about whom we will have more to say later in this volume. Further background can be gleaned from one of the several elaborate obituaries printed when Cyrus David Hoopes died. This one appeared on 26 Oct 1909:

"Cyrus D. Hoopes, prominent in the history of West Chester for many years as one of her well-known builders, died at his home on East Market Street near Franklin, Sunday morning, after a prolonged illness [another clipping states three months], from a complication of diseases, in his 79th year, having celebrated his last birthday anniversary on October 4th. At one time he was associated in business with the veteran bricklayer, Thomas L. Lewis, who is still living here. Mr. Hoopes assisted in the brickwork on the original Normal School in 1870, and, also helped in the building of the West Chester Wheel Works and at Westtown Friends' Boarding School. He was best known as a builder of stacks and furnaces and built the stacks at the Wheel Works and at Westtown. He was the boss mason for 12 years at the big iron works at Edgemoor, a suburb of Wilmington, Del. He was a corporal in Company E, Ninth Pennsylvania Militia, and later became a member of Gen. George A. McCall Post, No. 31, G. A. R. of this borough.

"He was a member of Ivanhoe Lodge, No. 43. I. O. O. F. of Sugar-town, for 57 years, and was one of the oldest Odd Fellows in Pa. in membership. He was also a long time member of Uppowoc Tribe, No. 47, Improved order of Red Men, this borough. . . ."

3687. Harry Davis Hoopes was born 3 Jan 1857; died 24 Oct 1862 and is buried in Oaklands Cemetery.
3688. Charles Hoopes was born in West Chester, Chester Co., Pa., about 1859 and died about 1925, probably in Portland, Oregon where he had been residing since 1885. Since most of the facts we have about him come from two Chester County newspaper articles, we would like to quote from them: The first dated 14 Apr 1916 reads: "Charles Hoopes of Portland, Oregon, writes his sister, Mrs. Christian Kautz, of East Market Street, saying that he will leave about the first of May for Alaska to spend three months on Government work, he being a bricklayer by trade. It is supposed the duties are connected with the lighthouse service. The United States will supply everything except the bed upon which he sleeps, and as the nights there are only three or four hours long, the sleeping may be a feature of special interest. Precautions are to be taken against the swarms of mosquitoes found in that locality." The second clipping is dated 21 Jul 1916 and reads: " 'It seems funny to go to bed in daylight,' writes Charles Hoopes from Cape St. Elias, Alaska, to his sister, Mrs. Lillie Hoopes Kautz, of East Market Street, this borough. 'We have no stars or moon to look at, as it is daylight all the time.' "
- "Mr. Hoopes, formerly lived in West Chester, but for the past quarter of a century or thereabout has been located in Portland, Oregon. Being a bricklayer by trade, as was his late father, Cyrus Hoopes, he is in the employ of the United States Government, and supposed to be in lighthouse construction."
3689. Edward Grossman Hoopes was born in West Chester in Nov 1863 and died in Washington, B.C. on 13 Dec 1922. On 19 Oct 1892 at Chester, Delaware Co., he married Sarah Pennell Roberts, the daughter of Nathan P. and Hannah T. (Pennell) Roberts. She was born 28 Jan 1870 and died 28 Jan 1935 in Washington, D.C. They are buried in Mt. Hope M.E. Cemetery in Concordville, Delaware Co., Pa. Edward was a musician and Government printer. They had no children. NFI.

A number of interesting facts are contained in Enos' obituary which appeared in the Chester County newspaper so we quote it here:

"Enos Barnard Hoopes, of Milltown, a life-long resident of East Goshen Twp., passed away at 4 o'clock yesterday morning at the Chester Co. Hospital. He was in his seventy-seventh year.

"While Mr. Hoopes had been in failing health for between two and three years, he had been able to be about, and his condition did not become critical until early last week. He was admitted to the hospital on Tuesday. Death was the result of uremic poisoning.

"Mr. Hoopes was a son of William Hoopes and Hannah Barnard Hoopes, and he was born in the house which was his home at the time of his death. For many years he owned and conducted the farm, adjoining his home at Milltown, continuing in this business until 1919. He sold the farm at that time and had been retired since.

"He married Mary Pratt, of East Goshen Twp., who survives. The couple would have observed their golden wedding anniversary January 21st next year. . . ."

"Mr. Hoopes was a member of the Society of Friends, being associated with Goshen Meeting, and he was for many years a member of Goshen Grange, No. 121.

"Being a man of fine character and pleasant personality, and an upright citizen, Mr. Hoopes had many friends."

ton. She was born 11 Jun 1818, possibly in Westtown, Chester, Pa. and died 5 May 1866. Simeon and Phebe are buried in Oaklands FBG in West Goshen.

We have two clippings from the Chester Co. paper which we should like to quote here because of their interesting content.

Dated 19 Mar 1895 one article reads: "Yesterday Simeon Hoopes, West Chester, received a bill for a quantity of stone from a man who furnished the material thirty-five years ago. The farm upon which it was used has changed hands a number of times since the stone was delivered, and Mr. Hoopes had forgotten the matter. The man who furnished the stone writes that he is badly in need of money and hence the bill. Mr. Hoopes will pay the claim."

A copy of Simeon's obituary which was printed again in 1947 reads: "Simeon Hoopes, one of the oldest residents of this place, and a brother of E. Malin Hoopes and Ralston R. Hoopes, died last evening at the age of nearly eighty-one years. He was a cabinet maker by trade, and worked as a carpenter for several years, after which he became a farmer, at which business he prospered. He was an ardent member of High Street Friends Meeting and leaves a wide circle of friends and relatives who will mourn his loss."

Issue:

3851. Anna Mary Hoopes married 1) Edward Coulston; 2) William Henry Reid.

He married 20 Apr 1861, MARIA PINKHAM about whom we know nothing except that she was born 10 Apr 1826 in New York and died in Muscatine in 1911. They are both buried in Bloomington Cemetery. Joshua's obituary, printed in the Chester Co. newspaper on 21 Jun 1902 reads as follows:

"Word was received here today of the death in Muscatine, Iowa, of Joshua W. Hoopes, aged seventy-five years. He was a brother to E. Malin Hoopes, Ralston R. Hoopes, Levi Hoopes and Ruthanna Hoopes, all of this place. Deceased had suffered for a long time with kidney trouble. He resided formerly in East Bradford Twp., but went West several years ago, where he followed the occupation of a farmer. He leaves a widow and two daughters."

He is buried in Londongrove Friends Burial Ground. He married 16 Sep 1891 in Philadelphia, Pa., MATILDA "TILLIE" BAYNE, parents unknown, who was born 25 Jul 1864 in Wilmington, Newcastle Co., Del. Tillie was a tailoress and she and her husband were separated at the time of his death.

William's obituary carried a number of interesting facts so we would like to quote this article from the Chester Co. NEWS dated 23 Sep 1912:

"William Hoopes, an employee of T. L. Eyre, at the Deborah Rocks Farm, died suddenly, Saturday evening at the home of William Burgstresser, at Ingram's Mill, while on his way from his place of employment to Alton station, on the West Chester and Downingtown trolley line. Death was attributed to heart failure.

"Hoopes went to the Deborah Rock Farm about two weeks ago and was employed in filling silos and in work in the poultry plant. He was apparently in good health on Saturday afternoon and ate a hearty supper.

THE HOOPES FAMILY RECORD

After eating, he told the farmer, George M. Alien, with whom he boarded, that he was going to West Chester and started to walk to Alton station to take the trolley on the West Chester and Downingtown line.

"On reaching Ingram's Mill, which is about half way to his destination, he was overcome with heart failure and sat down to rest. About 6:30, Elisha Baldwin who makes his home with Mr. Burgstresser, at the house near Ingram's Mill, heard a sound as of some one groaning outside, but thinking it was a man under the influence of liquor, paid no attention to it. A little later he again heard groaning, and upon investigation found Hoopes sitting at the corner of the mill apparently in great pain.

"Assistance was summoned and the suffering man was carried into the Burgstresser home and placed upon a lounge. A telephone message was sent to police headquarters in West Chester for the ambulance, but Hoopes died a few minutes after he was removed to the house and was dead when the ambulance arrived. . . ."

"The deceased, who was about 55 years of age, was a son of the late Thomas Hoopes, of Chatham. A sister who is now deceased was the wife of Josiah Lamborn of New Garden. James Bailey of South Walnut Street this place, is a cousin.

"He was married some years ago, but he and his wife separated. Three children . . ."

2328. WILLIAM HENRY HOOPES, son of Henry and Eleanor (Grubb) Hoopes, was born 17 Nov 1848 in Wilmington, Newcastle Co., Del., and died there 31 Mar 1909. He is buried in River View Cemetery. William married in Wilmington, 30 Sep 1874, MARY REBECCA TOP-PIN, the daughter of George and Julia (?) Toppin. She was born in 1853 in Wilmington and died there 15 Sep 1940. She is buried next to her husband. William was a machinist; Mary was a dressmaker.

At the time of her death, Mary Rebecca Hoopes had been a widow for thirty-one years and a dressmaker for fifty three years. She was 87 years old.

According to a newspaper account, Mary Rebecca never intended to be a modiste, it just happened. "It all began with the death of her sister, Miss Ella Toppin. Only Wilmingtonians with long lives will recall Miss Toppin's dressmaking establishment on East Fifth St. Regularly Mrs. Hoopes called at her sister's place, and to pass the time away she would work button-holes. She never entered the workroom.

"Her entry into the world of gowns was accidental. After the death of her sister, a New York customer of Miss Toppin's asked Mrs. Hoopes to make a dress. This was the start of M. R. Hoopes and Co. The firm began at 419 East Fifth St., and then moved to the old Bornot Building at 716 Market St. For the past 22 years it has been located at Delaware Ave. and West St.

"In 1887, when Mrs. Hoopes began her enterprise, dress materials were of a type that since have nearly been forgotten. There was crepon, foulard, and gabardine—recently revived—organdie and silicia, a glazed cotton lining which was included in every style of gown. The dress wasn't real unless silicia was the lining. Another material was peau de soie, a stiff heavy silk, which had a leatherly touch. In those days whalebone went into the waist to give that slim appearance, hair cloth in the skirt and crinoline extended the sleeves. Forty years ago there was always 'papier chamois' in the sleeves for stiffening.

"Dresses then had so many beads that a special girl was employed to attach them. Many ruffles adorned the dresses, and these things were all made by hand. Even the rosettes that went on a skirt or flower trimmings were hand done. Mrs. Hoopes had the distinction of being far in advance when it came to a matter of styles. Regularly she went to the openings in New York, each spring and fall. When the first openings were held in New York City there were no original French dresses, only pattern dresses made of crinoline. Later models were brought over from the famous French modistes of the day—Paquin, Worth, Callot and Boue Souers. These were fabulously expensive, some cost $1,000, dressmakers bought only the patterns.

SIXTH GENERATION

"Of all the importers with whom Mrs. Hoopes dealt only two survive—Harry Angelo and Colli, Inc.

"There was an indomitable character tucked away in her small size; she possessed a determination that kept her business alive through all the changes that ensued, that enabled her, and those who carried on her work following her retirement, to survive the wave of machine-made goods that swept the twentieth century.

"After the New York openings the importers would come to Wilmington, in order that dressmakers here could see the cloths and patterns. Their shows were held at the Clayton House on Market St. These openings were at night and Mrs. Hoopes went to them on the horse cars, always taking a girl from the Hoopes Co. with her. She enjoyed that part of her business . . . looking at clothes and shopping for trimmings. She did all the buying for the firm until she was 75 years old.

"She loved black satin and sequins, and was glad when a customer had such a dress made. She loved weddings, too, and dressed many bridal parties. She did six weddings for one family, brides and bridesmaids. Her old-fashioned book with the list of customers named most of Wilmington's 'best people.' The books have one corner burned off. That happened in the fire that ruined her place in October 1925. She was 73 then and went down the fire escape carrying her purse, while two of the girls were lifted out of the corner window by way of a wooden sign board."

Interesting, if sad to note is that the second, third and fourth child of this couple died of spinal meningitis in infancy. Before their fifth and last child was born, seeing that the young mother was frantic about losing her children so soon after birth in the same manner, well meaning friends suggested that the germs of the dread disease were "sleeping" in the baby clothes. Atta Marie, however, suspected it might be her own breast milk which was contributing to her babies' death. Therefore, in addition to burning the baby clothes, she bought a Jersey cow and fed this milk to her child. This daughter laughingly told your editors that she will always blame her mother because she looks like a Jersey cow!

2759. HERMAN HOOPEs, son of Edward and Guleilma Maria (Townsend) Hoopes, was born 29 Jul 1854 in West Chester, Chester Co., Pa., and died on 14 Feb 1923, in Baltimore, Baltimore Co., Md. Herman and his wife are both buried in Oaklands Cemetery in West Goshen Twp., Chester Co., Pa. Herman married Thursday, 11 Nov 1880 at 4:00 p.m. with Emanuel C. Bolt officiating (and for which he was reprimanded by the Quakers for marrying out of union on 19 Oct 1881, almost a year later), MARGARET GALLATIN WARFIELD, daughter of Albert Gallatin and Margaret Gassaway (Watkins) Warfield, who was born 28 Apr 1858 in Baltimore where she died 14 Feb 1923.

Margaret preceded her husband in death by just a few hours. She was visiting in Baltimore while her husband was there on business. He took sick with pneumonia and while attending to him, she was taken ill and quickly succumbed to the disease.

Margaret came of a distinguished Maryland family. Her grandfather served in the Revolutionary War. Edwin Warfield, her brother, was one of the governors of Maryland. Margaret, herself, was an active member of the Daughters of the American Revolution and the Colonial Dames. She was also an early and knowing collector of antiques. Her obituary tells us that she did many acts of charity in a quiet manner. "She was a woman of warm heart and genial disposition dispensing generous hospitality in her beautiful home."

Herman "was born in the old house on Matlack St. from which he and his wife will be taken to the Church of the Holy Trinity for funeral services." At the time Herman was born, the house was the residence of his grandfather, David Townsend.

Herman was educated at Swarthmore College. He practiced as a civil engineer from 1877 to 1882; was in the commercial lines of business from 1882 to 1893; and established the Philadelphia agency of the Fidelity and Deposit Co. of Maryland in 1892. At the time of his death, he was vice president of this company and stationed in Philadelphia. In 1920-1922 he was written up in WHO'S WHO IN BANKING.

According to his obituary, Herman was a well-known figure in Chester Co., and a lover of country life and pursuits. He purchased three farms in East Bradford Twp. several years before he died and these were known

- 4957. Malcolm W. Hoopes was born 2 Dec 1901 in West Chester, Pa. and died there, unmarried, 2 Jan 1923. His death occurred in the Chester Co. Hospital where he had been admitted for treatment following an accident a few days before at the West Chester Wheel Works, where he had worked for several years. In a fall, a kidney was injured and an operation was deemed necessary to save his life. This proved of no avail, however, and he died.
Malcolm was well known in West Chester. He was a former popular student at the local high school. He then took a course at Bucknell University but abandoned further education when he accepted a position at the Wheel Works. In high school, Malcolm reported school activities of various kinds to the local newspaper. He was a member of the Fame Fire Co. in which he had taken much interest.

4958. William R. Hoopes was born 3 Apr 1906 and died 29 Mar 1969. NFI.

4959. Roger Kirk Hoopes was born 4 Aug 1908 and died unmarried 15 Sep 1945. Roger was a native of West Chester having been born in his parents' home on West Miner St. He attended West Chester High School, George School and Swarthmore College. He did advanced work at the Sorbonne in Paris, France, and travelled through Spain Upon his return to the United States, he began his teaching career. For the four years previous to his death, he had been head of the Language Department of the Northwestern Military and Naval Academy at Lake Geneva, 111. He was a bachelor.

2813. PERCY MARION HOOPES, son of William and Lavinia (Cock) Hoopes, was born 4 Nov 1884 in West Goshen, Chester Co., Pa., and died 3 Aug 1961 in Douglastown, Long Island, N.Y. He is buried there in the churchyard of the historic Zion Episcopal Church where his wife, Isabella, sang in the choir. He married in the Church of the Holy Trinity in Brooklyn, N.Y. on 10 Aug 1912, ISABELLA PEROT PARK McQUADE, daughter of James Pollack and Sara (Sidebotham) Mc-Quade. Isabella was born on 21 Apr 1893 in Plainfield, Union Co., N.J. She was still living in 1961.

A man of many, varied interests, Percy was well-known throughout the county as a hunting dog breeder and he sponsored many field trials for this breed of dogs. He and his wife founded the nationally known Saddle Rock Kennels and specialized in the breeding of pedigreed beagles. Almost until the time of her husband's death, Isabella was noted in dog ring circles as an outstanding dog handler and breeder.

Percy was also a devotee of the theatre and he and Isabella were instrumental in organizing the Whitford Lodge players, a drama group which was a forerunner of summer theatre work in Chester Co. Their work in summer theatre led to the Drama League contests at the New Century Club in West Chester. The fact that Isabella was widely recognized as an actress in New York served to whet Percy's interest. The summer before his death, she appeared at the Valley Forge Music Fair along with the late tenor, James Melton, as the duchess in the operetta, "Student Prince."

For many years Percy was an active mushroom grower and he moved back and forth from West Chester to Long Island at least twice.

A member of High Street Friends Meeting, Percy also attended the Friends Community School affiliated with the meeting. He was a graduate of West Chester High School and attended Swarthmore College where he was a member of the International Lacrosse Team.

2815. WILLIAM HOOPEES, son of Thomas James and Amanda (Russell) Hoopes, was born 21 Jul 1867 in West Goshen Twp., Chester Co., Pa., and died 9 Jan 1924 in Pittsburgh, Allegheny Co., Pa. He married 5 Nov 1896 in St. Peter's Church in Phoenixville, Chester Co., MARY DORA (DOROTHY) STOCKTON, daughter of Dr. William Rogers and Emma (Prout) Stockton. She was born 13 Feb 1870 in Phoenixville and died 1 Apr 1947 in West Chester, Pa.

We would like to quote here from the CYCLOPEDIA OF AMERICAN BIOGRAPHY:

"Hoopes, William, electrical engineer and aluminum expert, was born at West Chester, July 21, 1867, son of Thomas and Amanda (Russell) Hoopes. His father was president of Hoopes Bros. & Darlington, wheel manufacturers of West Chester, Pa. He was graduated E. E. at Lehigh University in 1886.

During the ensuing ten years he was engaged in the construction and operation of electrical lighting plants and electric railways in several localities. In 1899 he settled in Pittsburgh, Pa., joining the staff of the Westinghouse Electric & Manufacturing Co., and the next year entered the employ of the Aluminum Co. of America as its chief electrical engineer. From 1917 until the close of his life he was the head of the research and technical department of the company. He introduced the use of aluminum for high voltage electrical transmission and was recognized as one of the foremost aluminum metallurgical and electrical engineers in the world. His extreme modesty and gentleness of character, combined with his unusual brilliance of mind and his high professional attainments, made him one of the most respected men in the industry. He was a member of the Engineers' Society of Western Pennsylvania. . . ."

William's father-in-law, Dr. William Stockton, was longtime rector of St. Peter's Episcopal Church in Phoenixville, in which church he and Dorothy were married. After her husband's death, Dorothy spent much time travelling in Europe. She finally settled in West Chester. She was an active member of the Church of the Holy Trinity and of the Emergency Aid. In her early life, Dorothy had attended St. Mary's Hall, and Episcopal School for young women in Burlington, N.J.

4967. Penelope Hoopes was born in West Chester on 6 Mar 1900. She was married in Pittsburgh to Frederick Grossman Filler, whom she divorced in Pittsburgh on 17 Jan 1928. She then married 2) at Pittsburgh on 1 Mar 1928, Bennett Rodgers of Passagrille, Fla. He was born at Pittsburgh on 24 Feb 1901, the son of W. B. and Ada M. (McVay) Rogers. Bennett and Penelope had three sons.

2817. THOMAS MAURICE HOOPES, son of Thomas James and Amanda (Russell) Hoopes, was born 16 Oct 1870 in West Chester, Chester Co., Pa., and died in Glens Falls, N.Y. on 15 Feb 1949. He married 22 Oct 1901 in Glens Falls, MARY ELIZA PRUYN, daughter of Samuel Pruyn. We don't know when or where she was born but she died 16 Oct 1951.

Maurice was educated in private schools in West Chester and Philadelphia, as well as at Cornell University. For many years he worked as an electrical engineer for various railway companies.

In 1904, he moved to Glens Falls, N.Y., where he became vice president and a director of Finch, Pruyn and Co., Inc. and in 1909 became its president when his father-in-law retired. This firm was founded as a partnership in 1865 for the purpose of manufacturing lumber. Maurice's father-in-law was one of these partners.

SIXTH GENERATION

Operations were begun with a sawmill on the Hudson River at Glens Falls and timberlands in the Adirondack Mountains were purchased, and logs cut and floated to the mill. By 1904, the partners owned over 100,000 acres of Adirondack lands and an enlarged sawmill at Glens Falls and distributed lumber in quantity by canal boat and rail to New York City and other eastern markets. Incidental to the main business were the local sale of grain and fuel and the manufacture and sale of woodburnt lime. In the year that Maurice joined the firm, a corporation succeeded the partnership. This corporation was one of the first to employ trained foresters and observe forestry principles in operating its timberlands which doubled under Maurice's presidency.

Maurice was also interested in a number of other business enterprises. He was elected a director of the First National Bank of Glens Falls and later became its president. He was also a director of the Glens Falls Insurance Co., Glens Falls Hotel Corp., Commerce Insurance Co., and the Glens Falls Indemnity Co.

For twelve years between 1912 and 1924, he served as president of the Glens Falls Hospital Corp. and he was a member of the Glens Falls Community Chest. He belonged to the American Society of Mechanical Engineers, the Glens Falls Country and Lake George Clubs. He was a Presbyterian in religion, a Republican in politics. His chief recreation was golf and he enjoyed music.

2818. ARTHUR J. HOOPES, son of Thomas and Amanda (Russell) Hoopes, was bom 10 Oct 1872 in West Chester and died there in the Huffman Nursing Home where he had been a guest for six years on 22 Jul 1962. He was married on 17 Jul 1902 to CHRISTINE OTTILIE LIPPERT, daughter of Moritz George and Ottilie A. (Koerper) Lippert. Christine was born 20 Oct 1872 in Beverly, N.J., and died 5 Feb 1953 in West Chester. The wedding, at which W'. L. Mudge, pastor of the Phoenixville Presbyterian Church, officiated, took place in the home of the bride's parents on South Main Street in Phoenixville. Arthur Hoopes was first associated with the United Telephone Co. in West Chester as manager. Later he was employed in Lukens Steel Co. mines in West Virginia. For many years thereafter he was Secretary and Treasurer of the Coatesville Trust Company.

In 1917, Arthur was asked to resign his position with Coatesville Trust Company because of his views on the United States' entrance into World War I. When the Liberty Loan Bond issue called for aid from all the banking institutions of the nation, he refused to take any part in the campaign to sell bonds and even refused to allow advertisements in the windows of the Trust Co. calling attention to the bond issue. When asked for a reason for his stand, Hoopes replied: "Go to those who are in favor of the war, for I am not!" Arthur's resignation caused quite a furor in Coatesville, and a reporter was given the following statement by telephone the following day:

"Yes, it is true my resignation was asked for yesterday by the Directors of the Trust Company, and as there was nothing else to do, I immediately did as they requested. I am not pro-German in any sense, but I come from a family whose religious training is distinctly against war and I still hold to those principles which the Society of Friends adhere to. I admit that I have spoken of my feelings to several and it was always in defense of my religious views. . . . I am not pro-German, but merely following my religious beliefs, which I feel I am entitled to hold."

The fact that Arthur's father-in-law along with his brother had come from Germany in their youth may well have contributed fuel to the community's discrimination of Arthur because of his religious beliefs. So high was public sentiment running against him that he was advised by Mayor A. H. Swing to leave town until the matter had blown over a bit. Whether or not he did is not recorded, but we do know that apparently no one did him any bodily harm since he lived to the advanced age of 89.

Christine, Arthur's wife, was a contemporary and close friend of Elida Whitaker Hiestand and was, with her, responsible for the first golf course in Phoenixville, consisting of a few acres of ungraded meadow with tin cans for holes. She was a member of the West Chester Library Board, the West Chester Bird Club and attended Friends' Meetings.

Christine and Arthur celebrated their Golden Wedding Anniversary the year before Christine died. They had no children.

About 1905, Mabel married a man whose surname was Glover. They had a son, Harry, in 1910. When this couple divorced, Harry went to Okla. with his father and was never heard from again. NFI.

3060. ELLIS HOOPES, son of Ellis and Grace (Foulke) Hoopes, Jr., was born 6 Apr 1843 in Fulton Co., 111. and died there in Vermont on 22 Nov 1913. Both he and his wife are buried in the Vermont Cemetery. He married 23 Feb 1868, SARAH ELIZABETH MENDENHALL, daughter of Isaac and Hannah J. (?) Mendenhall, born 8 Mar 1853 in Morgan Co., Ohio and died in Galesburg, Knox Co., 111. at the home of her niece, Mrs. Eva Bridgewater, on 21 May 1930. Sarah was one of eight children; two brothers survived her.

According to the Adjutant General's report viewed in Springfield, 111., Ellis III was rejected for Civil War Service.

5369. Fred L. Hoopes was born 22 Dec 1872 in Vermont, Fulton Co., 111. and died there 2 Dec 1900, unmarried. Fred's name was actually Bogue, and the 1880 census states that Ellis and Sarah took him to raise. Whether or not he was legally adopted, we have been unable to ascertain. His tombstone indicates Fred was born in 1872; the 1880 census says 1877. He is buried in Vermont with his foster parents.

3062. JOHN A. HOOPES (the initial A. was merely an initial, it didn't stand for a name), son of Ellis and Grace (Foulke) Hoopes, Jr., was born 20 Oct 1849 near Ipava in the Pleasantville Neighborhood, Fulton Co., 111., and died on his farm near Ipava on 18 Dec 1932. Both he and his wife are buried in the "New" Ipava Cemetery. He married 12 Oct 1871 in Canton, Fulton Co., 111., JOSEPHINE MARY KNOCK, daughter of Daniel and Phebe (Easley) Knock, who was born 22 Apr 1853 in Farmer Twp., three miles northeast of Ipava and died on their home farm there on 16 Jan 1933.

When the Civil War came along and his older brothers enlisted, John enlisted on 26 Jan 1864 in Co. G, 50th 111. Infantry, even though he was only 14 years of age. Family tradition has passed down an interesting tale about John's Civil War Service. When John went to enlist, the recruiter asked him if he was over 18. John truthfully replied in the negative. Possibly the sergeant hadn't enlisted his quota for the day because, seeing that John really wanted to enlist and was a sturdy lad, he jotted down 18 on a slip of paper. He then had the boy remove his boots and when he put them on again the sergeant remarked, "Now, you're over 18."

Regardless of the veracity of the tale, John A. Hoopes joined the regiment in Lynnville, Tenn. the following March. He was with Sherman during his famous March to the Sea and eventually took part in the Grand Review in Washington, D.C. The 50th was mustered out of service on 13 Jul 1865.

Apparently still restless, John left home the following year and went to Wisconsin where one of his sisters was living. In the fall of 1867, he re-enlisted on 25 Sep and became a member of Lt. Battalion B, 4th U.S. Artillery. Stationed at Leavenworth, Ks., he soon began a 3-year service on the frontier of Kansas, Colorado, Nebraska and New Mexico or the "Indian Country," as it was called. After his discharge at Ft. Riley, Ks., on 25 Sep 1870, John A. Hoopes returned home to Fulton Co., Ill., where he went into the wagon and carriage business with his brother, Silas.

John and Josie were married in the Union Hotel in Canton, Ill. by Justice of the Peace, P.M. Stearns. The bride's parents and her sister, Edith, were the witnesses. They had gone to Canton by horsecar to attend the county fair. Josie's brother, Jasper Knock, had introduced the two young people.

John and his bride began their married life in Vermont, Ill. and about a year later moved to the Knock homestead where they farmed for three years. Then they spent a year in Lee Twp. near Prairie City before moving to a farm northeast of Ipava near Elrod where they lived for eight years. Next they moved to Ipava where John ran the H. H. Orendorf Hardware Store for a year after which he went to Independence, Ks. to work as a carpenter. At his wife's request, they moved back to Ipava and John operated a grain mill.

Both John's and Josie's antecedents were early settlers of the community. Josie's uncle, John Easley, owned the farm from which the village of Ipava was plotted. She was the youngest of 13 children; John was the tenth of 13.

Few men contributed more practical encouragement to grain and general produce raisers in Fulton Co. than John A. Hoopes, whose milling and elevator business was one of the chief commercial factors in Ipava and vicinity from 1888 for more than 20 years. In 1887 he purchased 40 acres of land at $100 per acre and so improved the land that he refused an offer of $250 per acre for it some 15 or 20 years later. The equipment that he had on his farm would have been sufficient for the conduct of a farm 10 times its actual size.

In 1888, he began the purchase of grain and general central western products and subsequently erected a mill which manufactured all kinds of grain foods with the exception of flour. The elevator had a capacity of 10,000 barrels.

Some of the most vivid remembrances of his grandchildren are of their grandfather's progressive nature. John A. had to be first with the newest. He had the first radio, one of the first automobiles and he even had his own electric light plant on his farm.

A family reunion every 5 years was almost a command performance and lasted for one or two weeks, bringing his children and their families from as far away as California and Nebraska as well as from all over Illinois.

According to his grandsons, John A. loved to travel, too. After he retired he went to Yellowstone Park, to Nebraska, and he made a sentimental journey to the battlefields of the Revolutionary War and the Civil War taking his son and one grandson with him.

John A. Hoopes was especially active in the cause of temperance and worked diligently for the destruction of the liquor traffic. He was a member of State League, an honorary member of the WCTU, and a member of the National Anti-Cigarette League which had as its object the abolition of tobacco in any form for minors.

John and his wife were converted at the Elrod schoolhouse in Feb 1879 and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church. Josie later transferred their membership to the Free Methodist Church of Ipava and the couple attended this church until their deaths. They lived together happily for more than 62 years and their deaths occurred with 28 days of one another. Josie never seemed to grasp the fact that her husband had "gone on ahead."

From an account in a county history we learn the following:

"The early influences of Henry Clay Hoopes tended to an appreciation of agriculture as a means of livelihood, and as a boy he was trained to every demand of this important occupation. He had average education opportunities, confined principally to the winter terms of school and remained under the paternal roof until after his marriage. . . ."

"In 1880, Henry Clay Hoopes purchased 80 acres of land . . . 30 of which were under cultivation, and the balance he cleared of timber and undergrowth, in time adding 30 acres to the original investment. That he has been one of the busy men of the community is apparent from the many changes which he has wrought upon his farm, and the excellent equipment which lightens labor and contributes to economic results. Twenty-two years upon the same property have witnessed a realization of his most practical ambitions, and have placed him among the scientific and progressive landmen of the township. The telephone and rural delivery are but two of the advantages which his energy has helped to introduce, and the splendid rural thoroughfares and well-kept fences speak volumes for the public spiritness of himself and his fellow agriculturists. . . ."

Politically, he was a member of the Modern Woodmen of America and he and his wife were active members of the Christian Church.

From one source we learn that William Haines Hoopes moved to Maryland with his parents at age seventeen; the other source says seven. His obituary in AMERICAN JOURNAL OF DENTAL SCIENCE reports that he "entered the office of Drs. Townsend and Chandler, graduated from Baltimore College of Dental Surgery in 1856 and immediately began his practice in Baltimore. Dr. Hoopes was a very skillful dentist, and, especially in the practice of dental prosthesis, acquired a well merited reputation. The successful construction of a combined artificial nose, lip and obturator by Dr. Hoopes in 1860, in a case where there was a terrible destruction of the bones and soft parts of the face and which was fully described in the AMERICAN JOURNAL OF DENTAL SCIENCE of the same year, was regarded as a very skillfull operation of nasal and maxillary prosthesis, and was very widely commented upon." William Haines was a trustee of the Maryland Academy of Science and was also interested in several other societies.

Josiah Hoopes was a botanist of wide reputation who became an authority on evergreen trees. There was one strain named after him. In 1853 he built a small greenhouse on his father's property, and in time filled it with the flora of this and foreign countries. The enterprise was a success from the beginning and in the early 1900's, the firm of Hoopes Bros, and Thomas had 300 acres of land which was recognized as the largest nursery firm in the United States.

Josiah travelled extensively throughout the United States and Europe in search of scarce and rare plants. He was very much interested in horticultural subjects for more than 20 years prior to his death and had been a special contributor to the New York TRIBUNE, was Associate Editor of THE HORTICULTURIST, contributor to GARDENERS' MONTHLY, MECHAN'S MONTHLY and many other publications.

He was one of the founders and for several years president of the State Horticultural Association of Pa.; vice president of the American Pomological Society; member of the Academy of Natural Sciences in Philadelphia; honorary member of the Mass. #### SIXTH GENERATION of George and Sidney (Maxton) Hoffman. She was born 4 Mar 1843 in Chester Co., Pa. and died 26 Aug 1927 in West Chester where she is buried in the Rosedale Ave. FBG with Benjamin.

Before Benjamin Tevis' funeral could be held, a special meeting of the West Chester Board of Health had to be conducted. Although Benjamin succumbed to Bright's Disease of long standing, his son had a case of scarlet fever at the time of his death. Rather than set a precedent by having a public funeral from the home, his widow wanted to have the funeral from High St. Friends' Meeting. This, too, however was in conflict with long established rules. Consequently, the funeral was held from the home of Dr. H. C. Wood.

According to his obituary in the West Chester LOCAL NEWS, Benjamin Tevis entered a store in Philadelphia at an early age to learn the business of selling "gentlemen's furnishing goods", and he followed this vocation for the rest of his working days.

In 1860 he left Philadelphia and opened a business on Church St. between Market and Gay which he owned for eight years despite the fact that during the Civil War he served in Co. F. of the 19th Pa. Volunteers. In 1868, he moved to the corner of Gay and Church where he stayed until his death.

Avidly interested in politics, Benjamin Tevis was invariably a delegate from the West Ward to the Republican conventions. During the years 1885-1888 he served as Registrar of Wills for Chester County.

In his younger days, he was especially fond of sports and was a baseball player of no mean ability. Before his marriage, he belonged to the Bachelor's Club in Philadelphia from which organization he was "played out" at the time of his marriage. He was also a member of West Chester Fire Co. and a consistent attendant at High Street Friends' Meeting.

3194. PASSMORE WILLIAMSON HOOPES, son of Lewis Pierce and Mary James (Hickman) Hoopes, was born 19 Apr 1840 in West Goshen, Chester Co., Pa., and died 5 Sep 1915 in West Chester. He is buried in Rosedale Friends' Burial Ground. He married 11 Feb 1869 in Bethlehem, Pa., ANNA LANDIS JEFFERIS, daughter of Joseph and Rebecca Jane (Daniel) Jefferis, born 11 Jul 1850 in Cochranville, Pa. She died after a lingering illness on 8 Apr 1913 at her home on Church St. in West Chester and is buried at her husband's side.

Passmore was a member of the Brandywine Guards during the Civil War and was taken prisoner in the Spring of 1863. He was confined in Richmond for a time and then removed to the dreaded and horrible Andersonville, Ga. prison pen. While there he saw men die by the hundreds from starvation. One day there was to be an exchange of 1,000 Union soldiers and Passmore took his place with the men that were ordered out. The surgeon passed along the line but when he came to Passmore, he ordered him back to his quarters, remarking that he was not sick enough to be exchanged. He went back to the pen and there, after realizing that it might well be his last opportunity of reaching home alive, he decided to try again. Putting on his haversack he started out. He was halted by the guards and questioned as to where he was going. He replied that he had returned to his quarters for his haversack which he had forgotten and was going with the crowd to be exchanged. He was then permitted to pass and he arrived back in his home town in December of 1864. Passmore reported that their only fare at Andersonville had been a little corn meal and a few beans. He was within a few days of finishing his enlistment when he went into the Battle of Spotsylvania Court House and had the misfortune of being captured. Passmore was a well known member of the GAR and the Park Superintendent in Chester County. Passmore and Anna were members of Westminster Presbyterian Church. They had been married for forty-four years when Anna died.

He married 18 Oct 1866 in Philadelphia by Friends' Ceremony in the presence of the mayor, SARAH C. GERBER, daughter of Peter and Catherine G. (Lind) Gerber. She was born 29 Jul 1840 in Lancaster, Lancaster Co., Pa. and died 25 Aug 1926 in Albany, Linn Co., Ore. at the home of her daughter.

Pierce Hoopes was commissioned Clerk of the Courts of Oyer and Terminer in Chester Co. on 28 Dec 1878. He moved to Livingston, Mont, in 1884 where he held a responsible position with the Northern Pacific Railroad.

Pierce, too, served in the Union Army during the Civil War and was taken prisoner and held in Andersonville Prison. He made his escape through the death of another soldier who was near him in the pen. The name of this man was read one evening for exchange but during the night he died. In the morning, Pierce adopted his name and was taken out and afterward exchanged under that name. It was many months before he recovered from the effects of prison life.

She was born about 1816 in Maryland and died 11 Feb 1865 in Columbiana Co., Ohio.

Five brothers of Thomas William Hoopes, along with his parents, joined with Joseph Smith, the Mormon prophet and moved west. After Smith's death in Nauvoo, Ill. they continued on with Brigham Young, who had taken over the leadership of the Mormon group. However, Thomas William stayed in or near Salem, Ohio where he lived with his wife and family of small children on a forty-acre farm that he had cleared of timber. Thomas had left Pennsylvania with his parents when he was about fifteen to work in an Ohio coal mine, which caused him to be stooped with a hump back. It was not until his later years, after some of his children had gone to Nebraska, that he moved there.

3229. JONATHAN HOOPES, JR., son of Jonathan and Rebecca (Watts) Hoopes, was born 22 Feb 1835 in Cleveland, Cuyahoga Co., Ohio and died 6 Sep 1919 in Thatcher, Graham Co., Ariz. He married 1) 28 Jul 1856, in Prove, Utah Co., Utah, MARY ANN BALDWIN, daughter of Caleb Clark and Ann Eliza (Robinson) Baldwin. She was born 14 Aug 1839 in Hamburg, Calhoun Co., 111. and died 3 Jun 1924 in Thatcher where she is buried. Mary Ann Baldwin's grandfather, Caleb Baldwin, who was born 2 September 1791, at Nobletown, Orange Co., New York, married Nancy Kingsbury in 1816, and died 11 June 1849 in Salt Lake City, Utah, experienced some of the early persecutions against the members of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints (Mormon). He served as an ensign in the War of 1812 and was one of the first Elders of the Church. The following is reported in the Latter-day Saint Biographical Encyclopedia about Mary Ann's grandfather, Caleb Baldwin:

Becoming a convert to "Mormonism" he was baptized Nov. 14, 1830, by Parley P. Pratt. Soon afterwards he gathered with the early saints to Jackson county, Mo., and took part in the so-called battle on the Big Blue. In 1833 he was driven out of Jackson county with the rest of the saints, and subsequently settled in Caldwell county, Mo. In the fall of 1838 he was arrested on a trumped up charge and shared a prison cell with the Prophet Joseph Smith and others at Liberty, Clay co., Mo., during the winter of 1838-39. When the prisoners were detected in trying to make their escape by cutting a hole through the wall of the gaol, and Judge Tillery was about to have them ironed and chained to the floor of their cells, Bro. Baldwin said to the judge: "Judge Tillery! If you put these chains on me, I will kill you, so help me God." The judge left without putting on the chains.<sup>1</sup>

On 11 November 1838, fifty-three men were brought before Austin A. King, at Richmond (Mo.) for trial, charged with the several crimes of high treason against the state, murder, burglary, arson, robbery and larceny. By 28 November 1838, all of the prisoners except the Prophet

Joseph Smith, Hyrum Smith, Caleb Baldwin, Lyman Wight, Sidney Rigdon and Alexander McRae had been released or admitted to bail, but those six were sent to Liberty Jail to stand trial for treason and murder.<sup>2</sup> The arrests of 11 November 1838, of the Prophet Joseph Smith, Caleb Baldwin and the others followed only two weeks after Missouri Governor Lilburn W. Boggs issued his infamous Exterminating Order<sup>3</sup> against the Mormons on 27 October 1838.<sup>4</sup>

It was within the walls of Liberty Jail that the Prophet Joseph Smith, Caleb Baldwin and the others endured some of the most cruel sufferings that could be imagined.<sup>5</sup> It was reflecting upon these conditions which wrung from Joseph Smith the soul-cry with which one of his revelations opens:

O God, where art thou? And where is the pavilion that covereth thy hiding place?<sup>6</sup>

To which the Lord made answer:

My son, peace be unto thy soul; thine adversity and thine afflictions shall be but a small moment.<sup>7</sup> . . . The ends of the earth shall inquire after thy name.<sup>8</sup>

Within those gloomy prison walls the important revelations contained in the 121st, 122nd and 123rd sections of the Doctrine and Covenants were received by Joseph Smith.

The incarceration of these men ended in April 1839 after a very difficult ordeal. Mary Ann (Baldwin) Hoopes is said to have inherited her grandfather's strength, and was also known to be a very beautiful, sophisticated, educated and stately woman.

Jonathan Hoopes, Jr. was a Mormon and he married 2) (plurally) ARTHUSA ELMER, daughter of Ira Bartlett and Sarah Salena (Leicht) Elmer, born 29 Feb 1872 in St. George, Washington Co., Utah and died 24 Aug 1935 in Thatcher, Arizona. This second marriage took place in St. George on 7 Nov 1888.

<sup>3</sup> On 25 June 1976, an Executive Order signed by Missouri Governor Christopher S. Bond rescinded the 1838 Exterminating Order of Governor Boggs. David Craig Hoopes, a great-grandson of Jonathan Hoopes, Jr. and Mary Ann Baldwin Hoopes (and a third great-grandson of Caleb Baldwin), served at The White House as special assistant to the president of the United States and participated in the discussions with Governor Bond and his staff which led up to Governor Bond's 1976 rescinding of the 1838 Exterminating Order by Governor Boggs.

Jonathan Hoopes, Jr. settled in Provo, Utah, then moved to the Bear Lake Region in Idaho. In The White Indian Boy: The Story of Uncle Nick Among the Shoshones, a pioneer story is recorded about Jonathan Hoopes, Jr.'s participation in a posse to track down cattle rustlers and horse thieves after a fatal raid was made upon Montpelier, Idaho, when a store was robbed and a clerk was shot dead. General Charles G. Rich called upon the leaders of the towns to send two of the best men from each settlement to pursue and punish the outlaws.<sup>9</sup> The story of the posse's expedition and Jonathan Hoopes, Jr.'s activities appears below as written by E. N. Wilson, his companion:

We struck across the mountains east of Bear Lake, following the trail of the robbers to their rendezvous on the Big Piney, a tributary of the Green River. We knew that they had hidden themselves in this country, for two of the men with us, whose stock had been stolen, had followed the robbers to their den to recover their property. Finding the outlaws in such force, they didn't dare to claim their stolen stock but returned to Bear Lake for help.

These men led us to the place where they had come upon the outlaws; but the outlaws had evidently feared pursuit and moved camp. To hide their tracks they had driven their wagons up the creek right in the water for over a mile. Then they had left the creek and driven up a little ravine and over a ridge. As we rode up this ravine, to the top of the ridge, the two men who were in the lead sighted the tepees of the robbers in the hollow below. They dodged back to keep out of sight, and we all rode down into the thick willows on the Big Piney, hiding our horses and ourselves among them. The two men that had sighted the outlaw camp then slipped up the hill again on foot, secreted themselves in the sagebrush at the top of the ridge, and watched the rest of the afternoon to see whether the outlaws had mistrusted anything; but they showed no sign of having seen us. At dark they came and reported.

We held council then to decide what plan to pursue to capture the outlaws. As the robbers outnumbered us, more than two to one, and were well armed, it was serious business. Our sheriff weakened when the test came; he said he couldn't do it, and turned his papers over to Joseph Rich, as brave a man as ever went on such a trip. There were others who felt pretty shaky and wanted to turn back, but Mr. Rich said we had been picked as the best men in Bear Lake and he didn't feel like going back without making an attempt to capture the thieving band. One man said he was ready to go cut the throats of the whole bunch of robbers if the captain said so, but Mr. Rich said, "No; we did not come out to shed blood. We want to take thehi alive and give them a fair trial."

Every man was given a chance to say how he felt. Most of us wanted to make the attempt to capture the outlaws, and the majority ruled.

How to do it was the next problem. It would have been folly for so few of us to make an open attack on so many well-armed men. The only way we could take them was by surprise, when they were asleep. This plan agreed upon, Mr. Rich proposed that we go down the hill with our horses and pack animals, get in line at the bottom, then, just at the peep of day, charge upon their camp, jump from our horses, run into their tents and grab their guns. When we had decided on this plan of action, Mr. Rich said that this probably meant a fight. If it did we should let them fire first. Should they kill one of us, we must not run; for if we did so they would kill us all. We should give them the best we had. With our double-barreled shotguns loaded with buckshot, we would make things pretty hot for them if they showed fight.

In order that we might know exactly the situation, and have our tents picked out beforehand, so as not to get in a mix-up, two volunteers were called for to go down through their camp in the night and get the lay of things. Jonathan Hoopes [Jr.] and I offered to go. Their tepees were pitched on both sides of a little stream, which was deep enough for us to keep out of sight by stooping a little. Down this stream we stole our way, wading with the current so as not to make any noise, till we got right among the tepees. The biggest one was pitched on the brink of the stream. We could hear some of the men inside of it snoring away lustily. Hoopes reached his hand up and found a blanket on which were some service berries spread out to dry. Being hungry, we helped ourselves, filling our pockets with them. After taking in the situation fully, we slipped back to our boys.

There were seven tents in all, and fourteen of us—two to each tent. Hoopes and I were to take the largest, the other boys were assigned theirs. We waited for day to break; just as it did, the word was given; we popped spurs to our horses and away we went. A few seconds and we had leaped from them, rushed into the tents and begun to grab the guns from the robbers, who, wakened so rudely, stared stupidly, while we gathered in their weapons. By the time Hoopes was through passing them out to me, I had my arms loaded with rifles and revolvers. Mr. Rich told me to carry them up the hill a piece and stack them. "Shoot the first man who makes a move to touch them," was his order. When I looked around, there sat three of our men on their horses; they hadn't done their duty, so some of the tents were yet untouched. I told Hoopes, and he jumped over the creek to one of them. I was just gathering up some weapons I had dropped when a big half-breed made a jump at me, grabbed my shotgun and we had a lively tussle for a few minutes. He might have got the better of me, for he was a good deal bigger than I, but Hoopes jumped to the rescue and cracked him on the head with his revolver so hard that it knocked him senseless for some time.

When the outlaws rallied themselves enough to sense what had happened, they broke out of their tents in double-quick time, swearing and cursing and demanding what we wanted.

Captain Rich told them to keep quiet, that they were all under arrest, that we had the advantage, but we would not harm them if they behaved themselves. Seeing that it was useless to resist, they settled down.

The captain then ordered them to kill a calf for us, as we had not had anything to eat since noon the day before. They obeyed orders and we soon had a good breakfast. Later in the day part of our men went out and searched their herds. A good many cattle and horses belonging to our men were found among them.

The leaders of the outlaws were not in this band. They were off making another raid somewhere. One of the band of outlaws was deaf and dumb. Captain Rich took this fellow aside and carried on a conversation with him by writing. From the man he learned that the rest of the band were expected in that night, but as they didn't come, we concluded that they had seen us and were lying off in the hills waiting a chance to ambush us and rescue their comrades. We were too sharp to give them the chance to do that. For three days we waited, guarding our prisoners. Then, as we thought it too risky to try to take so large a band of desperate men through the rough timbered country we must pass to get home, we took forty head of their horses as bond for their appearance at court in thirty days, and let the prisoners go.

When we were ready to set out, we carried their guns to the top of a hill, and Hoopes and I were left to guard the weapons till we were sure our men were far enough away to be safe; then we left the weapons and struck out for home after them.

As no one ever came to redeem the horses, they were sold at auction. This nest of outlaws was broken up for good the following year. Since then that part of the country has had no serious trouble with horse thieves and robbers.<sup>10</sup>

Jonathan Hoopes, Jr. eventually left the Bear Lake Region of Idaho and moved back to Utah and then to the area around Lyman in extreme southwestern Wyoming. He was involved in freighting in Idaho, Montana and Wyoming.

There is a tradition in the family that while living in Wyoming, he was on a freighting trip to Montana, and while there won a substantial sum of money gambling with two men. As he left the game, the two men followed him to attack him and recover the money they had lost. A gun-fight ensued in which the two men were killed. As there were no witnesses to the gunfight, Jonathan returned to Wyoming, gathered up his family and moved to Safford, Arizona, where he changed his name to

Eventually a U.S. Marshal found him there and determined to his satisfaction that the two killings were committed in self-defense. Jonathan then changed his name back to Hoopes when he was satisfied that the U.S. Marshal no longer "wanted" him. Jerry O. Hoopes of Gilbert,

He is buried in Lower Tuscarara Cemetery in Academia, Pa. He married 4 Jan 1848 in Lewistown, Pa., MARY JANE COOPER, daughter of William and Abigail (Okeson) Cooper, born 5 Dec 1824 in Pa. and died 28 Mar 1878 in Walnut, Juniata Co., Pa. William was a blacksmith and he and Mary Jane settled in Lewistown in Mifflin Co. when they were first married. They stayed there until sometime between 1852 and 1856 at which time they moved to Port Royal, Juniata Co. Here William built a house which he later sold to the Methodist Episcopal Church for a parsonage which purpose it still serves. In 1864, they moved to Patterson (or Mifflin as it is now called). In 1866 they moved again—this time to the village of Walnut. In Lewistown William and Mary Jane joined the Baptist Church and they remained members of this denomination until they moved to Walnut where there was no Baptist Church. They then affiliated with the Methodist Episcopal Church. Since there was no resident minister in Walnut, their home became the regular stopping place for ministers.

SIXTH GENERATION

After Mary Jane's death, William remained in Walnut and his daughter, Florence, took care of his home until her marriage in 1888. When Florence and her husband moved to McCoysville, William went along and he made his home with them until his death.

John Walker Hoopes was a butcher and died of an accident sustained in his own shop. His obituary gives a vivid picture of this accident:

"After intense suffering, J. Walker Hoopes, of New Garden, died yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock from the effects of the wound accidentally inflicted by himself in his butchering establishment on Monday. The exact details of the accident are still uncertain but Mr. Hoopes was in one end of the building and an assistant was at the other end of the shop, which was L shaped, when he said to the man that he had cut himself with the knife in the abdomen and would go to the house. Upon reaching home he fainted and was under the influence of anesthetics as soon as the physicians arrived." J. Walker had run a successful butchering trade for some 25 years and attended the Wilmington markets regularly in addition to running a fine farm. He was a consistent and useful member of the Society of Friends.

Volumes II and III of THE HOOPES FAMILY RECORD are dedicated to the loving memory of Dr. Thomas Temple Hoopes, without whose financial assistance and generous moral support these volumes might never have been completed.

INTRODUCTION

Since Volumes II and III of The Hoopes Family Record merely continue where Volume I printed in 1979 ended, we feel no introduction is necessary.

We have tried to include all information which reached us by the well publicized deadline of 1 July 1982. If your information is missing or is incomplete, we apologize but in a work such as this a deadline is absolutely essential.

Information which was missing or was incorrect in Vol. I has been included in the Addenda/Errata in the back of Vol. III.

Seventh Generation

3564. AZARIAH WILLIAMSON HOOPES, son of John Temple and Rebecca Hallowell (Stemple) Hoopes was born on 10 Feb 1833 in East Whiteland, PA. He married CLARA MARY FORD, daughter of William and Mary (Mangan) Ford, in a ceremony performed by Rev. Phillips Brooks at the Church of the Advent in Philadelphia on 30 Oct 1861. Clara Mary was born in Philadelphia on 20 Sep 1837 and died there on 1 Dec 1906. Azariah was a bookkeeper in Philadelphia, his residence being at 1605 Girard Ave., where he died on 5 Feb 1908 in his eighty-fourth year.

On New Year's Day 1976, wire services in newspapers throughout the country carried articles concerning a "time capsule" prepared by Azariah Williamson Hoopes in 1876 and on which he placed a "curse" for anyone opening it before 1 Jan 1976.

The box was passed to Azariah's son, Wilford Lawrence Hoopes, who in turn passed it on to his son, Dr. Thomas Temple Hoopes of St. Louis. Another grandson, Dr. Alban Hoopes of Oneonta, NY was present in St. Louis when the century-old "time capsule" was opened.

The simple pine box 16 x 16 inches was hand-made and was sealed with nails and two wax seals. This "curse" was printed on the outside:

If any dare this box invade
Ere five score years save one
By heaviest curse be on him laid
He ne'er shall have a son,
But in old age shall on the world be thrown,
Without a friend,
Unhonored and unknown.

The box contained memorabilia of the 1876 Centennial Exhibition in Philadelphia. There were brochures advertising sewing machines, Fairbanks scales, McCormick harvesters, yellowed newspspers marked in blue pencil, the high silk hat which Azariah undoubtedly wore to the celebration, a "Centennial baby doll" and several letters handwritten by Azariah and some of his family which gave an interesting picture of what was happening in 1876.

Azariah's letter is quite lengthy; but because it gives a good history of his own immediate family as well as the times in which he lived, it is reproduced here:

"1605 Girard Avenue
City of Philadelphia
November 15, 1876

THE HOOPES FAMILY RECORD

"This Centennial year of our country being one of extraordinary interest to the entire community, but more especially to families whose personal history extends back to the first settlement of Pennsylvania, it has occurred to me that I might possibly, by writing a short article, and with the cooperation of my family, furnish some amusement, at least, to those who are to come after me, provided some prying hand does not interfere with my project after I am no longer here to keep it safe.

"I was born 10 Feb 1833 and am now consequently in the 44th year of my age. My father was John T. Hoopes of Chester County, Penn. born 17 Oct 1810, died in Philadelphia March 28, 1864. He removed from East Whiteland, Chester Co., to Philadelphia, March 28, 1848 for the purpose of giving me the advantage of a business training and to this end I was apprenticed to William H. Brown & Co., Wholesale Dry Goods merchants, Market St.—above 3rd St. on the site of Dr. Franklin's old residence. I remained in the employ of this firm until 1857 when by reason of approaching financial trouble I left them and took a situation as a Cashier for the House of Smith Murphy & Co., also wholesale dry goods merchants, north side of Market St. below 3rd Ave. Both these firms failed during the Panic of the year 1857 but I continued with Smith Murphy & Co. through their troubles until they started in business again but the troubles preceding the War of the Rebellion caused them a second failure and after assisting them to arrange their affairs and finding it impossible to continue in business I retired from their employment and took a situation as Chief Bookkeeper for the large manufacturing chemical establishment of Powers & Weyhtman, 9 & Parrish St. where I have continued up to the present hour and I can say without vanity that although I have not been able to distinguish myself in business I have from a boy never lost a day's pay and perhaps have a larger salary than any other person in the City of Philadelphia, two or three Railroad presidents and a like number of bank presidents and other public characters alone excepted.

"I have always been accustomed to live with liberality and whilst I shall not, I presume, accumulate a large estate, no doubt I shall be able to leave my family in comparative comfort and thus my prayer, 'give me neither poverty nor riches,' will be answered. It will be observed that I was in my sixteenth year when my father removed to Philadelphia. My mother was Rebecca Stemple, daughter of John Stemple, a Welsh Friend or Quaker but of one of the old families of Pennsylvania. He died in East Goshen, Chester County in 1812 and is buried in the Goshen Friends Burying Ground. I have one sister, Mrs. Sarah J. Hippie, wife of Elijah G. Hippie, late of E. Goshen, Chester Co., but now of Willistown, they residing on a farm recently purchased by me to be resold to them whenever it suits them to buy. At present, they pay me $500 per annum for rent for the farm containing 95 1/2 acres of land. My sister has two children only, Laura E. and Clara H., the latter named after my wife, aged respectively 8 and 5 years. My sister has lost no children. She was born July 2, 1836.

"The Hoopes family is one of the oldest in the state—three brothers, English Friends or Quakers having settled in Chester Co. before 1700 purchasing a large tract of land in the township of East Goshen, a portion of which is now owned by my uncle, George Hoopes, my father's broker who purchased the property of the Executor of George Garrett who was a son of Sarah Hoopes Garrett— many years deceased and who inherited it from her father, George Hoopes (I think) who was my greatgrandfather."

[Editor's Note—The information in the foregoing paragraph is not strictly accurate but we include it as a part of Azariah's account as he wrote it.]

"My grandfather was Paschal Hoopes who died some years before my birth. My grandmother was Sarah Temple Hoopes who died some 20 years ago. She came of an old English Family who settled in Pennsylvania in Colonial times. How well I remember my dear old grandmother, a most kind, genial woman and how gratifying to me was her periodic visit to our house. She never came without some little token of her affection and whether my life be long or short I shall never forget her cheerful face and sympathizing manners. My Grandfather left a family of 6 children, John (my father), George Alban (who died some 20 years ago), Paschall, Jane (who intermarried with William Robbins of Blockley) and Elizabeth who intermarried with Charles Curtis of Providence, Delaware Co., Penna. and who died some years ago. George resides at present in West Chester, Paschall is practising medicine in the neighborhood of Darby near Phila. and Jane who is now a widow resides alternately with her three daughters, Sarah E. Riley of Rosborough, Mary M. Worrall, Providence, Delaware Co. and Emma Grubb, also of Delaware Co. I have wandered from the old paths in which my Quaker ancestors walked and have for some years been connected with the Episcopal Church although I greatly fear a most unworthy member for I am utterly unable to divest myself of worldly living and my only hope is that my Heavenly Father having placed me here in the world does not expect from me what I am prevented by nature from doing. I shall ever pray to my Father in Heaven to bring me nearer to His throne and to Jesus, my Saviour, to make intercession for me and to give me ever his holy spirit that I may be inclined to do that which is lawful and right. In 1860 I became engaged to Clara M. Ford, daughter of William and Mary Ford and the following year we were married. She was born September 20, 1836 in Philadelphia. Her father was originally from Salem Co., N.J. although he has resided in Philadelphia for many years. Her mother was born in England but came to Phila. as a child. Both her Father and Mother's family are very respectable well-to-do people. Many of them being prominent in business and in law. She has been a faithful and loving wife to me these many years and we have been blessed in our domestic life in many ways. We have been spared the pains of severe illness; we have always had enough and to spare of this world's goods; we have a happy home and an interesting family of children. Bertha Evelyn, our eldest daughter, was born 4th January 1862, Wilford Lawrence, our eldest son, on the 23rd of Dec 1863. Mary Rebecca, February 9th, 1866, Mabel, November 27th, 1869, Florence, August 4th, 1871 and Alban Percy, May 7th, 1873. These 6 are all living and well at the present time. Howard Williamson was born Apr 4, 1865 and died 5 days afterward—a fine large and apparently healthy babe. Why he died will ever remain a mystery. Lilla Campbell was born 2nd Jul 1867 and died 13th July 1868 of congestion of the brain. She was a beautiful babe and pure enough to enter heaven in body as well as spirit. These make up our 8 children. Three are now attending school and are making ordinary progress. They are still too young to determine upon any particular pursuit in life. My daughters will, I hope, remain at home to relieve their mother, but in these days there is a strong movement in favor of female independence and many young women of respectable parentage go out into the world to seek their fortunes same as men turning their attention more especially to library, educational or artistic pursuits. I hope I may be able to keep my family a unit at least until my children severally marry. After the death of my father in 1864 my mother and sister resided with me, sister only leaving me on her marrying. Mother became deranged in mind and in 1868 I was obliged to place her in the Pennsylvania Hospital for the Insane where she died October 13th the same year. It will always be a source of the greatest pain to me that I sent my dear mother away from me for had I thought more over the matter I would have procured an attendant for her and then have kept her with me. At the time I thought I was acting for the best. The members of her family reside in both Montgomery and Chester Counties.

"I have now given briefly my family history. At the time I write, November 1876, Ulysses S. Grant is president of the United States and will close his second term of office March 4, 1877. At present the country is greatly excited over the presidential election which took place on the 7th instant. The vote is so close that up to the present hour it cannot be determined which party has elected their candidate. The States of the South which figured in the late Rebellion seem to be the main cause of the dispute. Party feeling runs very high owing to the fact that all negro slaves made free by the war are now full citizens and vote the same as the whites and it is alleged that those politicians who sympathize with the negro vote falsify the election returns so that it is impossible for any of their opponents to get justice. Moreover owing to riots and bloodshed the Governor has sent troops to various parts of the South causing widespread dissatisfaction so that it need not surprise one if serious political complications arise before it is determined who is to be the next president. The Candidates are: Democratic, Samuel J. Tilden of N.Y.; Thos. A. Hendricks of Indiana; Republican, Rutherford B. Hayes of Ohio; William A. Wheeler of N. Y. General John F. Hartrauft is now Governor of Pennsylvania. The late war developed a large class of political leaders who glory in military titles so that it has for a time been rather uncommon for a public officer to be without a distinctive prefix some even rejoicing in the title of 'Corporal.' The President was the successful General of the War, one of the present candidates was a general and I cannot pretend to say how many governors of States carry the title still. It is the old story only repeated that men rejoice in marks of distinction and are flattered by even attaching an Esquire to the superscription of a letter. We may however pardon such vanity in others lest we ourselves should be chargeable with weakness of character in other directions. True philosophers are rare. It may be when this paper is read and handled years hence the world will have so improved that even human passions will be within personal control and moral restraints no longer necessary. This I say however without hope that it will be verified for I find human nature to be much the same the world over and in every age but I cannot help but notice that now in my day a popular belief prevails far and wide that the present century is the one of all others in which the greatest achievements of mankind have been accomplished particularly in objects of a utilitarian character. The Centennial Exhibition which has just closed has helped to fix this feeling. Now whether this sentiment is a mere conceit or a reality can only be determined by actual investigation. That a great deal has been done during the Century is verified by the fact that this Country contains forty millions of people when as in 1776 it was perhaps less than four millions. Now to sustain such a body of people in the way people live in this country indicates an exceedingly high state of civilization. It is not my purpose however to write on these subjects but rather to give a brief statement of matters of every day life connected more particularly with the personality of myself and family. We have all attended the Centennial exhibition a good many times (including our baby, Percy) and have enjoyed it greatly. It has been justly regarded as the greatest of great exhibitions. The dimensions of the buildings alone are remarkable, the main building covering some 21 acres of ground—Machinery Hall covers more than 14 acres etc. There are about 100 separate buildings within the enclosure and quite an important town settlement has been built up within the last year in close proximity to the grounds. Whether this new quarter of the city will become permanent and prosper remains to be seen. It is generally thought it will. The present population of Philadelphia is over eight hundred thousand perhaps near 900,000 and it is growing wonderfully. When I was a boy say in 1848, Girard Avenue was nearly the Northern boundary of the built-up city but now it is compactly built from one to two miles further North. Within twenty years West Philadelphia has grown from a suburb to almost a City of itself and if improvements go on for the next twenty years in the same ratio, we may expect to find then a population of 250,000 people. From some cause the City does not grow rapidly Southwardly perhaps owing to the low ground. William S. Stokely is the present Mayor. The most prominent business men of the city are John Wannamaker, George W. Childs, George H. Stuart, Thomas H. Powers, William Weightman, John Welsh and his brothers, Samuel and William, David S. Brown, uncle to my old employer, Edward T. Steel, Cable Cope Etc. Prominent Lawyers Erik Price, Edward Hopper, Furman Sheppard, William Bulann, William A. Porter, Prominent clergymen, William Bacon Stevens, Protestant Episcopal Bishop of Penna., Archbishop John F. Wood, Roman Catholic, William R. Nicholson, Bishop of Reformed Episcopal Church—a new departure within 2 or 3 years past from the Episcopal Communion, P. S. Henson, Baptist, Charles Wadsworth, Presbyterian Independent, A. A. Willets, Dutch Reformed, Dr. Rudder, Episcopalian, etc. The clergyman having the greatest name in the country is perhaps Henry Ward Beecher, the pastor of Plymouth Church, Brooklyn, NY., an independent Presbyterian organization. He is a voluminous worker and quite an ordinary thinker and comes from a noted clerical and literary family. His sister, Harriet Beecher Stowe (wife of prof. Stowe) is the author of 'Uncle Tom's Cabin,' a powerful story based upon incidents in the slave life of the South and which is allowed to have been one of the insidious forces which helped to hasten the late war of the Rebellion by which slavery was abolished. Mr. Beecher has lately had a terrible scandal suit with one Theodore Tilton who has accused him of seducing his wife and of other adulteries but whether he is guilty will never be determined, the jury before whom the case was tried failing to agree. His congregation to a unit are loud in the declaration that the charge is false and wickedly malicious and assert that it was made with the view of what is termed 'black mailing' or to obtain hush money. All the parties, however, having been bosom friends before the matter became public created a doubt in the popular mind and quite as many people declare him guilty as innocent. The chief literary men of the day are Longfellow, Lowell, Whittier, Saxe. Mark Twain, the humorist, I. Bayard Taylor of my own county, the traveler poet and scholar, Bancroft the Historian, Bryant the Poet, John W. Fomez, publisher of the Press Newspaper, Etc. The Chief lights in the literary firmament of England are Alfred Tennyson (poet), Wilkie Collins, novelist, Benjamin Disraeli, recently raised to the peerage as Earl of Beaconsfield—a nobleman as someone remarked—without ancestry and without family. He is a Jew, quite a literary man and Prime Minister. William E. Gladstone, late Prime Minister; George Elliot, whose proper name is Mrs. Leigh, the novelist, etc.

"The only college of note in Philadelphia is the University of Penn. but in the State we have Dickinson College at Carlisle and LaFayette College at Easton, Lehigh University and perhaps one or two others. Yale, Harvard and Princeton are still in the institutions of national celebrity but there are now a number of new universities in different states that almost hold the same grade with these old schools.

"Compulsory education is quite a favorite theory now and it may be in a few years a part of the common law. Capital punishment is still the penalty for murder and treason, although in one or two States, experiments in the way of its abolition have been tried but without good results. The country consists of 38 states and 12 territories—the population of Pennsylvania is about 4 millions.

"Praying for the blessing of God upon my Country I consign this paper to my posterity trusting it may be interesting to them to know at least that such a person existed in this year of our Lord 1876 as their hopeful progenitor."

THE HOOPES FAMILY RECORD

3577. JOHN TEMPLE HOOPES II, son of George and Deborah G. (Alexander) Hoopes, was born 3 Apr 1858 in West Chester, PA and died 18 Jul 1940 in Venice, CA where he is buried in the county cemetery. He married 23 Feb 1882 in Philadelphia, PA, with the Rev. P. S. Henson, D. D. officiating, ANNA EMMA WOODWARD. Anna was the daughter of Maris Woodward of Mar-shallton, PA who was born in Oct 1861 and died probably before 1940 in Venice, CA.

J. Temple Hoopes' obituary, which appeared in a PA newspaper under dateline of 26 Jul 1940 reads as follows: "Fred Veil, West Biddle St., has a message from his brother, Dr. William Veit, at Venice, CA, near Hollywood, saying that J. Temple Hoopes is dead there after an illness of 10 days from heart trouble. Mr. Hoopes was about 85 years of age, and had been in the West about 5 years, making his home with his son-in-law, Dr. Veit, whose wife was formerly Miss Margaretta Hoopes. A son, Ernest Hoopes lives in Philadelphia.

"Haifa century ago J. Temple Hoopes was one of the best known men in West Chester, an active member of the Fame Fire Co. and the Westminister Presbyterian Church. When the Chester Co. Hospital was young, the Fame Fire Co. helped raise funds for the purchase of an ambulance which was quartered at the Fame engine house. This vehicle was driven by Mr. Hoopes and A. Martin Darlington, who responded to calls promptly and conveyed patients to the hospital for examination and treatment. Naturally they were much in the spotlight, being questioned constantly regarding the names of patients and the nature of their ailments. As time passed the hospital grew in size and ability, and the ambulance was taken over by the institution.

"Mr. Hoopes and his family moved to Philadelphia, and he later moved to the Golden State on the Pacific Coast."

Issue: (Born in West Chester, Chester, PA)

6082. Margaretta W. Hoopes married Dr. William Veit.

6083. Emma A. Hoopes was born 16 Oct 1887. On 9 Jan 1908, she married Charles W. Fritz. The ceremony took place in Philadelphia with the Rev. A. Stokes Watson officiating. Charles was born in Lancaster Co., PA on 22 Feb 1884 and Emma died before 1946. NFI.

6084. Ernest Tustin Hoopes was born 30 Sep 1895 and died 5 Apr 1946 at the U. of PA Hospital in Philadelphia. He married a woman whose given name was Anna who probably predeceased him as she was not named in his obituary. Ernest lived at 318 N. 52nd St., Philadelphia prior to his death. NFI.

3580. HELEN CRITTENDEN HOOPES, daughter of Paschall Joseph and Lydia E. (Eves) Hoopes, was born 15 Jan 1863 in W. Philadelphia, PA and died in Collingswood, NJ on 9 Dec 1938. (John) Hoopes, was born 17 Jul 1875 in Marlborough Village, PA and died 17 Oct 1967 at the Pocopson Home in Chester Co., PA and is buried in Green-mount Cemetery. He married on 2 Sep 1914 in Berwyn, PA, MARY EDNA (ANDERSON) TAYLOR, daughter of William and Catherine (Rossiter) Anderson. Mary Edna was a telephone operator at the time of the marriage. Howard and Mary Edna were subsequently divorced and she married 3) on 2 Jan 1920 at Clifton Heights, PA, Hugh Laughland Smith, born in Scotland in 1894. Howard and Mary Edna had no children of their own although a newspaper account in Nov 1914, some 3 months after their marriage, mentions a daughter, Margaret Edna, born 26 Nov 1908, who was celebrating her 6th birthday. Obviously Margaret must have been Mary Edna's daughter by her first marriage to ? Taylor whom she divorced 8 Jun 1914.

When Howard died at age 92, his obituary mentions these facts: He had attended the Copeland and Shady Grove Schools in E. Bradford Twp. For many years he owned and operated a farm near Cochranville and after his retirement had worked for the Walter Phillips farm in Westtown for 15 years. He was a member of the Westminister Presbyterian Church in West Chester. Howard was survived by several nieces and nephews. Relatives and friends were invited to attend the funeral service "from the Funeral Home of Joseph E. Boyd, successor to Harold A. Fampus, 101 S. Church St., West Chester, PA." Among Howard's pallbearers were two of his nephews, Robert and Paul, sons of his younger brother, George White Hoopes, whom he outlived by 7 years.

3641. GEORGE WHITE HOOPES, son of Edwin T. and Elizabeth E. ( John) Hoopes, was born 10 Oct 1877 in Chester Co., PA and died 21 Mar 1960 in his 82nd year at his home at 10 Ridge Rd. off the Wilmington Pike. He was buried from Hicks Funeral Home at 229 S. High St. in Greenmount Cemetery where his wife was later buried at his side. George married 3 Mar 1909 at West Chester, MARY EMMA STEWARD, daughter of Benjamin Franklin and Mary A. (Moses) Steward. Officiating clergyman at the wedding, which took place at 613 S. High St., was Rev. Charles R. Williamson, PhD. Mary Emma was born 7 Jan 1887 in Birmingham Twp., Chester Co., PA and died 18 Aug 1966. Emma was buried from Founds Funeral Home on Union and High Sts.

The year before George died, the couple celebrated their Golden Wedding Anniversary. An account of the celebration mentions that at the time they were wed, the bride resided near Jefferis Bridge and the groom along Strasburg Rd. After their marriage they moved to a farm in Chadds Ford area, then to a Marshallton area farm where they resided until retirement in 1953.

SEVENTH GENERATION

Hoopes, was born 3 Feb 1845 in W. Fallowfield, PA and died 6 Dec 1920 in Baltimore, MD where he is buried in Asbury M. E. Church Burial Ground near Port Deposit, MD. He married 1) in Jan 1866, MARY WILSON. We know nothing about Mary except that she died in 1859, childless. Moses married 2) on 5 Sep 1883, RACHEL ANN (WEIR) CARTER, parents unknown, widow of William Carter. Preacher Harvey performed the ceremony in Oxford, PA. Rachel was born in 1846 and died New Year's Day 1891. She is buried with Moses. Moses was a Private in Co. I, 1st Regiment, Potomac Home Brigade from 15 Mar 1864 to 28 Jun 1865 during the Civil War. His pension record lists his family, but in some cases names the children differently. We have tried to combine the two lists successfully:

SEVENTH GENERATION

3675. ISAAC HARVEY HOOPEES, son of Isaac T. and Sarah McConnell (Litzenberg) Hoopes was born 26 Sep 1872 in Hockessin, DE and died 13 Mar 1942 in Glenlock, PA. He married 20 Mar 1894, LAURA E. RUSSELL, daughter of James Russell of Londongrove, PA, born 13 Dec 1873 and died 19 Jan 1930 at her home on "Shirley Farms", Glen Loch. Her obituary states that she had been ill for almost 2 years and had undergone a series of operations.

Isaac and Laura had lived at Glen Loch for 12 years at the time of Laura's death. Previous to that time they had resided at Radnor for a quarter of a century. They were originally from Unionville and Marshallton, PA.

In addition to her husband and son, Laura was survived by a brother, James Russell, superintendent of plumbing at the Dauphin Co. Prison in Harrisburg, PA. Laura is buried at Unionville Cemetery.

Issue:

6228. H. Eugene Hoopes was born 13 Jul 1894 in E. Marlborough, PA and died 1 Aug 1938. He is buried in Unionville Cemetery. He married 20 Aug 1917, Tim-ma Treva Hammer. H. Eugene was associated with the police department in Philadelphia and lived at 6534 Lebanon Ave. there. He and his wife were childless.

3685. JOHN CYRUS HOOPEES, son of Meredith Franklin and Elizabeth J. (Mendenhall) Hoopes, was born 17 May 1868 in Goshen, PA and died 3 Jan 1947. He married on Tuesday evening, 15 Sep 1901 at the parsonage of the Fairhill Baptist Church with the Rev. Charles E. McClellan, D.D. officiating, EMMA BELLE POWELL, daughter of William and Caroline (Furman) Powell of Coatesville. Emma was born 28 Aug 1858 and died 3 Jun 1938.

Late in Oct 1914, Emma took the two children, left John Cyrus and went to live with her sister, Cora Powell on Sixth Ave. in Coatesville. John petitioned for custody or visitation rights which he was granted. Apparently the couple never reconciled because Emma's obituary read as follows:

"Mrs. E. Belle Hoopes died suddenly at her home, 354 Walnut St., at 3:15 this morning from a heart attack. A physician who was called and hurried to the home, arrived after she had passed away.

"Mrs. Hoopes had suffered a heart attack about a year ago but since then had been in comparatively good health. She retired apparently in her usual health about 9:00 o'clock last night. About 1:30 this morning she got up and remarked to her sisters, Misses Cora and Sidney Powell, with whom she lived, that she was hungry.

"She went downstairs, apparently to get something to eat, and later returned to bed. Shortly after 3 o'clock her sisters heard her coughing and they investigated and found her in a very serious condition. They sent a hurry call for Dr. Jackson Taylor but before he could reach their home, Mrs. Hoopes died."

Curious to note that although her husband or ex-husband and son were living at the time of her death, only Emma's daughter and her sisters were mentioned as survivors.

John C. Hoopes also succumbed to a heart attack which he suffered on New Year's Day 1947 at the home of his son, Arthur J. Hoopes of 121 Coulter Ave., with whom he made his home. Death came on the 3rd of Jan at the Philadelphia General Hospital. For two years preceding his death, John C. was retired. Previous to that time he owned and operated his own meat business for many years in the Reading Terminal Market in Philadelphia. At one time he had resided on a farm near Manor and also on W. Barnard St. there. He was a Quaker and attended Friends Meeting.

John's obituary does not mention his daughter, Marion, saying that he was survived by his son and two grandchildren, so she probably predeceased him by a few months since she also died in 1947. John C. was buried in Oakland FBG. Emma Belle, who was a member of Hepzibah Baptist Church was buried in its cemetery.

3698. PERCY HOSKINS HOOPES, son of Jesse Taylor and Margaret (Woodward) Hoopes, was born 28 Sep 1859 in E. Goshen, PA. He died in his home of more than 60 years on 30 Jul 1944. The Rev. Joseph J. Evans, pastor of Goshen Baptist Church performed the wedding ceremony which united Percy and COR-ENA EACHUS LODGE. Corena was the daughter of Emmor and Hannah (Eachus) Lodge of Westtown. Born in Chester Co., PA on 21 Apr 1870, Corena died 5 Dec 1959 in the Springer Convalescent Home in West Chester in her 89th year.

Percy and Corena lived happily together for almost 50 years in their home at "Goshenville", an old wayside inn, located on the Philadelphia Pike near the Goshen Baptist Church. Percy was a butcher in W. Goshen Twp. and later was employed at the water works at Milltown for 18 years. For four years he was tax collector in W. Goshen Twp. He was active in the affairs of his community until three or four years before his death, when he first became ill. He then retired and remained at home. He was a faithful member of the Goshen Baptist Church. According to a note in a newspaper at the time of his marriage to Corena, Percy was baptized in Chester Creek near Milltown. Corena was a member of Westminster Presbyterian Church.

He married 22 Jan 1902 at Annapolis, MD, MARY HOWARD PETERSON, daughter of Thomas Howard and Mary (Connell) Peterson, born 31 Jul 1876 in Newport, RI and died 7 Apr 1947 in Carmel, CA. She is buried in Salinas Cemetery.

The wedding of Edward and Mary received a great deal of publicity in the newspapers in PA and MD in Jan 1902. Because of the wealth of background information contained in these articles, we would like to quote from them. The Philadelphia PRESS, 22 Jan 1902 carried large headlines announcing, "The Day in Society", "the Hoopes-Peterson Wedding at Annapolis." Slightly smaller headlines went on to say "Naval Officer and the New York Author will be Married Today. Nuptials Will Be Resplendent with Uniforms and Gold Lace." Pictures of Edward T. Hoopes and his bride topped the two adjoining columns.

"Miss Maude Howard Peterson, the author of New York, and Edward T. Hoopes, assistant paymaster, U.S.N., will be married at noon today in the U. S. Naval Academy Chapel at Annapolis, MD. The ceremony will be performed by Chaplain Henry H. Clark, U.S.N. The wedding will be resplendent with uniforms and gold lace. The 10 ushers will be officers in the Navy, while the 10 bridesmaids, several of whom will be Philadelphians, will wear black picture hats and pink dresses. (Later in the account the dresses were said to be white.)

"Miss Peterson, whose novel, THE POTTER AND THE CLAY has brought her fame, has passed much of her life in Philadelphia and Newport. She is the granddaughter of the late Charles J. Peterson, editor of Peterson's Magazine, and brother of T. B. Peterson, the publisher. No doubt he and his friends, some of the most brilliant men of letters and art in America, influenced the child's mind. At any rate her literary aspirations date from an early period in her life. Her first story, written while the young author was laboriously printing her own letters, aspired to be a novel in a dozen chapters.

"Mr. Hoopes is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Maris Hoopes of Columbia, PA and comes from the old Quaker family of that name in Chester Co. He was admitted to the Naval Academy at Annapolis on 6 Sep 1893 and remained at the academy three years. After leaving there he was in the employ of the International Navigation

Co. serving on the St. Paul. When this boat was converted into a cruiser, during the Spanish-American War, he served through the war as an ensign. Last Fall he was appointed an assistant paymaster in the Navy. Until a week ago he was serving in Cuban waters, when he was ordered to the Naval Hospital at Yokohama, via the Doric, which sails from San Francisco on 15 Feb thence to duty on Asiatic station.

"These orders hastened the wedding, which was to take place in the Spring, and the date was set for today. Mr. and Mrs. Hoopes' bridal journey will be the trip to Mr. Hoopes' new post of duty for Mrs. Hoopes has decided to accompany her husband.

"The dress of the bride at the ceremony today will be of old family white silk with pointed lace applique and trimmed with pearls and orange blossoms. She will wear a white tulle veil and carry a bouquet of orange blossoms and lilies of the valley, tied with showered white streamers. Mrs. Peterson, mother of the bride, will be dressed in black silk muslin. The bridesmaids will be dressed in white organdie and will wear black picture hats.....The officers will wear special Navy full dress and the civilian ushers will be in afternoon dress....."

Another account of the wedding read in part: "Both Have Won Fame"... "The engagement was romantic, the bride having won high laurels in the field of literature, while the groom upheld the eminence of sword over pen during the war with Spain. He was with the fleet at Santiago, all through the Cuban naval campaign, and performed many deeds of valor that won honorable mention."

An account of the wedding in the BALTIMORE SUN states: This was the first wedding at the chapel [at Annapolis] for some time and excited a good deal of interest, especially as neither were residents. Mr. Hoopes was at one time a cadet in the academy, from which he resigned some years ago, and the bride, having been a frequent visitor here, desired that the ceremony be performed in the chapel."

Mary Howard (Peterson) Hoopes and her husband were both written up in WHO'S WHO. Mary's account states that she wrote under the pen names of Maud Howard Peterson and Anna E. Finn. She was educated in private schools and was tutored. In addition to THE POTTER AND THE CLAY which appeared in 1901, she wrote THE MASTER MAN, 1906, THE SANCTUARY, 1912, THE COMMODORE, 1914 and the well-known "Prayer for Animals." She was a life member of the New England Anti-Vivisection Society.

G apt. Hoopes lived to the ripe old age of 93 and died in a convalescent home in CA on Tues., 2 Sep 1969. An obituary which appeared in the MONTEREY PENINSULA HERALD the following day states that he had lived in the area for 30 years.

"He was a cadet at the U. S. Naval Academy from 6 Sep 1893 to 25 Feb 1897 and in May 1898 participated in the Spanish American War as a volunteer Navy ensign on the U.S.S. Scindia in Guantanamo Bay, Cuba, and later on the U.S.S. Eagle.

SEVENTH GENERATION

"His years of active Navy duty totaled 43 years, 10 months and 11 days, and included assignments at Navy Yards in Norfolk, Boston, Puget Sound, and the Sixth Naval District, as paymaster and as supervisory cost inspector.

"In 1919 he was transferred to the Charleston Navy Yard as accounting officer and in 1921 was appointed supply officer and aide on the staff of the Commander, Pacific Fleet.

"After attending the Naval War College, he served on the staff of the War College President and later as Fleet Paymaster. On 12 Jun 1930, Capt. Hoopes was assigned to the Bureau of Supplies and Accounts in Washington, DC where he also served as assistant to the Chief of the Planning Division.

"He retired 1 Jan 1940 after serving under the Commandant of the 12th Naval District as general inspector for the West Coast, but returned to active duty on 1 Nov 1940 serving until 30 Jun 1942.

"Capt. Hoopes' medals and awards include the World War II Victory Medal, the Philippine Campaign and the Spanish Campaign Badges....."

An interesting account appeared in the local newspaper at the time of Edward and Anna's wedding from which I would like to quote:

"At the bride's home, 125 E. Washington St., Anna C. Evans, daughter of Isaac Evans and Edward I. Hoopes, son of Ralston R. Hoopes, will be married this afternoon at two o'clock by Friends ceremony.

"The bride is a teacher and a granddaughter of the late Marshall Fell, who long sat at the head of Bradford Meeting, Marshallton; and the groom is a well-known business man of this borough. Overseers from Bradford Meeting are Morris S. Cope and Susanna T. Cope, James Reed, of Downingtown, and Lydia Worth. The certificate will be read by Morris Cope.

"White mousseline, embroidered, is worn by the bride, and her maid of honor, Chiney A. Young, of Northbrook, wears white embroidered chiffonette. The bridesmaid, Anna L. Warrington, wears embroidered batiste. The best man is William R. Hoopes, brother of the groom, and the usher is I. Roland Evans, brother of the bride. There is a procession but no wedding march.

"After the ceremony a reception will be held, about 125 guests being present, and then the bride and groom will leave for their wedding tour. On their return, they will live at 233 S. Walnut St."

The day after the wedding, the entire list of wedding guests appeared in the paper. Many of the names will be seen in the index of this volume.

Edward's obituary states that he died in Chester Co. Hospital at 4:30 a.m. after having been admitted but a few hours before. Death was attributed to pneumonia which followed the "grip".

For many years, Edward I. Hoopes was a well-known business man in the community where he was associated with his father, the late Ralston R. Hoopes in the coal and lumber business. For a number of years preceding his death, Edward was almost totally deaf.

Although some 17 years younger than her husband, Anna outlived Edward by not quite 4 years. She died at the home of her son in her 63rd year.

Anna's obituary discloses the fact that she was a graduate of Westtown School, West Chester State Teachers College and Columbia University and taught for 25 years at the Marple Township School in Broomall, PA.

3993. JOSHUA WOOLSTON ATLEE, son of George Bullock and Clara (Hoopes) Atlee, was born 1 Feb 1867. His first wife whom he married in 1895, was ANNA BIDDLE, born in 1869. He married 2) on 8 Oct 1927, ELIZABETH MANEELY, daughter of Robert and Lucy (Fawcett) Maneely of Newburg, NY who was born 29 Mar 1881.

After spending the usual period at primary and secondary schools, Joshua spent 4 years at the William Penn Charter School. It was during this period that he satisfied his great desire by visiting at the Schuylkill and Delaware River wharves. When he was about 15 years old, Joshua built a model of a schooner, 36 inches long by 11 inches beam, of lemon-box wood, the planking was secured to the framing by very small screws, then caulked and made tight, the same as a real wooden vessel. He then fitted it with cabin, two masts, spars, rigging and sails.

When Joshua showed the model to the uncle for whom he was named, Joshua Woolston suggested he would like to show it to Mr. William Cramp of Cramp's Shipyard. Mr. Cramp was very impressed with the model and immediately employed the youthful Joshua Atlee. He was entered on the spot as an apprentice on 27 Nov 1883 when he was not quite 17 years old.

Joshua enjoyed his work at the drawing board very much and upon reaching his majority, he was made head of the drawing-room for ship and hull work where he acquired greater responsibilities daily. He remained with the company for 44 years until they closed during the latter part of 1927 because of financial conditions. During his tenure, he had taken out a number of patents, the principal one being for the securing of cargo-battens in a ship's cargo spaces, which patent was universally adopted throughout ship-building in the United States along with others he had devised.

Subsequent to the closing of the shipyard, Joshua became associated with the Dodge Steel Co. of Philadelphia, Electrical Steel Founders and in 1933 was purchasing agent for that company.
